14 The board shall award and administer grants from the fund, without further appropriation, to 340 motion of the attorney general or district attorney, be declared forfeit by any court having 341 jurisdiction over said property or having final jurisdiction over any related criminal proceeding 342 brought under this section.

343 (c) The court shall order forfeiture of all conveyances and real property subject to 344 forfeiture under this section, except as follows:

345 (i) no conveyance used by any person as a common carrier in the 346 transaction of business as a common carrier shall be forfeited unless it shall appear that the 347 owner or other person in charge of such conveyance was a consenting party or privy to a 348 violation of section 2, 3 or 4;

349 (ii) no conveyance shall be forfeited by reason of any act or omission 350 established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted by any person other than 351 such owner while such conveyance was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the 352 owner in violation of the criminal laws of the United States, or of the commonwealth, or of any 353 state; and

354 (iii) no conveyance or real property shall be subject to forfeiture unless the 355 owner thereof knew or should have known that such conveyance or real property was used in 356 violation of section 2, 3 or 4.

357 (d) A district attorney or the attorney general may petition the superior court in the 358 name of the commonwealth in the nature of a proceeding in rem to order forfeiture of a 359 conveyance, real property, monies or other things of value subject to forfeiture under subsection 360 (a). Such petition shall be filed in the court having jurisdiction over the conveyance, real 361 property, monies or other things of value or having final jurisdiction over any related criminal 362 proceeding brought under section 2, 3 or 4. In all such suits in which the property is claimed by 363 any person, other than the commonwealth, the commonwealth shall have the burden of proving 364 to the court the existence of probable cause to institute the action, and any such claimant shall 365 then have the burden of proving that the property is not forfeitable pursuant to subsection (c).

366 The owner of the conveyance or real property, or other person claiming thereunder shall have the 367 burden of proof as to all exceptions set forth in subsections (c) and (j). The court shall order the 368 commonwealth to give notice by certified or registered mail to the owner of the conveyance, real 369 property, monies or other things of value and to such other persons as appear to have an interest 370 therein, and the court shall promptly, but not less than 2 weeks after notice, hold a hearing on the 371 petition. Upon the motion of the owner of the conveyance, real property, monies or other things 372 of value, the court may continue the hearing on the petition pending the outcome of any criminal 373 trial related to the violation of section 2, 3 or 4. At such hearing the court shall hear evidence 374 and make conclusions of law, and shall thereupon issue a final order, from which the parties shall 375 have a right of appeal. In all such suits where a final order results in a forfeiture, the final order 376 shall provide for disposition of the conveyance, real property, monies or any other thing of value 377 by the commonwealth or any subdivision thereof in any manner not prohibited by law, including 378 official use by an authorized law enforcement or other public agency, or sale at public auction or 379 by competitive bidding. The proceeds of any such sale shall be used to pay the reasonable 380 expenses of the forfeiture proceedings, seizure, storage, maintenance of custody, advertising and 381 notice and the balance thereof shall be distributed as further provided in this section.

382 (e) The final order of the court shall provide that the monies and the proceeds of any 383 such sale shall be distributed as follows:

384 (i) half shall be divided equally between the prosecuting district attorney or 385 attorney general and the city, town or state police department involved in the seizure. If more 386 than 1 department was substantially involved in the seizure, the court having jurisdiction over the 387 forfeiture proceeding shall distribute the police portion equitably among these departments; and

388 (ii) half shall be deposited into the Victims of Human Trafficking Trust Fund 389 established in section 66A of chapter 10.

390 (f) All such monies and proceeds received by any prosecuting district attorney or 391 attorney general shall be deposited in the separate special law enforcement trust funds for each 392 district attorney and for the attorney general within the office of the state treasurer, established 393 under paragraph (d) of section 47 of chapter 94C. Each district attorney, the attorney general or 394 the state treasurer shall ensure that proper accounting procedures are in place to account for 395 monies and proceeds received and expended pursuant to this section. All such monies and 396 proceeds shall be expended without further appropriation to defray the costs of protracted 397 investigations, to provide additional technical equipment or expertise, to provide matching funds 398 to obtain federal grants, or for such other law enforcement purposes as the district attorney or 399 attorney general deems appropriate. The district attorney or attorney general may also expend 400 monies and proceeds for human trafficking prevention or to provide victims' services to human 401 trafficking victims. Within 90 days of the close of the fiscal year, each district attorney and the 402 attorney general shall file an annual report with the house and senate committees on ways and 403 means on the use of the monies in such trust fund to prohibit human trafficking.

