An Act To Require Sex Offenders To Complete Their Full Time on the Sex Offender Registry

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 34-A MRSA §11225-A, sub-§5-A is enacted to read:

5-A. Periods of noncompliance. During any period in which the 10year registrant fails to comply with verification requirements under section 11222, the bureau, pursuant to any rules the bureau may adopt, shall toll the registration period for the duration of the time the registrant is not in compliance. Once the 10year registrant is in compliance, the 10year period must resume at the point at which it was tolled. The bureau shall maintain the 10year registrant's information on the Internet pursuant to section 11221, even when the registrant is not in compliance.

SUMMARY

This bill specifies that during any period in which a person subject to the 10year registrant requirements under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act of 1999, as amended, fails to comply with verification requirements, the Department of Public Safety, State Bureau of Identification, pursuant to any rules the bureau may adopt, shall toll the registration period for the duration of the time that the registrant is not in compliance. Once the registrant is in compliance, the 10year period resumes at the point at which it was tolled. During the period when the registrant is not in compliance, the bureau is required to continue to maintain the registrant's information on the Internet.
