Preamble

WHEREAS, In imposing sanctions on Iran, the Congress and the President of the United States have determined that the illicit nuclear activities of the government of Iran, combined with its development of unconventional weapons and ballistic missiles, and its support of international terrorism, represent a serious threat to the security of the United States and its allies and around the world; and

WHEREAS, The International Atomic Energy Agency repeatedly has called attention to Iran’s unlawful nuclear activities, and as a result, the United Nations Security Council has adopted four rounds of sanctions designed to compel the government of Iran to cease those activities and comply with its obligations under the Treaty on the Non–Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons; and

WHEREAS, The human rights situation in Iran has steadily deteriorated since the fraudulent elections of 2009, as evidenced by the brutal repression, torture, murder, and arbitrary detention of peaceful protestors, dissidents, and minorities; and

WHEREAS, On July 1, 2010, the President of the United States signed into law the Comprehensive Iran Sanctions, Accountability, and Divestment Act of 2010, which authorizes states and local governments to prevent investment in companies operating in Iran and includes provisions that preclude companies that do business in Iran from contracting with the U.S. government; and

WHEREAS, There are moral and reputational reasons for state and local governments not to engage in business with foreign companies that have business activities benefiting foreign states, such as Iran, that pursue illegal nuclear programs, support acts of terrorism, and commit violations of human rights; and

WHEREAS, Short-term economic profits cannot be a justification to circumvent international sanctions designed to thwart Iran from developing nuclear weapons; and

WHEREAS, The concerns of the Maryland General Assembly regarding Iran are the result of the actions of the government of Iran and should not be construed as enmity toward the Iranian people; now, therefore,
