The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Thirteen

An Act restoring enforcement of civil rights.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 12 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 2 amended by inserting after section 11L the following new section:—

3 11M

4 (a) No unit of State, county, or local government shall:—

5 (1) exclude a person from participation in, deny a person the benefits of, or 6 otherwise subject a person to discrimination in any program or activity on the grounds of that 7 person’s race, color, national origin, or sex; or

8 (2) utilize criteria or methods of administration that have the effect of excluding 9 persons from participation in, denying persons the benefits of, or otherwise subjecting persons to 10 discrimination in any program or activity because of their race, color, national origin, or sex.

11 (b) Any person aggrieved by conduct that violates subsection (a) may bring a 12 civil lawsuit, in a State court, against the offending unit of government. This lawsuit must be 13 brought not later than 3 years after the violation of subsection (a). A violation of this section is 14 established if, based on the totality of the circumstances, it is shown that any individual has been

15 denied any of the rights protected by subsection (a). If the court finds that a violation of 16 paragraph (1) of subsection (a) has occurred, the court may award to the plaintiff actual and 17 punitive damages and if the court finds that a violation of paragraph (2) of subsection (a) has 18 occurred, the court may award to the plaintiff actual damages. The court, as it deems appropriate, 19 may grant as relief any permanent or preliminary injunction, temporary restraining order, or 20 other order.

21 (c) Upon motion, a court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, 22 including expert witness fees and other litigation expenses, to a plaintiff who is a prevailing party 23 in any action brought:—

24 (1) pursuant to subsection (b); or

25 (2) to enforce a right arising under the Massachusetts Constitution.

26 In awarding reasonable attorneys' fees, the court shall consider the degree to 27 which the relief obtained relates to the relief sought.

28 (d) For the purpose of this Act, the term "prevailing party" includes any 29 party:—

30 (1) who obtains some of his or her requested relief through a judicial judgment 31 in his or her favor;

32 (2) who obtains some of his or her requested relief through any settlement 33 agreement approved by the court; or

34 (3) whose pursuit of a non-frivolous claim was a catalyst for a unilateral change
35 in position by the unit of State, county, or local government relative to the relief sought.

36 (e) Nothing in this section shall be intended to require a plaintiff seeking to 37 enforce the protection afforded herein to exhaust any administrative remedies applicable to 38 discrimination actions under other laws.
