1 SECTION 1. Subsection (b) of section 1 of chapter 30B of the General Laws, as 2 amended by section 4 of chapter 176 of the acts of 2011, is hereby further amended by adding 3 the following clause:-

5 defined in section 17A of chapter 183, including exercise of the statutory housing power to sell, 6 following which the statutory housing restriction continues in force and effect as to the premises 7 as before.

9 following 7 sections:-

10 Section 17A. As used in this section and sections 17B to 17G, inclusive, the following 11 words shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

12 "Affordable value", the affordable value of the statutory housing premises under the 13 statutory housing condition and the statutory housing power to sell, unless otherwise defined in 14 the restriction, equal to the consideration paid for the the premises by the eligible household 15 owning the premises, subject to the statutory housing restriction adjusted in proportion to any 16 increase of the area median income from the date the eligible household acquired the premises to 17 the date next preceding the sale for which such information is publicly available; provided, 18 however, that in a restriction stating an alternate means of determining the value of the statutory 19 housing premises, the “affordable value” shall be the amount determined as stated in that 20 restriction.

21 "Area median income", the median income for the standard metropolitan statistical area 22 or equivalent area for the statutory housing premises in which the statutory housing premises are 23 located, adjusted for household size, published by the United States Department of Housing and 24 Urban Development, or such other standard adopted by the department of housing and 25 community development to measure individual and household incomes.

26 "Conforming mortgage", a statutory housing restriction having priority over all 27 mortgages, any mortgage which, when aggregated with all then existing mortgages senior to 28 such mortgage, does not secure principal exceeding the affordable value of the statutory housing 29 premises.

30 "Eligible household", the owner and all persons residing together with the owner at the 31 statutory housing premises and whose household income determined in connection with the 32 acquisition of the statutory housing premises does not exceed the maximum household income 33 established by the holder at the time of such acquisition as stated in the deed, covenant or 34 restriction restricting the statutory housing premises, or if no maximum household income is 35 stated in a deed, covenant or restriction, did not exceed 80 per cent of the area median income, 36 adjusted for the number of individuals in the eligible household.

37 "Governmental body", the United States or the commonwealth, acting through any of its 38 departments, divisions, commissions, boards or agencies, or a political subdivision or public 39 instrumentality thereof or a public authority or quasi-public entity or a municipal affordable 40 housing trust or an instrumentality created pursuant to chapter 40F, whether acting for its own 41 account or as an agent or designee for or as assignees of a private individual or private entity 42 which has been required to place such restriction in its chain of title as a condition of receiving 43 financial or other assistance from the governmental body.

44 "Grantor", a person granting a restriction on the statutory housing condition and with the 45 statutory housing power to sell, and an individual acquiring the premises subject to such a 46 restriction previously granted.

47 "Household income", the aggregate combined gross income of all members of a 48 household under standards established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban 49 Development or such other standards established by the department of housing and community 50 development to measure individual and household incomes.

51 "Statutory housing condition", a condition that may be incorporated in a deed, covenant 52 or restriction by reference, whereby the grantor intends, declares and covenants on behalf of the 53 grantor and grantor's heirs, successors and assigns that the grantor and the grantor's heirs, 54 successors and assigns shall:

55 (i) occupy the dwelling unit on the statutory housing premises as the principal residence 56 of the grantor and the grantor's eligible household;

57 (ii) pay and discharge, when due and payable, all debts secured by the statutory housing 58 premises including, without limitation, taxes, mortgages and other voluntary liens and judgments

59 and reimburse the holder on demand for all amounts paid by the holder to discharge such debts, 60 with interest thereon, until reimbursement at the rate applicable to damages in actions for breach 61 of contract obligations.

