The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act enabling local options for tenant protections.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 40P of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out its title
2 and inserting in place thereof the following title:-

3 TENANT PROTECTION ACT.

4 SECTION 2. Said chapter 40P, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out 5 sections 1 to 5, inclusive, and inserting in place thereof the following 9 sections:-

6 Section 1. PURPOSE.

7 The purpose of this chapter is to provide municipalities with local options for rent 8 stabilization, just cause eviction protections, condominium conversion ordinances, and other 9 tenant protections along with provisions for fair return standards for property owners and 10 exemptions for owner-occupant landlords and new and recently-constructed housing.

11 Section 2. GENERAL COURT FINDINGS.

12 The general court hereby finds and declares that homelessness, displacement, foreclosure, 13 lack of affordable rental and ownership opportunities, and excessive rent burden are 14 commonplace throughout the commonwealth.

15 Section 3. LOCAL ACCEPTANCE OF ANY SECTION.

16 A city or town may accept any of the sections of this chapter in the manner provided in 17 section 4 of chapter 4 and a city or town that has accepted a section may, in like manner, revoke 18 its acceptance.

19 Section 4. LOCAL OPTION RENT STABILIZATION.

20 (a) A city or town accepting this section may, by local charter provision, ordinance or by-21 law regulate the rent and eviction of tenants in multi-family housing and provide for reasonable 22 exemptions from such regulation.

23 (b) Any city or town that adopts this section may provide for fair return standards for the 24 regulation of rent.

25 (c) For the purposes of this section the term “multi-family housing” shall not include 3 or 26 less dwelling units in an owner occupied dwelling, and shall not include undergraduate 27 dormitories, non-profit hospitals, facilities for the residential care of the elderly, units whose rent 28 is subject to regulation by a public housing authority, or dwelling units for which a residential 29 certificate of occupancy was obtained for the first time fifteen years ago or less, on a rolling 30 basis.

31 (d) Any city or town that adopts this section may ensure that certain dwelling units 32 governed by such measures are eligible for those individuals or households who meet income-33 based eligibility requirements as provided for by the city or town.

34 (e) A city or town may establish or designate an administrator, board or committee to 35 promulgate regulations and any registration and reporting requirements pursuant to this section 36 and may partner with community-based organizations in developing public awareness campaigns 37 and may also establish a Small Landlords and Homeowners Assistance Bureau to offer related 38 technical assistance.

39 Section 5. JUST CAUSE EVICTION PROTECTION.

40 (a) The provisions of this section shall be applicable to all housing accommodations in 41 any city or town of the commonwealth that adopts this section; provided however, that a city or 42 town may provide for exemptions from the provisions of this section and any such exemption 43 shall be included in an ordinance or by-law adopted by the municipality. A city or town that 44 accepts this section, may by ordinance or by-law provide that a lessor shall not recover 45 possession of a leased unit within multi-family housing or residential dwellings, as otherwise 46 defined by the municipality, which shall not include 3 or less dwelling units in an owner 47 occupied dwelling, unless the court finds that:

48 (1) the lessee has failed to pay the rent to which the lessor is entitled;

49 (2) the lessee has violated an obligation or covenant of his or her tenancy not inconsistent 50 with chapter 93A, or this section, or the regulations issued pursuant thereto, other than the 51 obligation to surrender possession upon proper notice; and the lessee has failed to cure such 52 violation after having received written notice thereof from the lessor;

53 (3) the lessee is committing or permitting to exist a nuisance in or is causing substantial 54 damage to the leased unit, or is creating a substantial interference with the comfort, safety or 55 enjoyment of the lessor or other occupants of the same or any adjacent accommodations;

56 (4) the lessee has used or permitted a leased unit to be used for any illegal purposes;

57 (5) the lessee, who had a written lease agreement which terminated or is a tenant at will, 58 has refused, after written request or demand by the lessor, to execute a written extension or 59 renewal thereof or lease for a further term of like duration, at a rental rate that does not exceed a 60 certain percentage, set by the municipality, of the consumer price index of the rental rate under 61 the prior lease agreement or at will tenancy, and on such terms that are not inconsistent with or 62 violative of any provision of said chapter 93A or of this section; provided, that for purposes of 63 this clause, the term "consumer price index" refers to the annual 12-month average change in the 64 Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, New England Division (All Items), as 65 published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor in 66 September of the prior calendar year;

67 (6) the lessee has refused the lessor reasonable access to the unit for the purpose of 68 making necessary repairs or improvements required by the laws of the commonwealth or any 69 political subdivision thereof, or for the purpose of inspection as permitted or required by such 70 lessee's lease agreement or by law, or for the purpose of showing the leased unit to any 71 prospective purchaser or mortgagee;

72 (7) the person holding at the end of a lease term is a sublessee not approved by the lessor;

73 (8) the lessor seeks in good faith to recover possession of a leased unit for his or her own 74 use and occupancy or for the use and occupancy by his or her spouse, children, grandchildren,

75 great grandchildren, parents, grandparents, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-76 law, or daughter-in-law, and has provided the tenant with 180 days written notice and an offer of 77 a relocation assistance payment equal to at least 3 months' rent, unless, for example, a 78 municipality has further provided for a partial or complete exemption to the relocation assistance 79 payment provision as it applies to low-income or moderate-income landlords; or

80 (9) the lessor seeks to recover possession for any other just cause, provided that his or her 81 purpose is not in conflict with the provisions and purposes of said chapter 93A or this section.

