[Brackets] indicate matter deleted from existing law.

1                   2.     A.     The landlord has given the tenant 30 days' written 2 notice that the tenant is in violation of the lease and the landlord desires to repossess the 3 leased premises; or

4                   B.     The breach of the lease involves behavior by a tenant or a 5 person who is on the property with the tenant's consent, which demonstrates a clear and 6 imminent danger of the tenant or person doing serious harm to themselves, other tenants, 7 the landlord, the landlord's property or representatives, or any other person on the property
8 and the landlord has given the tenant or person in possession [14] 5 days' written notice
9 that the tenant or person in possession is in violation of the lease and the landlord desires 10 to repossess the leased premises; and

11                  3.     The tenant or person in actual possession of the premises 12 refuses to comply.

13                   (ii)    The court shall summons immediately the tenant or person in 14 possession to appear before the court on a day stated in the summons to show cause, if any, 15 why restitution of the possession of the leased premises should not be made to the landlord.

16                  (2)    (i)    If, for any reason, the tenant or person in actual possession 17 cannot be found, the constable or sheriff shall affix an attested copy of the summons 18 conspicuously on the property.

19                  (ii)    After notice is sent to the tenant or person in possession by 20 first-class mail, the affixing of the summons on the property shall be conclusively presumed 21 to be a sufficient service to support restitution.

22                  (3)    If either of the parties fails to appear before the court on the day stated
23 in the summons, the court may continue the case for not less than [six] 6 nor more than 10 24 days and notify the parties of the continuance.

25                  (b)    (1)    (I)    If the court determines that the tenant breached the terms of the 26 lease and that the breach was substantial and warrants an eviction, the court shall give 27 judgment for the restitution of the possession of the premises and issue its warrant to the 28 sheriff or a constable commanding the tenant to deliver possession to the landlord in as full 29 and ample manner as the landlord was possessed of the same at the time when the lease 30 was entered into.

31                   (II)    The court shall give judgment for costs against the tenant or 32 person in possession.

33                  (2)    (I)    Either party may appeal to the circuit court for the county[,

4 THE LANDLORD, THE LANDLORD'S PROPERTY OR REPRESENTATIVES, OR ANY 5 OTHER PERSON ON THE PROPERTY; OR

18 by reason of the tenant's holding over[, the tenant or person in possession of the premises 19 may retain possession until the determination of the appeal].

20                                   (III) Upon application of either party, the court shall set a day for the 21 hearing of the appeal not less than [five] 5 nor more than 15 days after the application, 22 and notice of the order for a hearing shall be served on the other party or that party's 23 counsel at least [five] 5 days before the hearing.

24                                   (IV) If the judgment of the District Court is in favor of the landlord, a 25 warrant shall be issued by the court which hears the appeal to the sheriff, who shall execute 26 the warrant.

27                                   (c) (1) Acceptance of any payment after notice but before eviction shall not 28 operate as a waiver of any notice of breach of lease or any judgment for possession unless 29 the parties specifically otherwise agree in writing.

30                                   (2) Any payment accepted shall be first applied to the rent or the 31 equivalent of rent apportioned to the date that the landlord actually recovers possession of 32 the premises, then to court costs, including court awarded damages and legal fees and then 33 to any loss of rent caused by the breach of lease.

1                   (3) Any payment which is accepted in excess of the rent referred to in 2 paragraph (2) of this subsection shall not bear interest but will be returned to the tenant
