HOUSE BILL 225

D4 (5lr0875)

ENROLLED BILL

— Judiciary/Judicial Proceedings —

Introduced by Delegates Dumais, Anderson, Angel, Atterbeary, Hettleman, Jalisi, Kittleman, McComas, Moon, Morales, Rosenberg, Smith, Valentino-Smith, Waldstreicher, and B. Wilson B. Wilson, and Glass

Read and Ex	xamined by Proofreaders:
	Proofreader.
	Proofreader.
Sealed with the Great Seal and pr	resented to the Governor, for his approval this day of a	t o'clock,M.
	Speaker.
CF	HAPTER
AN ACT concerning
Domestic Vio	olence – Additional Relief
to include any other relief the appropriate; expanding the relieve order and a final protective order	of that may be awarded in an interim protective order that a District Court commissioner determines is sef that may be awarded in a temporary protective or to include any other relief that a judge determines of the person eligible for relief from abuse; and tolence.
BY repealing and reenacting, without a Article – Family Law Section 4–504.1(b), 4–505(a)(1), Annotated Code of Maryland

EXPLANATION: CAPITALS INDICATE MATTER ADDED TO EXISTING LAW.

[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

Underlining indicates amendments to bill.

1

2

Strike out indicates matter stricken from the bill by amendment or deleted from the law by amendment.

Italics indicate opposite chamber/conference committee amendments.

1	(2012 Replacement Volume and 2014 Supplement)
2 3 4 5 6	BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments, Article – Family Law Section 4–504.1(e), 4–505(a)(2), and 4–506(d) Annotated Code of Maryland (2012 Replacement Volume and 2014 Supplement)
7 8	SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:
9	Article – Family Law
10	4=504.1.
11 12 13 14	(b) If a petition is filed with a commissioner and the commissioner finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the respondent has abused a person eligible for relief, the commissioner may issue an interim protective order to protect a person eligible for relief.
15	(c) An interim protective order may:
16 17	(1) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief;
18 19	(2) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing a person eligible for relief;
20 21	(3) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief;
22 23	(4) if a person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse:
24	(i) order the respondent to vacate the home immediately;
25 26	(ii) award to a person eligible for relief custody of any child of the person eligible for relief and respondent then residing in the home; and
27 28 29	(iii) subject to the limits as to a nonspouse specified in § 4-505(a)(2)(iv) of this subtitle, award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief;
30 31	(5) in a case alleging abuse of a child, award temporary custody of a minor child of the respondent and a person eligible for relief;

