3.20       EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2021, and applies to reverse
3.21 mortgage loans originated on or after that date.

3.22       Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2020, section 47.58, is amended by adding a subdivision to 3.23 read:

3.24       Subd. 6a. Communication with third-party designee. (a) The reverse mortgage loan 3.25 servicer must send by first-class mail copies of unanswered written communications and 3.26 all subsequent written communications from the servicer to the borrower regarding
3.27 delinquencies, defaults, and unfulfilled obligations, that may result in foreclosure under a
3.28 reverse mortgage loan agreement to a third-party designee at the address listed on the 3.29 authorization form described in subdivision 8.

3.30       (b) The servicer may:

3.31       (1) mail the communications required under paragraph (a) to the third-party designee at 3.32 the same time the communications are mailed to the borrower; or

4.1       (2) communicate with the third-party designee regarding the borrower's failure to respond 4.2       to the communications described in paragraph (a) by e-mail at the e-mail address listed on 4.3       the authorization form described in subdivision 8.

4.4       (c) The authorization form described in subdivision 8 is considered sufficient
4.5       authorization for the servicer to communicate with a third-party designee who initiates
4.6       communication with the servicer via telephone, e-mail, or United States mail.

4.7       (d) Compliance with this subdivision may be established by recording with the county 4.8       recorder or registrar of titles, as appropriate, an affidavit, executed by a person having 4.9       knowledge of the facts, that includes the reverse mortgage document recording number and 4.10      a statement affirming compliance with the requirements under paragraph (a). The affidavit
4.11      is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit and recordation is prima facie
4.12      evidence of compliance with this subdivision.

4.13      (e) A borrower has a cause of action under section 582.043, subdivision 7, if the servicer
4.14      fails to comply with paragraph (a), provided that the action is taken before the redemption
4.15      period specified under section 580.23 expires. There is a rebuttable presumption that the 4.16      servicer failed to communicate with a third-party designee absent a recorded affidavit, as 4.17      described in paragraph (d).

4.18      EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2021, and applies to reverse

4.23      mortgage loan servicer must take the actions required under subdivision 6a, paragraph (a), 4.24      and the borrower has consented on the form provided under subdivision 8, the servicer must 4.25      mail a copy of unanswered written communications and copies of subsequent written 4.26      communications from the servicer regarding delinquencies, defaults, and unfulfilled 4.27      obligations, that may result in foreclosure under a reverse mortgage loan agreement to the 4.28      independent counseling agency identified in the loan agreement.

4.29      (b) The servicer may mail the communications described in paragraph (a) to the 4.30      independent counseling agency at the same time the communications are mailed to the 4.31      borrower and third-party designee.

4.32      EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2021, and applies to reverse
4.33      mortgage loans originated on or after that date.

5.2        Subd. 8. Counseling; requirement; penalty. Prior to accepting a final and complete 5.3 application for a reverse mortgage loan or assessing any fees, a lender must:

5.4            (a) refer the prospective borrower to an independent housing counseling agency for 5.5 reverse mortgage counseling. The lender shall provide the prospective borrower with a list
5.6 of at least three independent housing counseling agencies. The lender shall positively promote 5.7 the benefits of reverse mortgage counseling to the potential borrower; and

5.9 that the applicant has received counseling as defined in this subdivision from an independent 5.10 housing counseling agency. The certification must be signed by the applicant and the 5.11 counselor from the independent agency and must include the date of the counseling, and 5.12 the name, address, and telephone number of both the counselor from the independent agency
5.13 and the applicant. The lender shall maintain the certification in an accurate, reproducible,

5.15 with this subdivision results in a $1,000 civil penalty payable to the borrower.

5.16        For the purposes of this subdivision:

5.17            (1) "independent counseling agency" means an agency approved by the United States
5.18 Department of Housing and Urban Development, domiciled in Minnesota, to provide loan 5.19 counseling that has no business relationship with the lender and, except for an authorized 5.20 foreclosure prevention counseling agency, as defined in section 580.021, subdivision 2, 5.21 neither makes loans nor refers borrowers to any person or entity that makes loans; and

5.22            (2) "counseling" means that during a session, which must be no less than 60 minutes,

5.31 including the costs of the loan;

6.1       (v) an explanation that a reverse mortgage loan may have tax consequences, affect 6.2       eligibility for assistance under federal and state programs, and have an impact on the estate
6.3       and heirs of the borrower;

6.4       (vi) an explanation of the lending process;

6.5       (vii) an opportunity for the borrower to ask questions of the counselor;

6.6       (viii) an explanation that:

6.7       (A) the lender may not condition a reverse mortgage loan on the purchase of an annuity,
6.8       investment, life insurance, or long-term care insurance product; and

6.9       (B) a reverse mortgage loan cannot obligate the borrower to purchase an annuity,
6.10      investment, life insurance, or long-term care insurance product; and

6.11      (ix) notification to the borrower that, following the receipt of a written commitment to 6.12      make a reverse mortgage loan and prior to the expiration of the seven-day cooling off period
6.13      provided under subdivision 10, the borrower may seek additional information and an analysis 6.14      of the commitment from the counselor; and

6.15      (x) an explanation of the borrower's right, before executing the reverse mortgage loan 6.16      agreement, to name a third-party designee to receive communications regarding 6.17      delinquencies, defaults, and unfulfilled obligations, that may result in foreclosure under a
6.18      reverse mortgage loan agreement. The counselor must provide the borrower with the 6.19      following blank form, which must be in at least 14-point type, for the borrower to complete
6.20      if desired and present to the lender when entering into the loan agreement:
