Analysis

Current Law: Each judge of the orphans' court for Carroll County receives annual compensation of $10,000, which is paid monthly. Each judge is also allowed $200 annually for travelling expenses, which is payable quarterly.

Background: Under the Maryland Constitution, each county elects, for a term of four years, three judges to the orphans' court of their respective jurisdictions, with the exception of Montgomery and Harford counties, where a circuit court judge sits as the orphans' court. The orphans' courts are the State's probate courts. The courts supervise the handling of estates and also have certain jurisdiction over the guardianship of minors and their property. The salaries of orphans' court judges are paid by county governments and Baltimore City (except for Harford and Montgomery counties because the State pays the salaries of circuit court judges).

Local Expenditures: County expenditures increase by approximately $11,550 in fiscal 2015 and by $19,800 annually thereafter. This estimate accounts for the salary increases taking effect in early December 2014, the beginning of the next term of office, and includes fringe benefits.
