SENATE No. 956

By Ms. Edwards, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 956) of Lydia Edwards, Angelo J. Puppolo, Jr., Sal N. DiDomenico, Jacob R. Oliveira and other members of the General Court for legislation to promote housing opportunity and mobility through eviction sealing (HOMES).
The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-Third General Court (2023-2024)

An Act promoting housing opportunity and mobility through eviction sealing (HOMES).

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 “SECTION 135A. Chapter 239 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 2 following section:-

3 Section 15. (a) The following words, as used in this section, shall have the following 4 meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:-

5 “Consumer report”, written, oral or other communication of any information by a 6 consumer reporting agency bearing on a person’s credit worthiness, credit standing or credit 7 capacity that is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in part for the purpose of 8 serving as a factor in establishing the person’s eligibility for rental housing or other purposes 9 authorized under section 51 of chapter 93.

10 “Consumer reporting agency”, individual, partnership, corporation, trust, estate, 11 cooperative, association, government or governmental subdivision or agency, or other entity that,

12 for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in 13 part in the practice of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information 14 on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties.

15 “Court”, the trial court of the commonwealth established pursuant to section 1 of chapter 16 211B and any departments or offices established within the trial court.

17 “Court record”, paper or electronic records or data in any communicable form compiled 18 by, on file with or in the care custody or control of, the court, that concern a person and relate to 19 the nature or disposition of an eviction action or a lessor action.

20 “Eviction action”, a summary process action under this chapter to recover possession of 21 residential premises.

22 “Lessor action” any civil action brought against the owner, manager or lessor of 23 residential premises by the tenant or occupant of such premises relating to or arising out of such 24 property, rental, tenancy or occupancy for breach of warranty, breach of any material provision 25 of the rental agreement or violation of any other law.

26 “No-fault eviction” any eviction action in which the notice to quit, notice of termination 27 or complaint does not include an allegation of nonpayment of rent or of violation of any material 28 term of the tenancy by the tenant or occupant; provided, however that a “no-fault eviction” shall 29 include an action brought after termination of a tenancy for economic, business or other reasons 30 not constituting a violation of the terms of the tenancy.

31 (b) Any person having a court record of a no-fault eviction on file in a court may petition 32 the court to seal the court record at any time after the conclusion of the action, including

33 exhaustion of all rights of appeal. The petition shall be on a form furnished by the trial court of 34 the commonwealth, signed under the penalties of perjury, and filed in the same court as the 35 action sought to be sealed. If an action was active in more than 1 court during its pendency, then 36 a petition may be filed in each such court. Notice shall be given to parties to the original action.
37 The court shall comply with the petitioner's request provided that the record only pertains to a 38 no-fault eviction and the action has concluded with all rights of appeal exhausted. If no objection
39 is filed by a party within seven (7) days of filing the petition, such court may, in its discretion, 40 process such petitions administratively without a hearing.

41 (c) Any person having a court record in an eviction action for non-payment of rent on 42 file in a court may, on a form furnished by the Trial Court and signed under the penalties of 43 perjury, petition the court to seal the court record. The petition shall be filed in the same court as 44 the action sought to be sealed. If an action was active in more than one court during its pendency, 45 then a petition may be filed in each such court. Notice shall be given to parties to the original 46 action. The court shall comply with the petitioner's request provided that: the record of the action 47 which the petitioner seeks to seal concluded, including exhaustion of all rights of appeal, not less 48 than 4 years before the request and no eviction action for nonpayment or lessor action has been 49 brought against the petitioner within the Commonwealth in the 4 years preceding the request; 50 and (b) the petitioner certifies on the petition that the non-payment of rent was due to an 51 economic hardship and such economic hardship has rendered them unable to satisfy the 52 judgment. If no objection is filed by a party, the court may, in its discretion, process such 53 petitions administratively without a hearing. If an objection is filed by a party, within seven (7)
54 days of filing the petition, the Court shall conduct a hearing to determine the petitioner's

55 compliance with the foregoing conditions and may require the petitioner to complete a Financial 56 Statement on a form furnished by the Trial Court.

57 (d) Any person having a court record of a fault eviction on file in a court may, on a form
58 furnished by the Trial Court and signed under the penalties of perjury, petition the court to seal 59 the court record. The petition shall be filed in the same court as the action sought to be sealed. If 60 an action was active in more than one court during its pendency, then a petition may be filed in 61 each such court. Notice shall be given to parties to the original action. The court shall comply 62 with the petitioner's request provided that the record of the action which the petitioner seeks to 63 seal concluded, including exhaustion of all rights of appeal, not less than 7 years before the 64 request and no eviction action for fault or lessor action has been brought against the petitioner
65 within the Commonwealth in the 7 years preceding the request. If no objection is filed by a party, 66 within seven (7) days of filing the petition, the court may, in its discretion, process such 67 petitions administratively without a hearing.

68 (e) Any person having a court judgment against them in a civil action commenced 69 pursuant to General Laws c. 139 Section 19 on file in a court may, on a form furnished by the 70 Trial Court and signed under the penalties of perjury, petition the court to seal the court record.
71 The petition shall be filed in the same court as the action sought to be sealed. If an action was 72 active in more than one court during its pendency, then a petition may be filed in each such 73 court. Notice shall be given to parties to the original action. The court shall schedule a hearing to 74 determine: (a) whether such action which the petitioner seeks to seal concluded, including 75 exhaustion of all rights of appeal, not less than 7 years before the request and no eviction action 76 for fault, or action pursuant to General Laws c. 139 Section 19, has been brought against the 77 petitioner within the Commonwealth in the 7 years preceding the request, and such petitioner has

78 not been convicted of any criminal offense reference in Chapter 139, Section 19 during such 7 79 year period; and (b) whether the sealing of such record is the interest of justice and public safety.
80 Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, where the plaintiff did not obtain a judgment in 81 its favor, the defendant may petition to seal the court record at any time after the conclusion of 82 the action, including exhaustion of all rights of appeal.

