1.5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

1.6 Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2009 Supplement, section 549.09, subdivision 1, is 1.7 amended to read:

1.8 Subdivision 1. When owed; rate. (a) When a judgment or award is for the recovery 1.9 of money, including a judgment for the recovery of taxes, interest from the time of 1.10 the verdict, award, or report until judgment is finally entered shall be computed by the 1.11 court administrator or arbitrator as provided in paragraph (c) and added to the judgment 1.12 or award.

1.13 (b) Except as otherwise provided by contract or allowed by law, preverdict,
1.14 preaward, or prereport interest on pecuniary damages shall be computed as provided 1.15 in paragraph (c) from the time of the commencement of the action or a demand for 1.16 arbitration, or the time of a written notice of claim, whichever occurs first, except as 1.17 provided herein. The action must be commenced within two years of a written notice of 1.18 claim for interest to begin to accrue from the time of the notice of claim. If either party
1.19 serves a written offer of settlement, the other party may serve a written acceptance or a
1.20 written counteroffer within 30 days. After that time, interest on the judgment or award
1.21 shall be calculated by the judge or arbitrator in the following manner. The prevailing 1.22 party shall receive interest on any judgment or award from the time of commencement 1.23 of the action or a demand for arbitration, or the time of a written notice of claim, or as 1.24 to special damages from the time when special damages were incurred, if later, until the

2.1 time of verdict, award, or report only if the amount of its offer is closer to the judgment or 2.2 award than the amount of the opposing party's offer. If the amount of the losing party's 2.3 offer was closer to the judgment or award than the prevailing party's offer, the prevailing 2.4 party shall receive interest only on the amount of the settlement offer or the judgment or 2.5 award, whichever is less, and only from the time of commencement of the action or a
2.6 demand for arbitration, or the time of a written notice of claim, or as to special damages
2.7 from when the special damages were incurred, if later, until the time the settlement offer
2.8 was made. Subsequent offers and counteroffers supersede the legal effect of earlier offers 2.9 and counteroffers. For the purposes of clause (2), the amount of settlement offer must 2.10 be allocated between past and future damages in the same proportion as determined by 2.11 the trier of fact. Except as otherwise provided by contract or allowed by law, preverdict,

2.22 the state or a political subdivision of the state, regardless of the amount, the interest shall 2.23 be computed as simple interest per annum. The rate of interest shall be based on the 2.24 secondary market yield of one year United States Treasury bills, calculated on a bank 2.25 discount basis as provided in this section.

2.26 On or before the 20th day of December of each year the state court administrator 2.27 shall determine the rate from the one-year constant maturity treasury yield for the most

2.29 board of governors of the Federal Reserve System. This yield, rounded to the nearest one 2.30 percent, or four percent, whichever is greater, shall be the annual interest rate during the 2.31 succeeding calendar year. The state court administrator shall communicate the interest
2.32 rates to the court administrators and sheriffs for use in computing the interest on verdicts
2.33 and shall make the interest rates available to arbitrators.

2.34 (2) For a judgment or award over $50,000, other than a judgment or award against 2.35 the state or a political subdivision of the state, the interest rate shall be ten percent per

3.13 under chapter 179 or 179A. An arbitrator is neither required to nor prohibited from 3.14 awarding interest under chapter 179 or under section 179A.16 for essential employees.
