SENATE No. 00898

By Mr. Timilty, petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 898) of Schmid, Sullivan, O'Connell and other members of the General Court for legislation to promote public safety through the equitable allocation of funding for prosecutors and public defenders in the Commonwealth [Joint Committee on the Judiciary].

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year Two Thousand Eleven

An Act to promote public safety through the equitable allocation of funding for prosecutors and public defenders in the Commonwealth..

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, no later than 2 October 1, 2012, the Chief Justice of the Administrative Office of the Trial Court shall submit to 3 the secretary of the Executive Office of Administration and Finance, the chairpersons of the 4 house and senate committees on ways and means, the chief counsel of the Committee for Public
5 Counsel Services (CPCS) and the executive director of the Massachusetts District Attorneys 6 Association a report indicating the number of all criminal and delinquency cases initiated in the 7 courts of the Commonwealth during fiscal year 2011, delineated as follows: the number of 8 criminal cases filed in the district courts and in the Boston Municipal Court; the number of 9 youthful offender and delinquency cases filed in the juvenile courts; the number of criminal 10 cases filed in the superior courts and, of those cases, how many were cases charging murder or

11 manslaughter; and the number of petitions filed by the Commonwealth in superior court seeking 12 the commitment of a respondent as a sexually dangerous person under G.L. ch. 123A. For 13 purposes of this section the term “case” shall mean one defendant with one set of related criminal 14 charges. The report shall indicate, of those cases or petitions, the number where the 15 Commonwealth was represented by an assistant district attorney. The report shall also indicate, 16 of those cases or petitions, the number where the defendant was represented by a public defender
17 employed by the Committee for Public Counsel Services and the number where the defendant
18 was represented by a private attorney employed by the Committee for Public Counsel Services.

19 SECTION 2. Notwithstanding any special or general rule to the contrary, in 20 determining budgets for fiscal year 2013 and each fiscal year thereafter, the executive office of 21 administration and finance and the House and Senate committees on ways and means shall 22 weight all cases as follows: each district court criminal case and juvenile delinquency case shall 23 be counted as one; each petition seeking a commitment under G.L. ch. 123A shall be counted as 24 three; each superior court criminal case shall be counted as three; and each homicide or 25 manslaughter case shall be counted as four. From these weights there shall be determined a 26 caseload ratio for the District Attorneys and the Committee for Public Counsel Services. On or 27 after January 1, 2013, in no event shall the annual total appropriation, including supplemental 28 funding, for the District Attorneys or the criminal caseload of the Committee for Public Counsel
29 Services exceed this ratio by more than 10%.
