The commissioner may fine the employer up to $10,000 for each failure to submit or deliver records as required by this section. This penalty is in addition to any penalties provided under section 177.32, subdivision 1. In determining the amount of a civil penalty under this subdivision, the appropriateness of such penalty to the size of the employer's business and the gravity of the violation shall be considered.

An employer 3.7 who wishes to contest the order must file written notice of objection to the order with the 3.8 commissioner within 15 calendar days after being served with the order. In addition, the commissioner may order the employer to reimburse the 3.31 department and the attorney general for all appropriate litigation and hearing costs expended 3.32 in preparation for and in conducting the contested case proceeding, unless payment of costs 3.33 would impose extreme financial hardship on the employer. Costs include 4.1 but are not limited to the costs of services rendered by the attorney general, private attorneys 4.2 if engaged by the department, administrative law judges, court reporters, and expert witnesses 4.3 as well as the cost of transcripts.
