1.5 Section 1. [122A.76] MINNESOTA LITERACY COLLABORATIVE PROGRAM
1.6 AND PARTNERSHIP.

1.7 A Minnesota literacy collaborative program is established to provide teachers from 1.8 participating school districts with specialized training in a trademarked, comprehensive 1.9 school reform project designed to improve the reading, writing, and language skills of 1.10 elementary children. This research-based program establishes long-term site-based 1.11 development for every member of the participating school's literacy faculty; helps schools 1.12 monitor the progress of every student through systemized assessment, data collection, and 1.13 analysis; and links reading instruction with a full response to intervention problem-solving 1.14 models to meet all learners' needs. The training will occur through a partnership between 1.15 Independent School District No. 181, Brainerd, and the University of Minnesota Center
1.16 for Reading Research, with the university reading center serving as the administrative unit 1.17 for grant allocation and money distribution, and charged with conducting research to 1.18 maintain program effectiveness. Qualified Brainerd school personnel provide the training 1.19 for the program in collaboration with the reading center.
