3.19 of action for the remedy of medical monitoring against a person who is the owner or operator
3.20 of a large facility from which a proven toxic substance was released if all of the following
3.21 are demonstrated by a preponderance of the evidence:

3.22 (1) exposure:

3.23 (i) at a rate significantly greater than the general population;

3.24 (ii) to a proven toxic substance;

3.25 (iii) as a result of tortious conduct of the defendant;

3.26 (2) as a proximate result of the exposure, the plaintiff has an increased risk of contracting
3.27 a serious disease;

3.28 (3) the increased risk of contracting a serious disease makes it medically necessary for
3.29 the plaintiff to undergo periodic medical examination different from that prescribed for the 3.30 general population in the absence of exposure; and

3.31 (4) monitoring procedures exist that are reasonable in cost and safe for use.

4.1 Subd. 3. Award. If the cost of medical monitoring is awarded, a court shall order the 4.2 defendant found liable to pay the award to a court-supervised medical monitoring program
4.3 administered by one or more appropriate health professionals, including professionals with 4.4 expertise in exposure to toxic substances or expertise with treating or monitoring the relevant
4.5 latent disease or diseases. The court shall award reasonable attorney fees, costs, and 4.6 disbursements to a prevailing plaintiff under this section.

4.7 Subd. 4. Exclusivity; other remedies. (a) This section shall be the exclusive remedy
4.8 for a person without a present injury to bring a cause of action to seek medical monitoring
4.9 due to exposure to a proven toxic substance.

4.10 (b) Except as provided under paragraph (a), nothing in this section shall be deemed to 4.11 preclude any other civil or injunctive remedy or defense available under statute or common
4.12 law, including the right of any person to seek to recover for damages related to the 4.13 manifestation of a latent disease. The remedies and defenses in this chapter are in addition
4.14 to those provided by existing statutory or common law.

4.15 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective August 1, 2023, and applies to causes
4.16 of action accruing on or after that date.