62 (iii) not encumber the statutory housing premises or any portion of the statutory housing 63 premises in an amount in excess of its affordable value, nor convey, transfer or otherwise dispose 64 of the statutory housing premises or any portion of the statutory housing premises other than as 65 statutory housing premises; and

66 (iv) upon disposition, convey a fee interest in the statutory housing premises only to a 67 member of an eligible household, approved in writing by the holder, for consideration not 68 exceeding the affordable value of the statutory housing premises at the time of the conveyance; 69 provided, however, that a continuing or newly-acquired ownership, with continued occupancy as 70 a principal residence by the surviving spouse of a qualified owner in the eligible household who 71 resided at the statutory housing premises as the surviving spouse's last principal residence before 72 the qualified owner's death, without regard to the surviving spouse's income, shall not constitute 73 a breach of this condition.

74 "Statutory housing covenant", in a conveyance of real estate:

75 (i) the grantor, for the grantor and the grantor's heirs, executors, administrators, 76 successors and assigns, covenants with the holder and its successors and assigns that: (a) the 77 granted statutory housing premises are free from all encumbrances made by the grantor; (b) the 78 grantor and the grantor's heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns shall warrant 79 and defend the same to the holder and the holder's successors and assigns forever against the 80 lawful claims and demands of all persons claiming by, through or under the grantor, but against 81 none other; (c) the grantor and the grantor's heirs, successors or assigns, during their respective 82 ownership of the statutory housing premises, shall comply fully with the statutory housing 83 condition; and (d) the grantor and the grantor's heirs, successors or assigns, in case a sale shall be 84 made under the statutory housing power to sell, shall, upon request, execute, acknowledge and 85 deliver to any purchaser a deed of release confirming such sale and that the holder and the 86 holder's successors and assigns are appointed and constituted the attorneys-in-fact irrevocable of 87 the the grantor to execute and deliver to any such purchaser a deed and a full transfer of all 88 policies of insurance on the buildings upon the land covered by the statutory housing restriction 89 at the time of sale.

90 "Statutory housing power to sell", the authority of the holder or its successors or assigns, 91 which may be incorporated in a deed, covenant or restriction by reference, upon a default in the 92 performance or observance of the foregoing or other condition reasonably related to maintaining 93 the premises as statutory housing premises, to sell the statutory housing premises or such portion 94 of the statutory housing premises as may remain subject to the statutory housing restriction, 95 together with all improvements thereon, by deed, first complying with the General Laws relating 96 to the holder's sale of statutory housing premises by the exercise of the statutory housing power 97 to sell, and may convey the same by proper deed to the purchaser absolutely and in fee simple, 98 but subject always to the statutory housing covenants on the statutory housing condition and with 99 the statutory housing power to sell; provided, however, that such sale shall forever bar the 100 grantor and all persons claiming rights of fee simple ownership under the grantor or claiming 101 mortgages or other liens against the statutory housing premises in excess of the affordable value 102 from all right and interest in the statutory housing premises, whether at law or in equity.

103 "Statutory housing premises", residential real property subject to a statutory housing 104 restriction.

105 "Statutory housing restriction", a restriction containing the statutory housing covenants, 106 the statutory housing condition or the statutory housing power to sell.

107 Section 17B. A deed, covenant or restriction in substance following the form entitled 108 Deed with Statutory Housing Restriction or the form entitled Statutory Housing Restriction shall, 109 when duly executed, have the force and effect of an affordable housing restriction as defined in 110 section 31 of chapter 184, without limitation as to the enforcement thereof as stated in section 32 111 of said chapter 184, to the use of the holder and the holder's successors and assigns with statutory 112 housing covenants, upon the statutory housing condition and with the statutory housing power to 113 sell, to secure the performance of the statutory housing restriction and any obligation therein 114 specified. The parties may insert in such restriction any other lawful agreement or condition 115 reasonably related to the creation, maintenance and preservation of the premises as statutory 116 housing premises.

117 Section 17C. The following entities shall each be eligible to be a holder of a statutory 118 housing restriction: a governmental body or an agency thereof, a nonprofit organization, a 119 church, employer, university or other entity that is otherwise administering government-120 sponsored, federal, state or local subsidy programs and any other entity so authorized by the 121 department of housing and community development or a successor agency; provided, however, 122 that no restriction granted on the statutory housing power to sell shall be invalid by reason of 123 being held by other than an eligible entity provided that it is assigned to an eligible entity before 124 the exercise of the statutory housing power to sell.

