The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act creating a right to representation for college students in some school disciplinary matters.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. CERTAIN NONACADEMIC DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS; RIGHT
2 TO REPRESENTATION.

3 (a) A student enrolled in an institution of higher education, or a student organization 4 officially recognized by the institution, has the right to be represented, at the student's or 5 organization's expense, by a licensed attorney (or, if the student, students, or student organization 6 prefers, a non-attorney advocate) in any disciplinary proceeding initiated by the institution 7 against the student or organization, as applicable, relating to an allegation that the student or 8 organization has violated the institution's disciplinary or conduct rules, where the charges are 9 punishable by a suspension of 10 or more days or expulsion. The attorney or advocate may fully 10 participate in the disciplinary proceeding.

11 (b) For purposes of this section, "disciplinary proceeding" includes an investigatory 12 interview or hearing or any other procedure conducted by the institution of higher education 13 relating to the alleged violation that the student or student organization reasonably believes may 14 result in disciplinary action against the student or organization, as applicable.

15 (c) In disciplinary proceedings arising from a complaint by a student or students against 16 another student or students, where the charges are punishable by a suspension of 10 or more days 17 or expulsion, both the accused student(s) and the student complainant(s) shall have the right to be 18 represented, at their own expense and at their sole discretion, by a licensed attorney (or, if the 19 student or students prefer, a non-attorney advocate) who may fully participate during any 20 disciplinary procedure or other procedure adopted and used by the institution of higher education 21 regarding the alleged violation.

22 (d) Before a student may be questioned by an institution of higher education or by an 23 agent of the institution of higher education about allegations of violations of the institution's 24 disciplinary or conduct rules, where the charges are punishable by a suspension of 10 or more 25 days or expulsion, the university must advise the student of his or her rights under this Act.

26 (e) This Act does not apply to disciplinary proceedings regarding allegations of academic 27 dishonesty as defined by the applicable institution of higher education; and

28 (f) This Act does not create a right to representation at a disciplinary proceeding of an 29 institution of higher education at public expense.

30 SECTION 2. Upon discovering any exculpatory evidence related to a student under 31 investigation for or charged with a crime, the school administration or law enforcement 32 component of any post secondary state or private educational institution in the commonwealth

33 shall immediately notify, in writing, the relevant law enforcement agency, federal prosecutor,
34 district attorney, or the state attorney general, as well as the student, of the exculpatory 35 evidence."

36 SECTION 3. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent the temporary suspension of 37 a student pending an investigation.

38 SECTION 4. (a) Any student who is suspended or expelled from an institution of higher 39 education in violation of this Act, or any student organization that is sanctioned in violation of 40 this Act, may bring an action in any Massachusetts Trial Court of competent jurisdiction.

41 (b) In an action brought under this Act, if the State Court finds a violation of this Act, the 42 Court may award the aggrieved person or student organization Compensatory damages, 43 reasonable court costs, and attorneys' fees, including expert fees, monetary damages of not less 44 than the cost of tuition paid by the student or on the student's behalf to the institution of higher
45 education for the semester during which the violation of the Act occurred plus monetary 46 damages of not less than the amount of any scholarship funding lost as a result of the campus
47 discipline, and any other relief in equity or law as deemed appropriate including, but not limited 48 to, a de novo rehearing at the institution of higher education, in accordance with this section.

49 (c) A person or student organization must bring suit for violation of this Act not later than 50 one year after the day the cause of action accrues. For purposes of calculating the one-year 51 limitation period, the cause of action shall be deemed accrued on the date that the student or 52 student organization receives final notice of discipline from the educational institution.

53 SECTION 5. This Act is effective when it becomes law and applies to all allegations of 54 violations beginning on or after that date.