404 (g) All such monies and proceeds received by any police department shall be deposited 405 in a special law enforcement trust fund and shall be expended without further appropriation to 406 defray the costs of protracted investigations, to provide additional technical equipment or 407 expertise, to provide matching funds to obtain federal grants, or to accomplish such other law 408 enforcement purposes as the chief of police of such city or town, or the colonel of state police 409 deems appropriate, but such funds shall not be considered a source of revenue to meet the 410 operating needs of such department.

411 (h) Any officer, department, or agency having custody of any property subject to 412 forfeiture under this section or having disposed of the property shall keep and maintain full and 413 complete records showing from whom it received the property, under what authority it held or 414 received or disposed of said property, to whom it delivered the property, the date and manner of 415 disposition of the property, and the exact kinds, quantities and forms of the property. The 416 records shall be open to inspection by all federal and state officers charged with enforcement of 417 federal and state human trafficking laws. Persons making final disposition of the property under 418 court order shall report, under oath, to the court the exact circumstances of such disposition.

419 (i) (i) During the pendency of the proceedings the court may issue at the request 420 of the commonwealth ex parte any preliminary order or process as is necessary to seize or secure 421 the property for which forfeiture is sought and to provide for its custody including, but not 422 limited to: an order that the commonwealth remove the property if possible and safeguard it in a 423 secure location in a reasonable fashion; that monies be deposited in an interest-bearing escrow 424 account and; that a substitute custodian be appointed to manage such property. Property taken or 425 detained under this section shall not be repleviable , but once seized shall be deemed to be 426 lawfully in the custody of the commonwealth pending forfeiture, subject only to the orders and 427 decrees of the court having jurisdiction thereof. Process for seizure of the property shall issue 428 only upon a showing of probable cause, and the application therefore and the issuance, execution 429 and return thereof shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 276, so far as applicable.

430 (ii) A district attorney or the attorney general may refer any real property, 431 and any furnishings, equipment and related personal property located therein, for which seizure 432 is sought, to the division of capital asset management and maintenance office of seized property 433 management, established under section 47 of chapter 94C. The office of seized property

434 management shall preserve and manage the property in a reasonable fashion and dispose of the 435 property upon a judgment ordering forfeiture, and to enter into contracts to preserve, manage and 436 dispose of the property. The office of seized property management may receive initial funding 437 from the special law enforcement trust funds of the attorney general and each district attorney 438 under paragraph (f) and shall subsequently be funded by a portion of the proceeds of each sale of 439 such managed property to the extent provided as payment of reasonable expenses in paragraph 440 (d).

441 (j) The owner of any real property which is the principal domicile of the immediate 442 family of the owner and which is subject to forfeiture under this section may file a petition for 443 homestead exemption with the court having jurisdiction over such forfeiture. The court may, in 444 its discretion, allow the petition exempting from forfeiture an amount allowed under section 1 of 445 chapter 188. The value of the balance of the principal domicile, if any, shall be forfeited as 446 provided in this section. Such homestead exemption may be acquired on only 1 principal 447 domicile for the benefit of the immediate family of the owner.

448 (k) A forfeiture proceeding affecting the title to real property or the use and occupation 449 thereof or the buildings thereon shall not have any effect except against the parties thereto and 450 persons having actual notice thereof, until a memorandum containing the names of the parties to 451 such proceeding, the name of the town wherein the affected real property lies, and a description 452 of the real property sufficiently accurate for identification is recorded in the registry of deeds for 453 the county or district wherein the real property lies. At any time after a judgment on the merits, 454 or after the discontinuance, dismissal or other final disposition is recorded by the court having 455 jurisdiction over such matter, the clerk of such court shall issue a certificate of the fact of such 456 judgment, discontinuance, dismissal or other final disposition, and such certificate shall be

457 recorded in the registry in which the original memorandum recorded pursuant to this section was 458 filed.

459 Section 16. In any prosecution of a person who is a human trafficking victim, it shall 460 be an affirmative defense that he was under duress or coerced into committing the offenses for 461 which he is being prosecuted, unless prohibited by the general laws. A human trafficking victim 462 is not criminally liable for any sexual conduct for a fee or other thing of value committed as a 463 direct result of, or incident or related to, being trafficked.

