101ST GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE BLAND MANLOVE.

5453H.011

DANA RADEMAN MILLER, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 650.058, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to restitution for certain individuals.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 650.058, RSMo, is repealed and three new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 490.800, 490.805, and 650.058, to read as follows:

490.800. 1. Notwithstanding the sovereign immunity of the state, any individual who was found guilty of a felony in a Missouri court and was later determined to be actually innocent of such offense as a result of any evidentiary method except DNA profiling analysis may be paid restitution. The individual may receive an amount of one hundred dollars per day for each day of postconviction incarceration for the offense for which the individual is determined to be actually innocent. The petition for the payment of such restitution shall be filed with the sentencing court. For the purposes of this section, the term "actually innocent" shall mean:

(1) The individual was convicted of a felony for which a final order of release was entered by the court;

(2) All appeals of the order of release have been exhausted;

(3) The individual was not serving any term of a sentence for any other offense concurrently with the sentence for which he or she is determined to be actually innocent, unless such individual was serving another concurrent sentence because his or her parole was revoked by a court or the parole board in connection with the offense for which the person has been exonerated. Regardless of whether any other basis may exist for the revocation of the person's probation or parole at the time of conviction for the 18 offense for which the person is later determined to be actually innocent, when the 19 court's or the parole board's sole stated reason for the revocation in its order is the 20 conviction for the offense for which the person is later determined to be actually 21 innocent, such order shall, for purposes of this section only, be conclusive evidence that 22 the person's probation or parole was revoked in connection with the offense for which 23 the person has been exonerated; and 24 (4) The evidentiary method demonstrates the person's innocence of the offense 25 for which the person is in custody.

26

27 Any individual who receives restitution under this section shall not also receive 28 restitution under section 490.805 or 650.058 and shall be prohibited from seeking any 29 civil redress from the state, its departments and agencies, or any employee thereof, or 30 any political subdivision or its employees. This section shall not be construed as a 31 waiver of sovereign immunity for any purposes other than the restitution provided for 32 herein. The department of corrections shall determine the aggregate amount of 33 restitution owed during a fiscal year. If insufficient moneys are appropriated each fiscal 34 year to pay restitution to such persons, the department shall pay each individual who 35 has received an order awarding restitution a pro rata share of the amount appropriated.
36 Provided sufficient moneys are appropriated to the department, the amounts owed to 37 such individual shall be paid on June thirtieth of each subsequent fiscal year, until such 38 time as the restitution to the individual has been paid in full. No individual awarded 39 restitution under this subsection shall receive more than thirty-six thousand five 40 hundred dollars during each fiscal year. No interest on unpaid restitution shall be 41 awarded to the individual. No individual who has been determined by the court to be 42 actually innocent shall be responsible for the costs of care under section 217.831.

43 2. A petition for payment of restitution under this section may be filed only by 44 the individual determined to be actually innocent or the individual's legal guardian. No 45 claim or petition for restitution under this section may be filed by the individual's heirs 46 or assigns. An individual's right to receive restitution under this section is not 47 assignable or otherwise transferrable. The state's obligation to pay restitution under 48 this section shall cease upon the individual's death. Any beneficiary designation that 49 purports to bequeath, assign, or otherwise convey the right to receive such restitution 50 shall be void and unenforceable.

51 3. An individual who is determined to be actually innocent of an offense under 52 this section shall automatically be granted an order of expungement from the court in 53 which he or she pled guilty or was sentenced to expunge from all official records all 54 recordations of his or her arrest, plea, trial, or conviction. Upon the court's granting the 55 order of expungement, the records and files maintained in any administrative or court 56 proceeding in an associate or circuit division of the court shall be confidential and 57 available only to the parties or by order of the court for good cause shown. The effect of 58 such order shall be to restore such person to the status he or she occupied prior to such 59 arrest, plea, or conviction and as if such event had never taken place. No person as to 60 whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any 61 law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his or her 62 failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest, plea, trial, conviction, or expungement in 63 response to any inquiry made of him or her for any purpose whatsoever, and no such 64 inquiry shall be made for information relating to an expungement under this section.

