The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen
—————

An Act regarding higher education opportunities for high school graduates in the Commonwealth..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 9 of chapter 15A of the General Laws, as most recently amended by section 20 of 2 chapter 189 of the acts of 2010, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:— 3 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, for the purpose of 4 determining eligibility for in-state tuition rates and fees at public institutions of higher education,
5 except the University of Massachusetts Medical School and the University of Massachusetts
6 School of Law, any person admitted to such public institutions of higher education, other than a
7 nonimmigrant alien within the meaning of paragraph 15 of subsection (a)(A) through (S) of 8
8 U.S.C., section 1101 of the federal act, who has attended high school in the commonwealth for 3 9 or more years and has graduated from a high school in the commonwealth or attained the 10 equivalent thereof in the commonwealth, shall be eligible to pay in-state tuition rates and fees at 11 the University of Massachusetts, or any other state university or state college or community 12 college in the commonwealth; provided, however, that any person who is eligible for the military 13 selective service under the federal Military Selective Service Act, as amended by 50 U.S.C.,

14 App. 453, section 3, shall register for such. No person qualified for in-state tuition rates and fees
15 under this chapter shall be denied in-state tuition and fees as a result of the granting of eligibility 16 under this paragraph. An eligible person shall provide the University of Massachusetts, or any 17 other state university or state college or community college in the commonwealth with (i) a valid
18 social security number or a document reflecting issuance of an individual taxpayer identification 19 number (ITIN) in lieu of a social security number; (ii) if that person is not a citizen of the United 20 States or a legal permanent resident of the United States, an affidavit signed under the pains and 21 penalties of perjury stating that the person has applied for citizenship or legal permanent 22 residence or will apply for citizenship or legal permanent residence in accordance with federal 23 statute and federal regulations within 120 days of eligibility for such status and (iii)
24 documentation of registration with the selective service, if applicable.
