3.24 a contribution sufficiency under subdivision 10 equal to or greater than one percent of 3.25 covered payroll or if the regular valuation of the plan under section 356.215 indicates that 3.26 there is a deficiency equal to or greater than one-half of one percent of covered payroll.
3.27 Any decrease in employee and employer contribution rates must not result in the total of 3.28 contribution rates that is less than the total of normal cost and administrative expenses.

3.29 (b) To determine if an adjustment is to be made, the board of trustees shall consult 3.30 with the approved actuary retained under section 356.214 and shall take into consideration

4.9 (b) Before any reduction in contributions to eliminate a sufficiency in excess of up 4.10 to one percent of covered payroll may be recommended, the executive director must 4.11 review any need for a change in actuarial assumptions, as recommended by the actuary
4.12 retained under section 356.214 in the most recent experience study of the retirement plan, 4.13 that may result in an increase in the actuarially required contribution and must report to 4.14 the Legislative Commission on Pensions and Retirement any recommendation by the

4.16 of an actuarial assumption change recommended by the actuary retained under section 4.17 356.214, subdivision 1, and reviewed by the actuary retained by the commission under 4.18 section 356.214, subdivision 4.

4.19 (c) A contribution sufficiency in excess of one percent of covered pay must not be 4.20 used to increase benefits, and a benefit increase must not be proposed that would initiate 4.21 an automatic adjustment under this section to increase contributions. A proposed benefit 4.22 improvement must include a recommendation, prepared by the actuary retained under 4.23 section 356.214, subdivision 1, and reviewed by the actuary retained by the Legislative

4.31 made under subdivision 11. If the Legislative Commission on Pensions and Retirement 4.32 does not recommend against the adjustment or does not recommend a modification to the 4.33 adjustment, the adjustment is effective on the July 1 next following the determination that 4.34 a contribution deficiency or sufficiency exists under subdivision 10.
