The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

1	by inserting after section the following sections:-
2	"SECTION Section 2 of chapter 60 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020
3	Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-
4	The filing fees paid by any municipality for recording any documents pursuant to this
5	chapter shall be $30.
6	SECTION Subsection (c) of section 2C of said chapter 60, as so appearing, is hereby
7	amended by striking out paragraph (1) and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-
8	(1) The sale of tax receivables shall be by public sale to the most responsible and
9	responsive offeror taking into consideration the following evaluation criteria: (i) the price
10	proposed by the offeror; (ii) the offeror's qualifications and experience; (iii) the offeror's plan for
11	communicating with the taxpayers; (iv) whether the offeror has a regular place of business in the
12	commonwealth; (v) whether the offeror is in good standing with the department of revenue; (vi)
13	only those offerors that are licensed as debt collectors by the commonwealth shall be eligible to

14 participate in this sale; and (vii) other criteria determined by the commissioner and the municipality. The sale shall provide for the option to purchase subsequent tax receivables subject to subsection (h) and any regulations that may be promulgated by the commissioner pursuant thereto.

18 SECTION ____. Said subsection (c) of said subsection 2C of said chapter 60, as so
19 appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out paragraph (9) and inserting in place thereof
20 the following paragraph:-

21 (9) A purchaser owning any tax receivable ("tax purchaser") shall give notice to a 22 taxpayer within 12 business days of purchasing said tax receivable and to the appropriate 23 municipality of the name, address, telephone number and preferred method of communication 24 with said purchaser and any service agent acting on behalf of said purchaser within 12 business 25 days of purchasing said tax receivable and where the land is residential such notice shall be 26 served in the manner required by law for the service of subpoenas on witnesses in civil cases and 27 shall include a uniform notice approved by the attorney general, in language understandable by a 28 least sophisticated consumer, together with a notice in the 5 most common languages in the 29 commonwealth that this notice affects important legal rights and should be translated 30 immediately and such notice shall state:

31

(i) that a complaint to foreclose the tax title may be filed on or after a specific date;

32 (ii) that the tax title has been sold to a third party;

(iii) why the property was taken and that the owner may redeem the property and the date
when the redemption period expires;

35 (iv) the components of the amount required to redeem the property and the procedure for36 redemption;

37 (v) that if a complaint to foreclose the tax title is filed and the owner does not respond by38 filing an answer the court may enter an order defaulting the owner;

- (vi) that if a complaint to foreclose the tax title is filed, the owner may respond by filing an answer that requests that the court set the terms by which the owner may redeem the property;
- 41 (vii) that if the property is not redeemed, the town or tax purchaser is entitled to receive 42 an order from the land court that completes a transfer of ownership of the property to the town or 43 said purchaser and permanently eliminates any rights the owner has in the property;
- (viii) that if the property is not redeemed, the property may be sold at auction and the owner will likely lose significant equity in the property, together with the name, address, telephone number and preferred method of communication with said purchaser and any service
- 47 agent acting on behalf of said purchaser; and
- 48 (ix) that upon request by the taxpayer, the municipality shall furnish a copy of such 49 information to the taxpayer within 12 business days of receiving such request.
- 50 Whenever the tax tax purchaser or the service agent of such tax receivables shall change, 51 the new purchaser or service agent shall provide the notice required herein within 12 business 52 days of the effective date of such change.
- 53 SECTION ____. Said section 2C of said chapter 60, as so appearing, is hereby further 54 amended by adding the following subsection:-

55 (k) If the purchaser of a tax receivable on any parcel of real estate subsequently 56 forecloses upon the property, it shall request that the land court approve all reasonable expenses 57 it has incurred and shall provide a notice to the former owner of the right to redeem for this 58 amount within 1 year. If the land is residential such notice shall be served in the manner required 59 by law for the service of subpoenas on witnesses in civil cases and shall include a uniform notice 60 approved by the attorney general, in language understandable by a least sophisticated consumer, 61 together with a notice in the 5 most common languages in the commonwealth that this notice 62 affects important legal rights and should be translated immediately and such notice shall state the 63 following:- (i) that the land has been foreclosed upon and may be redeemed for a specific amount 64 by a date certain that shall be listed, and shall attach all documents filed at land court related to 65 the foreclosure of the property and (ii) that if it is not redeemed it will be sold at public auction.

If the land is redeemed, the foreclosing entity shall take whatever action is necessary to vacate and rescind the foreclosure in land court and record that the title has been redeemed by filing a document at the registry of deeds for the district in which the land lies entitled "Satisfaction of Tax Title Liability."

