8 striking out paragraph (4) and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

32 the terms of employment within six months after an employee has provided evidence in 33 connection with a claim for benefits under this chapter, or has testified at any hearing conducted 34 under any provision of this chapter, shall create a rebuttable presumption that such notice or 35 other action is a reprisal against the employee for providing evidence. Such presumption shall be 36 rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence that such employer's action was not a reprisal 37 against the employee and that the employer had sufficient independent justification for taking 38 such action, and would have in fact taken such action, in the same manner and at the same time
39 the action was taken, regardless of the employee's providing evidence in connection with a claim 40 for benefit under this chapter. An employing unit found to have threatened, coerced or taken 41 reprisal against any employee pursuant to this paragraph shall rescind any adverse alteration in 42 the terms of employment for such employee and shall offer reinstatement to any terminated 43 employee and shall also be liable for damages and costs of the suit, including a reasonable 44 attorney's fee.

50 redetermination an appeal therefrom solely with respect to the matters involved in such increase 51 may be filed in the manner and subject to the limitations provided in sections 39 to 40, inclusive.
52 If the amount of benefits would be decreased upon such redetermination, the matters involved in 53 such decrease shall be subject to review in connection with an appeal by the claimant thereon or

54 from any determination upon a subsequent claim for benefits which may be affected in amount 55 or duration by such redetermination. Any proposed decrease or increase of the amount of 56 benefits based upon such a redetermination shall not take effect if any party seeks timely review 57 in accordance with section 39(b). Subject to the same limitations and for the same reasons, the 58 commissioner may reconsider the determination in any case in which a decision has been 59 rendered by the board of review or a court, and may apply to said board or such court which 60 rendered such decision to revoke or modify such decision and the board of review or court may 61 affirm, modify or revoke such decision.
