The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act strengthening the anti-bullying law.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 37 of chapter 71 of the General Laws, as appearing in 2 section 5 of chapter 92 of the Acts of 2010, is amended in subsection (d) by striking the 3 following text “(viii) procedures consistent with state and federal law for promptly notifying the 4 parents or guardians of a victim and a perpetrator; provided, further, that the parents or guardians 5 of a victim shall also be notified of the action taken to prevent any further acts of bullying or 6 retaliation; and provided, further, that the procedures shall provide for immediate notification
7 pursuant to regulations promulgated under this subsection by the principal or person who holds a 8 comparable role to the local law enforcement agency when criminal charges may be pursued 9 against the perpetrator;” and inserting the following new text:-

10 (viii) procedures consistent with state and federal law for promptly notifying 11 the parents or guardians of a victim and a perpetrator; provided, further, that the parents or 12 guardians of a victim shall also be notified of the action taken to prevent any further acts of 13 bullying or retaliation; and provided, further, that the procedures shall provide for immediate 14 notification by the principal or person who holds a comparable role to the local law enforcement 15 agency to determine whether criminal charges should be brought against the perpetrator;

16 Section 2. Section 37 of chapter 71 is amended by inserting after subsection 17 “(j)” the following new subsection;-

18 (k) The school district where the victim attends shall be responsible for the 19 cost of transportation if a determination is made by the school district approved and collaborative 20 school and the parents or guardian of the victim that, in the best interest of the victim, that the 21 victim be transferred to another school district.
