§2304-D. Insurance discrimination based soley on provision of reproductive health care services

1. Discrimination prohibited. An insurer that provides medical malpractice insurance in this State may not deny, cancel, refuse to renew or restrict coverage of any licensed health care professional or require the payment of additional charges by a health care professional who provides, authorizes, recommends, aids, assists, refers for or otherwise participates in an abortion or any other reproductive health care services provided for the purpose of an abortion performed on an individual on the sole basis that the health care professional is acting in violation of another state's law or revocation or other adverse action against a health care professional's license in another state.

13 2. Action based on adverse action in another state prohibited. An insurer that 14 provides medical malpractice insurance in this State may not deny, cancel, refuse to renew 15 or restrict coverage of any licensed health care professional or require the payment of additional charges by a health care professional as a result of an adverse action against the 16 17 health care professional's license in another state, including but not limited to revocation, suspension or other disciplinary action as a result of a health care professional providing, 18 19 authorizing, recommending, aiding, assisting, referring for or otherwise participating in an abortion or any other reproductive health care services provided for the purpose of an 20 21 abortion if the adverse action is solely based on a violation of the other state's law that 22 prohibits abortion and any related reproductive health care services in that state or for a resident of that state. 23

SUMMARY

This bill prohibits an insurer that provides medical malpractice insurance in this State from taking any adverse action against a health care professional that provides abortion or other reproductive health care services on the sole basis that a health care professional is acting in violation of another state's law or a revocation or other adverse action against a health care professional's license in another state.