19 (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; 21 (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; 22 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 23 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
a nonspouse specified in § 4 505(a)(2)(iv) of this subtitle, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home; 4 (7) order the respondent to remain away from the place of employment, school, or temporary recidence of a person eligible for relief; 6 (8) order the respondent to remain away from the residence of any family member of a person eligible for relief for! 8 (0) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR 10 (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 11 4-505. 12 (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parts or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief. 13 (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: 14 (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief. 15 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the recidence of a person eligible for relief. 16 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are reciding together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the reopondent to weate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonsp	1	(6) in a case alleging abuse of a vulnerable adult, subject to the limits as to
possession of the home to an adult living in the home; (7) order the respondent to remain away from the place of employment, school, or temporary recidence of a person eligible for relief; (8) order the respondent to remain away from the residence of any family member of a person eligible for relief; [or] (9) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 12 4 505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (ii) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threate of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are reciding together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible to relief unless the name of the person eligible to relief unless the name of the person eligible to relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspective person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspective person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspective person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspective person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible of the home to a nonspective person eligible of the home to a nonspective person eligible of the home to a n	2
(7) order the respondent to remain away from the place of employment, school, or temporary recidence of a person eligible for relief; (8) order the respondent to remain away from the recidence of any family member of a person eligible for relief, [or] (9) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4-505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (a) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (ii) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief: (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief. (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief. (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligible for relief or the home to a nonspeuse person eligi	3
school, or temporary residence of a person eligible for relief; (8) order the respondent to remain away from the residence of any family member of a person eligible for relief; [or] (9) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4–505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parts or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threate of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for relief the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for head award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the determined the person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the determined th
school, or temporary residence of a person eligible for relief; (8) order the respondent to remain away from the residence of any family member of a person eligible for relief; [or] (9) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4–505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parts or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threate of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for relief the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for head award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonepouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the determined the person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the determined th	4	(7) order the respondent to remain away from the place of employment,
(8) order the respondent to remain away from the residence of any family member of a person eligible for relief; [or] (9) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4-505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief: (b) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home to made the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award tempor	5
member of a person eligible for relief; [or] (0) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4–505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief: (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (ii) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible to the light of the light that the person eligible to the light unless the name of the person eligible to the light unless the name of the pe
member of a person eligible for relief; [or] (0) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4–505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief: (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (ii) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for	6	(8) order the respondent to remain away from the residence of any family
(9) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; OR (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a neady temporary use and possession of the home to a neady temporary use and possession of the home to a neady temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a neady temporary use and possession of the home to a neady temporary use and possession of the home to a neady temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home.	7
(10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4-505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threate of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	·	moment of a person ongine for roner, [or]
(10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4-505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threate of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	8	(9) award temporary possession of any net of the person eligible for relief
10 (10) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE COMMISSIONER 11 DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 12 4-505. 13 (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief: 14 (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: 15 (ii) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; 16 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; 17 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for relief tunless the name of the person eligible
DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4-505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible.	J	or the respondent, or
DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE. 4-505. (a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible.	10	(10) ODDED ANY OTHER DELIES THAT THE COMMISSIONED
(a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
(a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	11	DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE.
(a) (1) If, after a hearing on a petition, whether ex parte or otherwise, a judge finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	10
finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	12	4-505.
finds that there are reasonable grounds to believe that a person eligible for relief has been abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	10 abused, the judge may enter a temporary protective order to protect any person eligible for relief from abuse. The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible relief from abuse. The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible 17 (2) The temporary protective order may order any or all of the following relief: 19 (i) erder the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; 20 (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; 21 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 22 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
19 (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; 21 (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; 22 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 23 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 24 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	16	relief from abuse.
19 (i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; 21 (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; 22 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 23 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 24 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
(i) order the respondent to refrain from further abuse or threats of abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	17
abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	18	relief:
abuse of a person eligible for relief; (ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
(ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	19	•
contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	20	abuse of a person eligible for relief;
contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief; (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
23 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 25 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	21	(ii) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to
23 (iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a person eligible for relief; 25 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	22	contact, or harassing any person eligible for relief;
25 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are 26 residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home 27 immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible 28 for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, 29 award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided 30 that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession 31 of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
25 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are 26 residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home 27 immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible 28 for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, 29 award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided 30 that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession 31 of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	23	(iii) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of a
25 (iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are 26 residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home 27 immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible 28 for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, 29 award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided 30 that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession 31 of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	24	person eligible for relief;
residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible
residing together at the time of the alleged abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	25	(iv) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	26
for relief or in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	27
award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	28
that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	29
31 of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible	30
	31
	32	for relief appears on the lease or deed to the home or the person eligible for relief has resided in the home with the respondent for a period of at least 90 days within 1 year before the 33

34

filing of the petition;