70 If the land is not redeemed within 1 year, then the foreclosing entity shall publish a notice 71 of auction of the land in each of 3 successive weeks, the first publication of which shall be not 72 less than 21 days before the day of sale, in a newspaper published in the city or town where the 73 land lies or in a newspaper with general circulation in the city or town where the land lies and 74 notice of the sale has been sent at least 14 days prior to the date of sale by registered mail to the 75 owner or owners of record of the last deed prior to the tax taking, to the address set forth in 76 section 61 of chapter 185, if the land is then registered or, in the case of unregistered land, to the address of the owner or owners as given on the deed or on the petition for probate by which the 77

owner or owners acquired title, if any, or if in either case no owner appears, then mailed by registered mail to the address to which the tax collector last sent the tax bill for the premises scheduled to be sold.

81 If the tax purchaser sells the land at auction, the balance of any proceeds above and 82 beyond reasonable expenses as approved by the land court shall be returned to the former owner.
83 A detailed accounting of these expenses will be provided by the tax purchaser within 60 days of 84 such sale.

85 SECTION ____. Section 16 of said chapter 60, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 86 striking out, in lines 2 to 3, inclusive, the words "or arresting him for his tax"

87 SECTION . Said section 16 of said chapter 60, as so appearing, is hereby further 88 amended by striking out the seventh sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 89 sentence:- Demand shall be made by the collector by mailing the same to the last or usual place 90 of business or abode, or to the address best known to him or her, and failure to receive the same 91 shall not invalidate a tax or any proceedings for the enforcement or collection of the same; 92 provided, that if the land is residential a uniform notice approved by the attorney general, in 93 language understandable by a least sophisticated consumer, together with a notice in the 5 most 94 common languages in the commonwealth shall be used that states that this notice affects 95 important legal rights and should be translated immediately, and provides clear notice that the 96 non-payment of property taxes can result in the taking of the property and that the property 97 owner may be eligible for exemptions, abatements and tax deferrals and other assistance and 98 should contact the collector of taxes office together with the address, telephone number, email 99 address, if available, and internet address for further information.

SECTION ____. Said chapter 60 is hereby further amended by striking out section 52 and
inserting in place thereof the following section:-

102 Section 52. Cities and towns may make regulations for the possession, management and 103 sale of land purchased or taken for taxes, not inconsistent with law, regulations promulgated by 104 the department of revenue or the right of redemption. The treasurer of any city or town holding 1 105 or more tax titles may assign and transfer such tax title or titles, individually or bundled, to the 106 highest bidder after a public auction, after having given 60 days' notice of the time and place of 107 such public auction by publication, which shall conform to the requirements of section 40, and 108 having posted such notice in 2 or more convenient and public places in said city or town, 109 provided that the sum so paid for such assignment is not less than the amount necessary for 110 redemption, and may execute and deliver on behalf of the city or town any instrument necessary 111 therefor. Only those bidders that are licensed as debt collectors by the commonwealth shall be 112 eligible to participate in this sale. Regardless of whether the assignment is pursuant to this 113 section or section 2C, the treasurer shall send notice of the intended assignment to the owner of 114 record of each parcel at his or her last known address not less than 10 days prior to the 115 assignment, where the land is residential such notice shall be served in the manner required by 116 law for the service of subpoenas on witnesses in civil cases and shall include a uniform notice 117 approved by the attorney general, together with a notice in the 5 most common languages in the 118 commonwealth that this notice affects important legal rights and should be translated 119 immediately in language understandable by a recipient with a least sophisticated consumer that 120 the treasurer intends to sell the tax title to the homeowner's property and provides clear notice 121 that the non-payment of property taxes can result in the loss of the property and that the property 122 owner may be eligible for exemptions, abatements and tax deferrals and other assistance and should contact the collector of taxes office together with the telephone number, email address, ifavailable, and internet address for further information.

125 The instrument of assignment shall be in a form approved by the commissioner and shall 126 be recorded within 60 days from its date and if so recorded shall provide a rebuttable 127 presumption as to all facts essential to its validity. The instrument of assignment shall, for each 128 parcel assigned thereunder, state the amount for which the tax title on the parcel could have been 129 redeemed on the date of the assignment, separately stating for each parcel the principal amount 130 and the total interest accrued until the date of assignment. The principal amount shall be the sum 131 of the amounts for which the parcel was taken and amounts subsequently certified under section 61 and costs of service if applicable. 132

