125 to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and 126 chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly under 127 chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are 128 subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed 129 or adopted after the effective date of this section shall be invalid and void.

130 9. Within six months of completion of a notice of intent required under this section, the 131 qualified manufacturing company shall enter into an agreement with the department that 132 memorializes the content of the notice of intent, the requirements of this section, and the 133 consequences for failing to meet such requirements, which shall include the following:

141 manufacturing company, the director may, at the qualified manufacturing company's request, 142 suspend rather than terminate its privilege to retain withholding tax under this section for up to 143 three years. Any such suspension shall extend the withholding period by the same amount of 144 time. No more than one such suspension shall be granted to a qualified manufacturing company;

145 (2) If the qualified manufacturing company discontinues the manufacturing of the new 146 product and does not replace it with a subsequent or additional new product manufactured at the 147 facility at any time during the withholding period, the qualified manufacturing company shall 148 immediately cease retaining any withholding tax with respect to jobs at that facility and it shall 149 forfeit all rights to retain withholding tax for the remainder of the withholding period.

160 automatically sunset twelve years after the effective date of the reauthorization of this section; 161 and
