The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Second General Court (2021-2022)

Resolve relative to disclosure of radio frequency notifications.

1 Resolved, Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a
2 special commission to research the impact of electromagnetic (EMR) and radiofrequency (RFR)
3 radiation on consumer protection, public health, and technology in the Commonwealth.

4 The commission shall consist of the following 11 members: one of whom shall be the 5 Commissioner of the Department of Public Health or his designee, who shall serve as chair; one 6 of whom shall be the Commissioner of the Department of Telecommunications and Cable or his 7 designee; one of whom shall be a representative from the Office of Technical Assistance and 8 Technology; one of whom shall be the Director of the Office of Consumer Affairs & Business 9 Regulation or his designee; one of whom shall be a member of the Massachusetts Medical 10 Society, who is a specialist in environmental medicine; and 6 members with ten years of work
11 experience in their respective fields shall be appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a

12 representative from the telecommunications industry; one of whom shall be a pediatrician who is 13 knowledgeable about the health effects of EMR and RFR radiation in children; one of whom 14 shall be a scientist who specializes in environmental medicine and is knowledgeable about EMR
15 and RFR radiation; one of whom shall be an attorney with a background in environmental law,
16 with knowledge in EMR and RFR radiation; one of whom shall be an academic who researches
17 medical technology and public health, with knowledge in EMR and RFR radiation and expertise 18 in research methodology; and one of whom shall be an engineer with expertise in wireless 19 network engineering, technology, and knowledge in EMR and RFR radiation.

20 The commission shall include but not be limited to the following research topics: i) 21 exploring the cost/benefit of disclosing radiofrequency notifications on product packing of 22 wireless devices, with a focus on the effects of RFR labeling fine print on consumer buying 23 behavior and impacts on the technology industry; ii) outlining public awareness and education 24 materials on EMR and RFR radiation for consumers and businesses in the Commonwealth; iii)
25 examining the biological effects of EMR and RFR radiation at the non-thermal level impacting 26 adults and children through industry and non-industry research, with an emphasis on device time 27 and children; iv) implications of EMR and RFR radiation exposure in new wireless technology; 28 v) understanding the regulatory impact of FCC setting RFR public radiation exposure limits and 29 reviewing industry compliance protocols with FCC standards; vi) outlining guidelines for quality 30 EMR and RFR radiation research in the Commonwealth by evaluating both industry and non-31 industry findings, trends, and research methodologies; vii) examining the impacts of premarket 32 safety testing procedures for wireless technology; and viii) reviewing national and international 33 regulatory best practices that address the impact of EMR and RFR radiation on technology, 34 consumer protection, and public health.

35 The commission shall file a report of its recommendations and proposed legislation or 36 regulatory changes, if any, with the clerks of the House and Senate and with the chairs of the 37 Joint Committee on Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure not later than December 38 31st 2021.
