The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act establishing a special commission on two-generation approaches to childhood education.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1	SECTION 1. (a) There shall be a special commission entitled the Special Commission on
2	Whole Family Approaches to study and make recommendations concerning the implementation
3	of whole family systems in the commonwealth, as defined by focusing on creating opportunities
4	for and addressing needs of both vulnerable parents and children together.
5	(b) For the purposes of this commission, a "Whole Family Approach" shall mean an anti-expansion of whole family approaches for parents and their children; (4) develop recommendations to measure and evaluate progress for both children and their parents through specified dual generation approaches that result in improved outcomes; (5) identify and make recommendations for a new and sustainable funding source for whole family approaches; and (6) establish a definition for "Whole Family Approach" for the commonwealth.

(e) Members of the commission shall be appointed and the commission shall commence its work within 60 days of the effective date of this act. The commission shall report the results of its study, together with any draft legislation necessary to implement whole family approaches in the commonwealth by filing the same with the clerks of the senate and the house of representatives and the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on education and the joint committee on children, families and persons with disabilities, not later than one year after the members of the commission are appointed.
