

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 1039

100TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE TAYLOR.

2160H.011

DANA RADEMAN MILLER, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 1.320, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof nine new sections relating to additional protections to the right to bear arms.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 1.320, RSMo, is repealed and nine new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 1.410, 1.420, 1.430, 1.440, 1.450, 1.460, 1.470, 1.480, and 1.485, to read as follows:

1.410. 1. Sections 1.410 to 1.485 shall be known and may be cited as the "Second Amendment Preservation Act".

2. The general assembly finds and declares that:

(1) The general assembly of the state of Missouri is firmly resolved to support and defend the Constitution of the United States against every aggression, whether foreign or domestic, and is duty bound to oppose every infraction of those principles which constitute the basis of the Union of the States, because only a faithful observance of those principles can secure the nation's existence and the public happiness;

(2) Acting through the Constitution of the United States, the people of the several states created the federal government to be their agent in the exercise of a few defined powers, while reserving to the state governments the power to legislate on matters which concern the lives, liberties, and properties of citizens in the ordinary course of affairs;

(3) The limitation of the federal government's power is affirmed under Amendment X of the Constitution of the United States, which defines the total scope of federal power as being that which has been delegated by the people of the several states to the federal

16 government, and all power not delegated to the federal government in the Constitution of 17 the United States is reserved to the states respectively or to the people themselves;

18 (4) If the federal government assumes powers that the people did not grant it in the 19 Constitution of the United States, its acts are unauthoritative, void, and of no force;

20 (5) The several states of the United States of America respect the proper role of the 21 federal government but reject the proposition that such respect requires unlimited
22 submission. If the government, created by a compact among the states, was the exclusive 23 or final judge of the extent of the powers granted to it by the states through the 24 Constitution of the United States, the federal government's discretion, and not the 25 Constitution of the United States, would necessarily become the measure of those powers.
26 To the contrary, as in all other cases of compacts among powers having no common judge, 27 each party has an equal right to judge for itself as to if infractions of the compact have 28 occurred, as well as to determine the mode and measure of redress. Although the several 29 states have granted supremacy to laws and treaties made under the powers granted in the 30 Constitution of the United States, such supremacy does not extend to various federal 31 statutes, executive orders, administrative orders, court orders, rules, regulations, or other 32 actions which restrict or prohibit the manufacture, ownership, and use of firearms, firearm
33 accessories, or ammunition exclusively within the borders of Missouri; such statutes, 34 executive orders, administrative orders, court orders, rules, regulations, and other actions 35 exceed the powers granted to the federal government except to the extent they are 36 necessary and proper for governing and regulating land and naval forces of the United 37 States or for organizing, arming, and disciplining militia forces actively employed in the 38 service of the United States Armed Forces;

39 (6) The people of the several states have given Congress the power "to regulate 40 commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states", but "regulating commerce" 41 does not include the power to limit citizens' right to keep and bear arms in defense of their 42 families, neighbors, persons, or property, or to dictate as to what sort of arms and 43 accessories law-abiding Missourians may buy, sell, exchange, or otherwise possess within 44 the borders of this state;

45 (7) The people of the several states have also granted Congress the power "to lay 46 and collect taxes, duties, imports, and excises, to pay the debts, and provide for the 47 common defense and general welfare of the United States" and "to make all laws which 48 shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the powers vested by the 49 Constitution of the United States in the government of the United States, or in any 50 department or office thereof". These constitutional provisions merely identify the means 51 by which the federal government may execute its limited powers and shall not to be so

52 construed to grant unlimited power because to do so would be to destroy the carefully 53 constructed equilibrium between the federal and state governments. Consequently, the 54 general assembly rejects any claim that the taxing and spending powers of Congress can 55 be used to diminish in any way the right of the people to keep and bear arms;

56 (8) The people of Missouri have vested the general assembly with the authority to 57 regulate the manufacture, possession, exchange, and use of firearms within the borders of 58 this state, subject only to the limits imposed by Amendment II of the Constitution of the 59 United States and the Constitution of Missouri; and

60 (9) The general assembly of the state of Missouri strongly promotes responsible gun 61 ownership, including parental supervision of minors in the proper use, storage, and 62 ownership of all firearms; the prompt reporting of stolen firearms; and the proper 63 enforcement of all state gun laws. The general assembly of the state of Missouri hereby 64 condemns any unlawful transfer of firearms and the use of any firearm in any criminal or 65 unlawful activity.

1.420. The following federal acts, laws, executive orders, administrative orders,
2 court orders, rules, and regulations shall be considered infringements on the people's right
3 to keep and bear arms, as guaranteed by Amendment II of the Constitution of the United 4 States and Article I, Section 23 of the Constitution of Missouri, within the borders of this 5 state including, but not limited to:

6 (1) Any tax, levy, fee, or stamp imposed on firearms, firearm accessories, or 7 ammunition not common to all other goods and services which might reasonably be 8 expected to create a chilling effect on the purchase or ownership of those items by law-
9 abiding citizens;

10 (2) Any registering or tracking of firearms, firearm accessories, or ammunition 11 which might reasonably be expected to create a chilling effect on the purchase or 12 ownership of those items by law-abiding citizens;

13 (3) Any registering or tracking of the owners of firearms, firearm accessories, or 14 ammunition which might reasonably be expected to create a chilling effect on the purchase 15 or ownership of those items by law-abiding citizens;

2 to protect the rights of law-abiding citizens to keep and bear arms within the borders of 3 this state and to protect these rights from the infringements defined under section 1.420.

1.450. No person, including any public officer or employee of this state or any 2 political subdivision of this state, shall have the authority to enforce or attempt to enforce 3 any federal acts, laws, executive orders, administrative orders, court orders, rules, 4 regulations, statutes, or ordinances infringing on the right to keep and bear arms as 5 described under section 1.410.

1.460. 1. Any entity or person who acts knowingly, as defined under section 2 562.016, to violate the provisions of section 1.450 or otherwise knowingly deprives a citizen
3 of Missouri of the rights or privileges ensured by Amendment II of the Constitution of the 4 United States or Article I, Section 23 of the Constitution of Missouri, while acting under 5 the color of any state or federal law, shall be liable to the injured party in an action at law, 6 suit in equity, or other proper proceeding for redress.

7 2. In such actions, the court may award the prevailing party, other than the state
8 of Missouri or any political subdivision of the state, reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

10 such actions.

11 2. Neither the state nor any political subdivision of the state shall employ as a law
12 enforcement officer or supervisor of law enforcement officers any person who is ineligible 13 to serve in such capacity under this section.

14 3. Any person residing in or conducting business in a jurisdiction who believes that 15 a law enforcement officer or supervisor of law enforcement officers of such jurisdiction has 16 taken action that would render that person ineligible under this section to serve in such 17 capacity shall have standing to pursue an action for declaratory judgment in the circuit
18 court of the county in which the action allegedly occurred, or in the circuit court of Cole
19 County, with respect to the employment eligibility of the law enforcement officer or the

23 in that capacity under this section:

24 (1) The law enforcement officer or supervisor of law enforcement officers shall

2 person or circumstance is held invalid, such determination shall not affect the provisions
3 or applications of sections 1.410 to 1.485, which may be given effect without the invalid
4 provision or application, and the provisions of sections 1.410 to 1.485 are severable.
