AN ACT

To repeal section 311.179, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof two new sections relating to intoxicating liquor.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 311.179, RSMo, is repealed and two new sections 2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 311.075 and 311.179, to read as 3 follows:

311.075. 1. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, for the purpose of the promotion of tourism, a retailer, its employees, officers, shareholders, and agents may have a financial interest in a distillery for the manufacturing of intoxicating liquors located in close proximity to the grounds of a recreational resort owned, in whole or in part, by the retailer, its subsidiaries, or affiliates. As used in this section the term "recreational resort" shall mean any grounds used to entertain guests that are owned and operated as part of a facility by the retailer, its subsidiaries, or affiliates, which shall have a restaurant, at least thirty rooms for overnight accommodations, and outdoor activities that include fishing or golf. The distillery shall be in close proximity to the grounds of the recreational resort.

2. A retailer who is a holder of a license to sell intoxicating liquor by the drink at retail for consumption on the recreational resort's grounds shall be exempt from the provisions of section 311.280, for such intoxicating liquor that is manufactured in close proximity to 17 the grounds of the recreational resort in accordance with the 18 provisions of this chapter. All other intoxicating liquor sold by the 19 drink at retail for consumption on the recreational resort's grounds 20 shall be obtained in accordance with section 311.280.

3. The holder of a recreational resort distillery licensed pursuant to this section may also sell intoxicating liquor produced on the distillery premises to duly licensed wholesalers, and all such sales to wholesalers shall be subject to the provisions of sections 311.275 and 311.540. However, holders of a recreational resort distillery license shall not, under any circumstances, directly or indirectly, have any financial interest in any Missouri wholesaler's business.

311.179. 1. Any person possessing the qualifications and meeting the 2requirements of this chapter who is licensed to sell intoxicating liquor by the drink at retail in an international airport located in a county with a charter form 3 of government and with more than nine hundred fifty thousand inhabitants or 4 in a county of the first classification with more than eighty-three 56 thousand but fewer than ninety-two thousand inhabitants and with a 7 city of the fourth classification with more than four thousand five hundred but fewer than five thousand inhabitants as the county seat 8 9 may apply to the supervisor of [liquor control] alcohol and tobacco control for 10 a special permit[.
