An Act promoting savings for first time homebuyers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 23B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by adding after section 30, the following section:-

3 Section 31. The director of the department of housing and community development shall 4 establish a closing costs assistance program for income-eligible first time homebuyers. The 5 department, subject to appropriation, shall issue grants to qualifying homebuyers up to $2,500 6 for the purpose of assisting in paying closing costs and other similar fees associated with the 7 purchase of a home. Said grant may not exceed greater than 100 percent of the documented 8 closing costs in any transaction. The department shall publish any regulations necessary to 9 achieve the purpose of this section.

10           Income-eligible first-time homebuyers, for purposes of this section, shall be defined as 11 any person, or persons for those persons purchasing a home jointly, who maintains a first-time 12 home-buying account as designated under section 5B of chapter 26, and then utilizes at 13 minimum $1,000 from said account for such a purchase; provided that said person shall have an 14 income of 90 percent of the median area income as estimated by the U.S. Department of Housing 15 and Urban Development for metropolitan statistical areas or less.

16           SECTION 2. Chapter 26, as so appearing, is hereby amended by adding after section 5A, 17 the following new section: -

18           “Section 5B. (a) The commissioner of banks shall establish a first-time home-buying 19 program to be administered by financial institutions licensed to do business in the 20 commonwealth. Such program shall require that new qualifying savings accounts, established by 21 an individual to be designated as a first-time home-buying account, qualify for the benefits
22 prescribed by this section. Individuals with existing qualifying savings accounts shall be entitled 23 to convert and designate such account as a first-time home-buying account. The commissioner 24 shall establish regulations defining a qualifying savings account as such an account suitably 25 chosen by the commissioner from existing forms of savings and retirement accounts for the 26 purpose of this section.

27           (b) Such program shall allow contributions of up to $4,000 to first-time home-buying 28 accounts, designated as such and regulated by the commissioner; provided, that such 29 contributions shall not be considered taxable income and shall be deducted under subsection (a) 30 of section 3 of chapter 62.

31 (c) Under said program, balances of up to $5,000 in qualifying savings accounts 32 established prior to being designated as a first-time home-buying account shall be credited in the 33 first taxable year following the designation under subsection (m) of section 6 of chapter 62.

34 (d) Qualifying distributions to an individual from a first-time home-buying account shall 35 not be considered taxable income under section 2 of chapter 62. Qualifying distributions shall 36 mean distributions for qualified first-time homebuyer expenses as defined by section 72(t)(8) of 37 the Internal Revenue Code, as it may be amended from time to time.

38 Distributions to an individual that do not qualify under this subsection shall be considered 39 taxable income under section 2 of chapter 62 and shall also subject to a penalty of not more than 40 10%. Penalties shall be administered by the commissioner and shall be available to the closing 41 cost assistance program fund created under section 31 of chapter 23B.”

42 SECTION 3. Subdivision (3) of subsection (a) of section (2) of chapter 62, as so 43 appearing, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following subparagraph:-

44 (D) Effective on and after January 1, 2017, any qualifying distribution from a designated 45 first-time home-buying account, as defined by section 5B of chapter 26, shall not be subject to 46 taxes imposed by this chapter; provided however, that any distribution for expenses not exempt 47 from taxation, as defined by section 5B of chapter 26, shall be considered taxable income under 48 this chapter.

49 SECTION 4. Subparagraph (B) of section 3 of chapter 62, as so appearing, is hereby 50 amended by adding at the end thereof the following subdivision:-

51           “(16) Amount expended by an individual for contributions to a qualifying savings 52 account, designated as a first-time home-buying account, pursuant to section 5B of chapter 26,
53 not to exceed $4,000 for the taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2017.”

54           SECTION 5. Subdivision (1) of subsection (d) of section 2 of said chapter 62, as so 55 appearing, is hereby amended by adding after the words “section sixty-two” the following:- “, 56 two hundred and nineteen”.

57           SECTION 6. Subdivision (1) of subsection (d) of section 2 of said chapter 62, as so 58 appearing, is hereby amended by striking subparagraph (F) in its entirety.

59           SECTION 7. Section 6 of chapter 62, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting at 60 the end thereof the following subsection:-

61           “(m) A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this chapter equal
62 to the taxes paid in any one year prior to January 1, 2017 for contributions up to $5,000 into a 63 qualifying savings account converted and designated as a first-time home-buying account, 64 pursuant to section 5B of chapter 26.”