464 Section 17. Compensation is mandatory under this section. In addition to any other 465 amount of loss identified, the division of victim compensation and assistance in the department 466 of the attorney general shall compensate human trafficking victims including the greater of the 467 following: (1) the gross income or value to the defendant of the victim's labor or services or (2) 468 the value of the victim's labor or services as guaranteed under the commonwealth's minimum 469 wage and overtime provisions; whichever is greater, and interest. Any alleged human trafficking 470 victim will also be eligible for any state funded benefits including, but not limited to, cash 471 assistance and medical insurance.

474 2000 . The attorney general, district attorney, or any law enforcement official shall certify in 475 writing to the United States Department of Justice or other federal agency, such as the United 476 States Department of Homeland Security, that an investigation or prosecution under this chapter 477 has begun and that the human trafficking victim is willing to cooperate or is cooperating with the 478 investigation in order to enable that individual, if eligible under federal law, to qualify for a T-

479 Visa or another appropriate visa and to access available federal benefits. Cooperation with law 480 enforcement shall not be required of human trafficking victims who are under 18 years of age.
481 This certification shall be made available to the victim and his designated legal representative.

482 (b) When a credible report has been made to the police of a crime described in this 483 chapter, and upon request of the victim of that crime, the attorney general, district attorney, 484 department of social services, or any law enforcement official shall certify in writing to the 485 United States Department of Justice, the United States Department of Homeland Security, 486 including any subset thereof, such as the United States Customs and Immigration Service or the 487 United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement, that the individual making the request is a 488 victim of such crime and that the individual has been helpful, is being helpful, or is likely to be 489 helpful in the investigation or prosecution, of that crime in order to enable that individual, if 490 eligible under federal law, to qualify for a U-Visa or another appropriate visa and to access 491 available federal benefits. For the purposes of this section, an individual will be deemed to have 492 been helpful in the investigation or prosecution of the crime if he has filed a credible report of 493 the crime with the police or other law enforcement officials or provided a statement concerning 494 the underlying circumstances of the crime to the police or other law enforcement officials even 495 where that victim has requested that no domestic prosecution occur because of a reasonable fear 496 that harm will come to individuals who reside abroad where local law enforcement cannot 497 provide protection. The certification provided under this subsection, as well as a photocopy of 498 the victim's report of the crime, shall be made available to the victim and the victim's designated 499 representative.

500 (c) Human trafficking victims may be eligible for continued presence status in the 501 United States subject to the provisions of 28 Code of Federal Regulations 1100.35.

502 (d) (i) Within 20 business days of the first encounter of a human trafficking 503 victim, law enforcement agencies shall provide brief letters that satisfy the following Law

506 (ii) The LEA must be submitted on Supplement B, Declaration of Law
507 Enforcement Officer for Victim of Trafficking in Persons, of Form I-914. The LEA 508 endorsement must be filled out completely in accordance with the instructions contained on the 509 form and must attach the results of any name or database inquiry performed. In order to provide 510 persuasive evidence, the LEA endorsement must contain a description of the victimization upon 511 which the application is based, including the dates the human trafficking and victimization 512 occurred, and be signed by a supervising official responsible for the investigation or prosecution 513 of human trafficking. The LEA endorsement must address whether the victim had been 514 recruited, harbored, transported, provided, or obtained specifically for either labor or services or 515 for the purposes of a sexual conduct for a fee or other thing of value.

516 (iii) Where state or local law enforcement agencies find the grant of an LEA 517 endorsement to be inappropriate for a human trafficking victim, the agency shall within 15 518 business days provide the human trafficking victim with a letter explaining the grounds for the 519 denial of the LEA . The human trafficking victim may submit additional evidence to the law 520 enforcement agency, which shall reconsider the denial of the LEA within 5 business days of the 521 receipt of additional evidence.

522 (iv) Law enforcement agencies that demonstrate a consistent pattern of 523 failing to meet the time limits established in paragraphs (d)(i) and (d)(iii) shall be prohibited

524 from retaining or receiving assets or the proceeds from assets forfeited under section 14 of this 525 chapter. The attorney general and the secretary of health and human services shall jointly 526 determine whether a law enforcement agency has demonstrated a consistent pattern of failing to 527 meet the above mentioned time limits and shall consider reports from human trafficking case 528 workers and other victim service providers as evidence. The attorney general and the secretary 529 of health and human services shall jointly determine whether a law enforcement agency has 530 made sufficient progress in meeting the above mentioned time limits in order to allow such law 531 enforcement agency to retain or receive assets or the proceeds from assets forfeited under section 532 14 of this chapter. The attorney general and the secretary of health and human services shall 533 consider reports from human trafficking case workers and other victim service providers as 534 evidence in making their determination.