83 (e) Upon motion and for good cause shown, or as otherwise authorized by this section, 84 court records sealed under this section may at the discretion of the court and upon a balancing of 85 the interests of the litigants and the public in nondisclosure of the information with the interests 86 of the requesting party, be made available for public safety, scholarly, educational, journalistic or 87 governmental purposes only, provided, however, that the personal identifying information of the 88 parties involved in the action, shall remain sealed unless the court determines that release of such 89 information is appropriate under this subsection and necessary to fulfill the purpose of the 90 request. Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to permit the release of personal identifying 91 information for commercial purposes.

92 (f) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the dissemination of information contained in a 93 record sealed pursuant to this section as the court deems necessary or appropriate: (i) for the 94 collection of a money judgment; (ii) to pursue a criminal investigation; (iii) to pursue a criminal 95 prosecution; or (iv) where information in the sealed record was entered into evidence in a 96 criminal prosecution that resulted in a criminal charge.

97 (g) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a person or their representative from petitioning 98 the court to obtain access to sealed eviction records in which the person is a party.

99 (h) A consumer reporting agency shall not disclose the existence of, or information 100 regarding, an eviction record sealed under this section or use information contained in a sealed 101 court record as a factor to determine any score or recommendation to be included in a consumer 102 report unless the court record was available for inspection with the court not more than 30 days
103 of the report date. A consumer reporting agency may include in a consumer report, information 104 found in publicly available court records, provided, however, that the consumer report shall 105 include a person's full name, whether an eviction action was a fault eviction, a no-fault eviction 106 or a lessor action, and the outcome of any eviction action if such information is contained in the 107 publicly-available court record. Information contained in a sealed court record shall be removed 108 from the consumer report or from the calculation of any score or recommendation to be included 109 in a consumer report not more than 30 days of the sealing of the court record from which it is 110 derived. Any consumer reporting agency that violates this subsection shall be liable to the person 111 who is the subject of the consumer report in an amount equal to the sum of any actual damages 112 sustained by the consumer as a result of the failure and, the costs of the action, including 113 reasonable attorney's fees. The attorney general shall enforce the provisions of this paragraph 114 and remedies provided hereunder shall not be exclusive. Nothing in this subsection shall be 115 deemed to waive the rights or remedies of any person under any other law or regulation.

116 (i) An application used to screen applicants for housing or credit that seeks information 117 concerning prior eviction actions of the applicant shall include the following statement: "An 118 applicant for housing or credit with a sealed record on file with the court pursuant to section 15
119 of chapter 239 of the General Laws may answer 'no record' to an inquiry relative to that sealed 120 court record. No party shall be liable for any violation of the foregoing provision unless such 121 party has first been issued a written warning from the Attorney General's office and has failed to

122 address the violation within ninety (90) days of such notice. The petition provided by the Court 123 for the sealing of records as provided herein and any order granting such petition shall contain 124 the following notice: “An applicant for housing or credit with a sealed record on file with the 125 court pursuant to section 15 of chapter 239 of the General Laws may answer ‘no record’ to an 126 inquiry relative to that sealed court record.”

127 (j) A party who obtains a judgment or enters into an agreement in an eviction action 128 solely for nonpayment of rent, shall, not more than 14 days after satisfaction of the judgment or 129 agreement, file with the court in which the judgment or agreement was entered a notice of 130 satisfaction of the judgment or agreement. A party that has satisfied such a judgment or 131 agreement may, upon noncompliance with this subsection by the other party, file a petition for 132 the judgment or agreement to be deemed satisfied, with notice to the parties to such action. The 133 court shall comply with the petitioner’s request provided that the record only pertains to an 134 action for nonpayment of rent and the judgment or agreement has been satisfied. If no objection
135 is filed by a party within seven (7) days of filing the petition, such court may, in its discretion, 136 process such petitions administratively without a hearing. Upon the filing of a notice of 137 satisfaction of judgment or an agreement, or court judgment deeming the judgment or agreement 138 satisfied, a party may petition the court to seal the court record pertaining to that action. The 139 petition shall be on a form furnished by the Trial Court of the Commonwealth, signed under the 140 penalties of perjury, and filed in the same court as the action sought to be sealed. If an action was 141 active in more than 1 court during its pendency, a petition may be filed in each such court.
142 Notice shall be given to parties to the original action. Such court shall comply with the 143 petitioner’s request and seal the court record if the judgment or agreement has been satisfied and 144 the action has concluded with all rights of appeal exhausted with no objection filed by a party

145 within seven (7) days of filing the petition. The court may process such petitions administratively 146 without a hearing.”; and

147 SECTION XX. Section 52 of chapter 93 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2020
148 Official Edition, is hereby amended, in subsection (a), by inserting at the end thereof the 149 following clause:- (7) eviction records sealed pursuant to section 15 of chapter 239.

150 SECTION XX. Subsection (h) of section 15 of Chapter 239 shall take effect upon 151 passage.
