41 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, after the second paragraph, the following:-

42 For those public institutions of higher learning named in clause (iii) of section 5 of this 43 chapter, each community college's board of trustees shall designate a member or members to 44 serve as a non-voting member of the district trustees for vocational-technical schools that share 45 the same geographic region as the community college, provided that the board elementary and 46 secondary education shall promulgate regulations to ensure that each vocational-technical school 47 board of trustees is represented by a member from every community college in the region. The 48 designated member shall serve as a liaison between the two boards for the purposes of sharing 49 information and developing policies that will promote greater interaction between the 50 community college and the vocational-technical school while maximizing the educational 51 resources available to individuals seeking to learn a trade or develop targeted employment skills.

52 SECTION 13. Section 21 of chapter 15A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 53 amended by inserting after the sixth paragraph the following paragraph:-

54 Each community college board of trustees shall also include a vocational school district 55 trustee, pursuant to section 4 of chapter 74, representing a vocational-technical school in the 56 region, to serve as a non-voting member.

57 SECTION 14. Chapter 21A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 58 inserting after section 41 the following section:-

59 Each community college board of trustees shall submit an annual report developed in 60 conjunction with the district trustees and advisory committees of vocational-technical schools in 61 the same geographic region as the community college, pursuant to geographic region 62 determinations made by the board of higher education. Said report shall be developed in 63 conjunction with employers, local workforce investment boards and regional economic 64 stakeholders. The report shall include, but not be limited to, an analysis of the collaboration 65 between the community college and regional vocational-technical schools and the training and 66 job development programs implemented by the community college and regional vocational-67 technical schools. Copies of said report shall be filed with the board of higher education and the 68 house and senate chairs of the joint committee on labor and workforce development not later 69 than March 31, annually.

70 SECTION 15. Section 1 of chapter 74 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
71 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the definition of “service programs”
72 contained in lines 43 to 44, inclusive, and inserting in place thereof the following definition:-

73 “Service programs”, the preparation of students in occupational areas such as hotel and 74 lodging, cosmetology, child care or any service occupation that by its nature is characterized as 75 being a service, professional or non-professional. Such programs shall be in compliance with the 76 program approval criteria regulations published by the state board.

77 SECTION 16. Section 4 of chapter 74 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
78 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting at the end thereof the following:-

79 Pursuant to section 21 of chapter 15A of the General Laws, one member of said board 80 shall be designated by the district trustees to serve as a non-voting member of the board of 81 trustees for any community college that shares the same geographic region as the independent 82 vocational-technical school, provided that the board of higher education promulgate regulations 83 to ensure that each community college board of trustees is represented by a member of every 84 vocational-technical school in the same geographic region as the community college. The 85 designated member shall serve as a liaison between the two boards for the purposes of sharing 86 information and developing policies that will promote greater interaction between the vocational-87 technical school and the community college while maximizing the educational resources 88 available to individuals seeking to learn a trade or develop targeted employment skills.

89 SECTION 17. Section 6 of chapter 74 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010
90 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, in line 5, after the word “program,” the 91 following

92 words:-

93 “representatives from the board of trustees of community colleges in the region.”.

94 SECTION 18. Chapter 74 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2010 Official 95 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after section 55 the following sections:-

96 Section 56. The district trustees shall establish a program, in collaboration with the 97 advisory committee, the director of the department of career services and a representative of the 98 local workforce investment board, to expand not-for-credit vocationally-oriented instruction
99 provided through contracts with Massachusetts employers. The program shall allow interested 100 business partners to sponsor a prospective or current employee for training provided by the 101 vocational school at the expense of the employer. Each vocational school shall report not later
102 than December 31, annually, to the commissioner of education on the level of not-for-credit
103 vocationally-oriented instruction provided in the preceding fiscal year and the anticipated level
104 of such instruction in the current fiscal year. The report shall detail enrollment levels, revenues 105 received, sources of revenues, recruitment tools, the number of service contracts established with 106 Massachusetts employers and such other information as the commissioner may require. The 107 commissioner shall prepare a comprehensive report of the information and present copies of 108 which to the board of higher education and the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on 109 labor and workforce development not later than March 31, annually.
