FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Office of Administration state §516.140 changes the statute of limitation for personal injury claims from five years to two years. This provision has the potential to avoid costs to the state Legal Expense Fund (LEF) for actions alleging personal injury, due to the much shorter proposed limitations period applicable to such actions.

The state self-assumes its own liability under the state LEF, Section 105.711, RSMo. It is a self-funding mechanism whereby funds are made available for the payment of any claim or judgment rendered against the state in regard to the waivers of sovereign immunity or against employees and specified individuals. Investigation, defense, negotiation or settlement of such claims is provided by the Office of the Attorney General. Payment is made by the Commissioner of Administration with the approval of the Attorney General.

Officials from the Office of the State Courts Administrator, the Attorney General's Office, the Department of Commerce and Insurance and the Department of Revenue each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for these agencies.

Oversight notes information from www.alllaw.com lists the Statute of Limitations on Personal Injury Lawsuits by State. That information is as follows:

STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS ON PERSONAL INJURY LAWSUITS BY STATE
1 year	2 year	3 year	4 year	5 year	6 year

The Department of Labor and Industrial Relations' website says "The Tort Victims' Compensation Fund exists to help compensate those who have been injured due to the negligence or recklessness of another (such as in a motor vehicle collision or a hunting accident), and who have been unable to obtain full compensation because the party at fault (the tortfeasor) had no insurance, or inadequate insurance, or has filed for bankruptcy, or for other reasons specified by the law."

Tort Victims Compensation Fund (TVCF) - $0 to (unknown)

Oversight notes that under §537.675.3, 50% of the punitive damage state judgments, after deducting attorney's fees and expenses, shall go into the Tort Victims' Compensation Fund

(0622). Because this proposal tends to reduce punitive damages awards by reducing the time frame to file suit, Oversight assumes a negative direct fiscal impact to the Tort Victims Compensation Fund.

Oversight notes that information provided by the Attorney General shows that between July, 2016, and January, 2022, the Tort Victims Compensation Fund received $505,205,571, with the yearly average being around $91,855,558. That time frame includes a payment from Johnson & Johnson of $482,374,994 in FY 21 which was the largest ever received and substantially impacts the yearly average.

Oversight also notes that according to the Department of Labor and Industrial Relations' website, the chart below shows the payout amounts for years 2015 through 2019 with an average payout amount of $2,451,600 annually from the Tort Victims Compensation Fund (TVCF).

History of Payments from the Tort Victims Compensation Fund

Tort Victims Compensation Fund Payout from 2015-2019

Year	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019
$ Amount	$1.889M	$1.792M	$881K	$2.999M	$4.697M

Oversight does not know how many cases affected by this proposal would not be brought because of the change in the statute of limitations.

The AGO does not track the types of claims paying into the TVCF, so this number is likely an overestimate, as it includes claims not affected by this proposal. Because Oversight was unable to get more specific information about the number of claims filed between two and five years after the claim arose, Oversight will show a $0 to (unknown) to the TVCF.

Legal Expense Fund (LEF) - $0 to unknown

“The State Legal Expense Fund (LEF) is used for payments in resolution of judgments or claims for damages from injured parties arising out of the actions of state employees, agencies, contracted physicians, and the condition of state property.” Audit Report No. 2017-098

Information from the Office of Administration (OARM) in SB 633 (2020) shows that the LEF spent $14,900,000 on personal injury and wrongful death claims in FY 2015-2018. The annual average of those claims is $3,725,000. In addition, 20% of the LEF's funds comes from other state funds, implying $0 up to $3,725,000 annually reduced LEF expenditures, with $2,980,000 through General Revenue appropriations, and $745,000 from other funds.

Oversight notes that these numbers are likely an overestimate, as it includes claims that could be brought within two years. Because Oversight was unable to get more specific information about the number of claims filed between two and five years after the claim arose, Oversight will show a $0 to unknown net direct fiscal impact.

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

Small businesses could be either positively (defendant) or negatively (plaintiff) as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

Currently, actions for personal injury or bodily injury or relating to uninsured motorist coverage or underinsured motorist coverage must be brought within five years from the date the injury occurred. This bill reduces the time frame to two years from when the injury occurred.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