133 Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, all provisions of law applicable in cases where 134 the original purchaser at a tax sale is another than the city or town shall thereafter apply in the 135 case of such an assignment, as if the assignee had been a tax purchaser for the original sum at the 136 original sale or at a sale made at the time of the taking and had paid to the city or town the 137 subsequent taxes and charges included in the sum paid for the assignment. Any extension of the 138 time within which foreclosure proceedings may not be instituted granted by a municipality's 139 treasurer prior to assignment shall be included in the language of sale and be binding upon the 140 assignee. If the land is not redeemed within 1 year, then the foreclosing entity shall publish a 141 notice of auction of the land in each of 3 successive weeks, the first publication of which shall be 142 not less than 21 days before the day of sale, in a newspaper published in the city or town where 143 the land lies or in a newspaper with general circulation in the city or town where the land lies and 144 notice of the sale has been sent by registered mail to the owner or owners of record. If the 145 purchaser sells the land at auction, the balance of any proceeds above and beyond reasonable expenses as approved by the land court shall be returned to the owner with a detailed accounting of these expenses within 60 days of such sale. If the land is redeemed, the foreclosing entity shall take whatever action is necessary to vacate and rescind the foreclosure in land court and record that the title has been redeemed by filing a document at the county registry of deeds entitled "Satisfaction of Tax Title Liability".

- 151 SECTION ____. Section 53 of said chapter 60, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 152 inserting after the word "published,", in line 6, inclusive, the following words:- where the land is 153 residential such notice shall be served in the manner required by law for the service of subpoenas 154 on witnesses in civil cases and published.
- 155 SECTION ____. Said section 53 of said chapter 60, as so appearing, is hereby further 156 amended by adding the following paragraph:-
- Where the land is residential all notices sent pursuant to this section shall include a uniform notice approved by the attorney general, together with a notice in the five most common languages in the commonwealth that this notice affects important legal rights and should be translated immediately. Such notice shall state in language understandable by a least sophisticated consumer:
- 162 (i)That a complaint to foreclose the tax title may be filed on or after a specific date;
- 163 (ii)That the tax title may be sold to a third party;
- (iii)Why the property was taken and that the owner may redeem the property and the datewhen the redemption period expires;

166 (iv)The components of the amount required to redeem the property and the procedure for167 redemption;

an answer that requests that the court set the terms by which the owner may redeem the property;

(vii)That if the property is not redeemed, the town or tax purchaser is entitled to receive an order from the land court that completes a transfer of ownership of the property to the town or said purchaser and permanently eliminates any rights the owner has in the property; and

(viii)That if the property is not redeemed, the property may be sold at auction and theowner will likely loses significant equity in the property.

177 SECTION ____. Said chapter 60 is hereby further amended by striking out section 62A
178 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

179 Section 62A. Municipalities may by bylaw or ordinance authorize payment agreements 180 between the treasurer and persons entitled to redeem parcels in tax title. Such agreements shall 181 be for a maximum term of no more than 10 years and may waive not more than 50 per cent of 182 the interest that has accrued on the amount of the tax title account unless someone aged 60 or 183 older or whose primary source of income is disability benefits is on the deed for the parcel and 184 the parcel is his or her primary residence, in which case 75 percent of the interest that has 185 accrued on the amount of the tax title may be waived, subject to such lower limit as the 186 ordinance or bylaw may specify. An ordinance or bylaw under this section shall provide for such 187 agreements and waivers uniformly for classes of tax titles defined in the ordinance or bylaw. Any 188 such agreement must require a minimum payment at the inception of the agreement of 25 percent 189 of the amount needed to redeem the parcel unless someone aged 60 or older or whose primary 190 source of income is disability benefits is on the deed for the parcel and the parcel is his or her 191 primary residence, in which case the minimum payment shall be no less than 10 percent of the 192 amount needed to redeem the parcel of the interest that has accrued on the amount of the tax title 193 may be waived, subject to such lower limit as the ordinance or bylaw may specify. During the 194 term of the agreement the treasurer may not bring an action to foreclose the tax title unless 195 payments are not made in accordance with the schedule set out in the agreement or timely 196 payments are not made on other amounts due to the municipality that are a lien on the same 197 parcel.

198 SECTION ____. Said chapter 60 is hereby further amended by striking out section 64 and
199 inserting in place thereof the following section:-

Section 64. The title conveyed by a tax collector's deed or by a taking of land for taxes shall be absolute after foreclosure of the right of redemption by decree of the land court as provided in this chapter. The land court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the foreclosure of all rights of redemption from titles conveyed by a tax collector's deed or a taking of land for taxes, in a proceeding provided for in sections 65 to 75, inclusive. Except if the title was conveyed to a third party pursuant to section 2C or 52 then the title may be redeemed within 1 year of the foreclosure.

SECTION ____. Section 65 of said chapter 60, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 4, the words "after six months," and inserting in place thereof the following words:- after 12 months.".