1		(v)			-				·			place of
2	employment, school	l, or t e	empora	ry res	sidence	e of a r	erso	n eligibl	e for re	lief or	home	e of other
3	family members;
4		(vi)	order	the re	espond	lent to	rem	ain awa	v from	a child	-care	provider
5	of a person eligible	` /
6	provider;						1
7		(vii)	award	l temı	oorarv	custo	lv of	a minor	child	of the 1	oerso :	n eligible
8	for relief and the re			1			J					. 8
9		(viii)	order	the re	spond	ent to	surre	nder to l	law enf	orcem(ent au	thorities
10	any firearm in the
11	for the duration of t	_		_					_		J	,
12			1.	the 1	ise of	a fires	rm l	v the re	anond	ent ag	ainst	a person
13	eligible for relief;			0110 0	100 01	a 11100	.1111 ~	,, 0110-10	оброни	one age	A1110 C	a person
	,
14			2.	a thi	reat b :	y the	resp e	ondent t	o use	a fires	ırm s	igainst a
15	person eligible for r	elief;
16			3.	serio	us bod	ily har	m to	a persor	ı eligib	le for r	elief c	:aused by
17	the respondent; or
10			4	- 41	4 1	41		144-		1	L _ J:1_	- 1 4 -
18	a managar alimible for	1: .	4. £. [eat by	tne re	spon	uent to c	ause s	erious 	ooan	r harm to
19	a person eligible for	rene	i, [anu]	F
20		(iv)	award	Ltemr	oorgry	nagge	aion	of any r	et of t	ne nere	on el	igible for
21	relief or the respond	(12) donte		- tom	Jorary	Possor)61011	or arry k) (0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 	ne pers)011 	igibic ioi
21	rener or the respond	uem, .
22		(X)	ORDE	D AN	V OTH	IED DI		r THAT	THE I	UDGE	DETE	RMINES
23	IS APPROPRIATE	(21)	ONDE	10 1111	1 0111	1210 101	212112		11112 9	ODGE :	DLII
20	19 M I WOI WILL:
24	4–506.
25	(c) (1)	Tf +h o		dont.		a hafa	no th		+ 0 2220	+ a a t i .	and a	n haanin a
$\frac{25}{26}$	(c) (1) or has been served		_						_			r hearing
$\frac{20}{27}$	has personal jurisd				-		-		uer, or	the co	Juli C	unei wise
41	nas personal jurisu.	1001011	OVEL UI	ie res _j	ponder	110, 1110	Juug	С.
28		(i)	may p	rocee	d with	the fi	nal p	rotective	e order	hearin	ıg; an	d
29		(ii)	if the	indag	e finde	hv a	nren	onderan	ce of ti	ne evic	lence	that the
30	alleged abuse has o	` /				•
31	the judge may gran
32	abuse.		F-0	•		. To		J 130		0

- 1 (d) The final protective order may include any or all of the following relief:
- 2 (1) order the respondent to refrain from abusing or threatening to abuse 3 any person eligible for relief;
- 4 (2) order the respondent to refrain from contacting, attempting to contact, 5 or harassing any person eligible for relief;
 - (3) order the respondent to refrain from entering the residence of any person eligible for relief;

- (4) where the person eligible for relief and the respondent are residing together at the time of the abuse, order the respondent to vacate the home immediately and award temporary use and possession of the home to the person eligible for relief or, in the case of alleged abuse of a child or alleged abuse of a vulnerable adult, award temporary use and possession of the home to an adult living in the home, provided that the court may not grant an order to vacate and award temporary use and possession of the home to a nonspouse person eligible for relief unless the name of the person eligible for relief appears on the lease or deed to the home or the person eligible for relief has shared the home with the respondent for a period of at least 90 days within 1 year before the filing of the petition;
- 17 (5) order the respondent to remain away from the place of employment, 18 school, or temporary residence of a person eligible for relief or home of other family 19 members:
- 20 (6) order the respondent to remain away from a child care provider of a person eligible for relief while a child of the person is in the care of the child care provider;
 - (7) award temporary custody of a minor child of the respondent and a person eligible for relief;
 - (8) establish temporary visitation with a minor child of the respondent and a person eligible for relief on a basis which gives primary consideration to the welfare of the minor child and the safety of any other person eligible for relief. If the court finds that the safety of a person eligible for relief will be jeopardized by unsupervised or unrestricted visitation, the court shall condition or restrict visitation as to time, place, duration, or supervision, or deny visitation entirely, as needed to guard the safety of any person eligible for relief;
 - (9) award emergency family maintenance as necessary to support any person eligible for relief to whom the respondent has a duty of support under this article, including an immediate and continuing withholding order on all earnings of the respondent in the amount of the ordered emergency family maintenance in accordance with the procedures specified in Title 10, Subtitle 1, Part III of this article;
 - (10) award temporary use and possession of a vehicle jointly owned by the respondent and a person eligible for relief to the person eligible for relief if necessary for

${1 \atop 2}$	the employment of the person eligible for relief or for the care of a minor child of the respondent or a person eligible for relief;
3 4	(11) direct the respondent or any or all of the persons eligible for relief to participate in professionally supervised counseling or a domestic violence program;
5 6	(12) order the respondent to pay filing fees and costs of a proceeding under this subtitle; [or]
7 8	(13) award temporary possession of any pet of the person eligible for relief or the respondent; \mathbf{OR}
9 10 11	(14) ORDER ANY OTHER RELIEF THAT THE JUDGE DETERMINES IS APPROPRIATE NECESSARY TO PROTECT A PERSON ELIGIBLE FOR RELIEF FROM ABUSE.
12 13	SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 2015.
	Approved:
	Governor.
	Speaker of the House of Delegates.
	President of the Senate.