125 A city, by the mayor, unless otherwise provided by charter, ordinance or vote of the city 126 council, and a town, by the board of selectmen, unless otherwise provided by charter, by-law, or 127 vote of the town, may acquire by gift, purchase, grant, bequest, devise, lease or otherwise a 128 statutory housing restriction on real property resulting from regulatory action or funding by the 129 city or town, or otherwise authorized by the city or town, and may hold and exercise all the 130 holder's rights, including the authority to acquire and reconvey the real property as statutory 131 housing premises and otherwise administer and enforce the statutory housing restriction.

132 Section 17D. On written notice from an owner of statutory housing premises or from a 133 mortgagee, proposed mortgagee or other person holding a lien on such premises, the holder shall 134 state in writing the affordable value of the statutory housing premises as of the nearest date for 135 which such determination can be made from public record and such other facts known to the 136 holder necessary to establish whether the owner or other person is in compliance with the 137 statutory housing restriction. Such certificate shall be conclusive as to a mortgagee or other 138 person relying thereon and providing value to the owner within the affordable value or 142 of the holder, or by legislative or judicial action, or otherwise according to law unless a term of 143 years is stated in the restriction. On termination of a statutory housing restriction for any reason 144 prior to expiration of its term and after payment of the affordable value to the owner, mortgagees 145 and other lienholders according to the priority established by law, or such greater amount as is 146 payable under section 3 of chapter 244A, as to holders of conforming mortgages, the holder 147 alone shall be entitled to receive the difference between the affordable value of the statutory 148 housing premises immediately before termination, regardless of the remaining term of the 149 statutory housing restriction, and the fair market value of those premises immediately after 150 termination. Such amount shall be considered a first priority lien in the event that the statutory 151 housing restriction is terminated by judicial action in a bankruptcy proceeding.

152 The statutory housing covenants, statutory housing condition and statutory housing 153 power to sell shall not be subject to section 23 and sections 26 to 30, inclusive, of chapter 184 154 and shall have the benefits of section 32 of said chapter 184 without approval otherwise required 155 thereunder, but all nonstatutory provisions of a statutory housing restriction shall remain subject 156 to said section 23 and said sections 26 to 30, inclusive, of said chapter 184 and shall have the 157 benefits of said section 32 of said chapter 184 only if approved as stated therein.

158 Section 17F. Unless otherwise agreed in an instrument appearing of record, following a 159 mortgagee's foreclosure by a regulated for-profit, not-for-profit or governmental mortgagee 160 holding a first mortgage on statutory housing premises which was subordinate to a statutory 161 housing restriction, in addition to remaining restricted at the affordable value for eligible 162 households as stated in the restriction, only the statutory housing covenants, the statutory 163 housing condition and the statutory housing power to sell, to the extent appearing in the statutory 164 housing restriction, and the statutory obligations of the holder to mortgagees holding conforming 165 mortgages, shall continue in effect, binding the statutory housing premises, and all other 166 provisions of the restriction shall be extinguished.

167 Section 17G. Ownership of statutory housing premises, either by the executor or 168 administrator of an owner in an eligible household, or by the holder or by a mortgagee or other 169 lienholder, or its designee, or by an entity eligible to be a holder of a statutory housing

170 restriction, pursuant to exercise of lawful remedies against the owner, shall not constitute a 171 violation of the statutory housing covenants or the statutory housing condition so long as the 172 premises are being held for resale to, and are resold to, an eligible household as statutory housing 173 premises for an amount not exceeding the affordable value or, in the case of a holder of a 174 conforming mortgage, such greater amount as payable to the mortgagee under section 3 of 175 chapter 244A; provided, however, that the premises shall not be rented, leased or otherwise 176 occupied by a household that is not an eligible household during the period in which the 177 premises are being held for resale.