82 (b) A lessor shall notify the clerk's office of the city or town in which the leased unit is 83 located prior to initiating judicial proceedings in compliance with this section.

84 (c) A lessor who recovers possession of a leased unit in violation of this section shall be 85 punished by a fine not less than $5,000. Each such recovery in violation of this section shall 86 constitute a separate offense. The housing court shall have jurisdiction over an action arising 87 from a violation of this section and shall have jurisdiction in equity to restrain any such violation.
88 It shall be a defense to a lessee in an action pursuant to this section that a lessor attempted to 89 recover a leased unit in violation of this section.

90 Section 6. CONDOMINIUM CONVERSION ORDINANCES.

91 (a) A municipality, by majority vote of its legislative body, may enact an ordinance or 92 by-law to regulate the conversion of housing accommodations in the municipality to the 93 condominium or cooperative form of ownership and the regulation of rent and the eviction of 94 tenants' incident to the conversion or sale of condominiums. Said ordinance or by-law may 95 include, but is not limited to: (i) provisions for investigations into and hearings on condominium 96 conversions or proposed conversions; (ii) a permit process; (iii) tenant notification requirements;

97 (iv) relocation costs for tenants and other measures to protect tenants; (v) control of evictions;
98 (vi) penalties for violation of the ordinance or by-law; and (vii) exemptions from the provisions
99 of this subsection. The ordinance or by-law may establish a condominium review board or vest 100 administrative duties in an existing municipal board, commission or office. The review board 101 may exercise such powers as it is given by ordinance or by-law.

102 (b) A municipality that adopted an ordinance or by-law for the regulation of the 103 conversion of housing accommodations to the condominium or cooperative forms of ownership 104 and evictions related thereto pursuant to the authority conferred upon the municipality by general 105 law or special act prior to the effective date of this section may continue to exercise such 106 authority. This section shall not be construed to restrict the authority of said municipality to 107 amend or repeal any ordinance or by-law in accordance with the provisions of said general law 108 or special act.

109 (c) A municipality may, by majority vote of its legislative body, accept this section in the 110 manner provided in section 4 of chapter 4 and a municipality that has accepted this section may, 111 in like manner, revoke its acceptance.

112 Section 7. PROTECTION FROM IMMEDIATE RENT INCREASES.

113 Unless otherwise provided for in this chapter, the maximum rent of a regulated rental unit 114 shall be the rent charged the occupant for the month 12 months prior to the acceptance of this 115 section by a municipality. If the rental unit was unoccupied at that time but was occupied at any 116 time prior to acceptance of this section, the maximum rent shall be the rent charged therefor for 117 the month closest to 12 months prior to the effective date of this section. If the maximum rent is

118 not otherwise established, it shall be established by the city or town as provided for in this 119 chapter. Any maximum rent may be subsequently adjusted under the provisions of this chapter.

120 Section 8. REGULATION OF TENANT DEPOSITS AND FEES, INCLUDING 121 BROKERS FEES.

122 (a) A city or town that adopts this section may regulate by ordinance or by-law the 123 payment of deposits and non-refundable move-in fees paid by a residential tenant or prospective 124 tenant, notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary; provided however, that no by-125 law or ordinance shall provide that a lessor may require a tenant or prospective tenant to pay any 126 amount in excess of the amount provided for in section 15B of 186.

127 (b) Such regulation may include installment payment options for a tenant's last month's 128 rent and security deposit pursuant to this section.

129 (c) A city or town ordinance or by-law may provide that a tenant may elect to pay a 130 security deposit and last month's rent in installments as follows:

131 (1) for any rental agreement term that establishes a tenancy for 6 months or longer, the 132 tenant may elect to pay the security deposit and last month's rent in 6 consecutive, equal monthly 133 installments that begin at the inception of the tenancy or the tenant may propose an alternative 134 installment schedule. If the landlord agrees to the tenant's alternative installment schedule the 135 schedule shall be described in the rental agreement;

136 (2) for any other rental agreement term that establishes a tenancy, the tenant may elect to 137 pay the security deposit and last month's rent in no more than 4 equal amounts that begin at the 138 inception of the tenancy and are paid in installments of equal duration or the tenant may propose

139 an alternative installment schedule. If the landlord agrees to the tenant's alternative installment 140 schedule the schedule shall be described in the rental agreement.

141 (d) Landlords may not impose any fee, charge any interest, or otherwise impose a cost on 142 a tenant because a tenant elects to pay the last month's rent in installments.

143 (e) A landlord who fails to comply with the requirements of any ordinance or by-law 144 promulgated pursuant to this section shall be liable to the tenant for $1,000 plus reasonable 145 attorney fees and costs in addition to any other remedy available at law.

146 (f) This section shall not apply to a tenant who rents a unit in an owner occupied dwelling 147 with 3 or less dwelling units.

148 (g) In addition to the powers granted to a city or town in this section and notwithstanding 149 section 87DDD½ of chapter 112, a city or town may by local charter provision, ordinance or by-150 law regulate, limit or prohibit the business of finding dwelling accommodations for a fee.

151 Section 9. MUNICIPAL ANTI-DISPLACEMENT ZONES.

152 (a) A city or town accepting any section in this chapter may, in addition to municipal-153 wide implementation of such section, provide for the implementation or exemption of such 154 section's provisions, in distinct anti-displacement zones, in which it has been determined that 155 residential households of low, moderate or middle income have been displaced or are at risk of 156 displacement, as defined by the municipality.

157 (b) A community organization, as defined by the municipality, may petition the 158 municipality for the establishment of an anti-displacement zone.
