SENATE No. 280

By Mr. Eldridge, a petition (accompanied by resolve, Senate, No. 280) of James B. Eldridge and Eileen M. Donoghue for legislation to establish a special commission on two-generation approaches to childhood education. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

Resolve establishing a special commission on two-generation approaches to childhood education.

1 Resolved, SECTION 1. There shall be a special commission entitled the “Special 2 Commission on Two-Generation Approaches” to study and make recommendations concerning 3 the implementation of two-generation systems in Massachusetts, as defined by focusing on 4 creating opportunities for and addressing needs of both vulnerable parents and children together.

5 SECTION 2. The commission shall consist of the secretary of education or designee who 6 shall serve as chair; the commissioner of the department of early education and care or designee;
7 two members of the senate: one of whom shall be the chair of the joint committee on education 8 or designee, and one of whom shall be the chair of the joint committee on children, families and 9 persons with disabilities or designee; two members of the house of representatives: one of whom 10 shall be the chair of the joint committee on education or designee, and one of whom shall be the 11 chair of the joint committee on children, families and persons with disabilities or designee; six 12 persons to be appointed by the governor, three of whom shall be representatives of community-13 based organizations that have experience working with youth and families, two of whom shall be

14 representatives of research or educational institutions specializing in early education, and one of 15 whom shall be a representative of an organization with interest in two-generation approaches.

16 SECTION 3. The commission shall: (1) solicit information and input from service
17 providers, families, educational institutions, and any other parties or entities the commission 18 deems appropriate; review and identify best practices learned from similar efforts in other states
19 and codify the core components of a model two-generation approach for young parents, ages 16-20 24, and their children; (2) establish a two-generational school/employment readiness plan to 21 promote long-term learning and economic success for low-income families by addressing 22 intergenerational barriers to school readiness and workforce readiness with high-quality 23 preschool, intensified workforce training and targeted education, coupled with related support 24 services; (3) study and make recommendations to best maximize the existing intersecting state 25 resources available to fund an expansion of two-generation approaches for young parents, ages 26 16-24, and their children; (4) develop recommendations to measure and evaluate progress for 27 both children and their parents through specified dual generation approaches that result in 28 improved outcomes and increased cost savings; and (5) identify and make recommendations for 29 a new and sustainable funding source for two-generation approaches.

30 SECTION 4. Members of the commission shall be named and the commission shall 31 commence its work within 60 days of the effective date of this resolve. The commission shall 32 report to the general court the results of its study, and together with draft legislation necessary to 33 implement two-generation approaches in the commonwealth by filing the same with the clerks of 34 the senate and the house of representatives and the house and senate chairs of the joint committee 35 on education and the joint committee on children, families and persons with disabilities, not 36 more than 365 days after the effective date of this resolve.
