The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act supporting equal access to community care for elders and the disabled.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Subsection (5) of section 25 of chapter 118E of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the second paragraph 3 and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

4 In any case where the monthly income of an applicant or recipient is in excess of the 5 exemptions allowed, the applicant or recipient, if otherwise eligible for Medicaid under this 6 chapter, shall be liable to pay to the provider of medical care or service an amount which shall be 7 equal to the excess income for a period of six consecutive months, which includes the period
8 when such service was provided; provided, however that in such cases where the individual’s 9 gross income is greater than 300 per cent of the federal Supplemental Security Income level but

10 less than the average monthly cost of nursing home care as calculated by the division and the 11 individual is participating in a Home and Community Based Waiver, under 42 USC 12 1396a(10)(a)(ii)(VI) or a PACE Program, under 42 USC 1396u-4 or 42 USC 1395eee, the 13 division shall charge a premium, equal to the difference between the individual's gross income 14 and 300 per cent of the federal Supplemental Security Income level, on a monthly basis. The 15 division shall apply for any federal waivers necessary to implement this provision.