65 4. Any individual who is determined to be actually innocent of an offense and 66 eligible for restitution under this section shall also be eligible for reentry services from 67 the office of reentry services. Services shall include, but are not limited to, assistance 68 with employment placement, educational placement, health and mental health 69 insurance and assessment and treatment, housing, community support, and any other 70 reentry services deemed necessary for the individual.

490.805. 1. Notwithstanding the sovereign immunity of the state, any individual 2 who was found guilty of an offense in a Missouri court but was later granted a motion to 3 vacate or set aside the judgment under section 547.031 because of clear and convincing 4 evidence of actual innocence or a constitutional error at the original trial or plea 5 undermining the confidence in the judgment may be paid restitution. The individual 6 may receive an amount of one hundred dollars per day for each day of postconviction 7 incarceration for the offense in which the motion to vacate or set aside the judgment was 8 granted. The petition for the payment of such restitution shall be filed with the 9 sentencing court.

10 2. Any individual who receives restitution under this section shall not also 11 receive restitution under section 490.800 or 650.058 and shall be prohibited from 12 seeking any civil redress from the state, its departments and agencies, or any employee 13 thereof, or any political subdivision or its employees. This section shall not be construed 14 as a waiver of sovereign immunity for any purposes other than the restitution provided 15 for herein. The department of corrections shall determine the aggregate amount of 16 restitution owed during a fiscal year. If insufficient moneys are appropriated each fiscal 17 year to pay restitution to such persons, the department shall pay each individual who 18 has received an order awarding restitution a pro rata share of the amount appropriated.
19 Provided sufficient moneys are appropriated to the department, the amounts owed to 20 such individual shall be paid on June thirtieth of each subsequent fiscal year, until such 21 time as the restitution to the individual has been paid in full. No individual awarded

22 restitution under this subsection shall receive more than thirty-six thousand five 23 hundred dollars during each fiscal year. No interest on unpaid restitution shall be 24 awarded to the individual. No individual who has been granted a motion to vacate or set 25 aside the judgment under section 547.031 shall be responsible for the costs of care under 26 section 217.831.

27 3. A petition for payment of restitution under this section may be filed only by 28 the individual whose motion to vacate or set aside the judgment has been granted or the 29 individual's legal guardian. No claim or petition for restitution under this section may 30 be filed by the individual's heirs or assigns. An individual's right to receive restitution 31 under this section is not assignable or otherwise transferrable. The state's obligation to 32 pay restitution under this section shall cease upon the individual's death. Any 33 beneficiary designation that purports to bequeath, assign, or otherwise convey the right 34 to receive such restitution shall be void and unenforceable.

35 4. An individual who has been granted a motion to vacate or set aside the 36 judgment under section 547.031 shall automatically be granted an order of 37 expungement from the court in which he or she pled guilty or was sentenced to 38 expunge from all official records all recordations of his or her arrest, plea, trial, or 39 conviction. Upon the court's granting the order of expungement, the records and files 40 maintained in any administrative or court proceeding in an associate or circuit division 41 of the court shall be confidential and available only to the parties or by order of the 42 court for good cause shown. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person to 43 the status he or she occupied prior to such arrest, plea, or conviction and as if such event 44 had never taken place. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held 45 thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a 46 false statement by reason of his or her failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest, plea, 47 trial, conviction, or expungement in response to any inquiry made of him or her for any 48 purpose whatsoever, and no such inquiry shall be made for information relating to an 49 expungement under this section.

50 5. Any individual who is granted a motion to vacate or set aside the judgment 51 under section 547.031 and eligible for restitution under this section shall also be eligible 52 for reentry services from the office of reentry services. Services shall include, but are 53 not limited to, assistance with employment placement, educational placement, health 54 and mental health insurance and assessment and treatment, housing, community 55 support, and any other reentry services deemed necessary for the individual.

650.058. 1. Notwithstanding the sovereign immunity of the state, any individual who 2 was found guilty of a felony in a Missouri court and was later determined to be actually 3 innocent of such crime solely as a result of DNA profiling analysis may be paid restitution.

4 The individual may receive an amount of one hundred dollars per day for each day of 5 postconviction incarceration for the crime for which the individual is determined to be 6 actually innocent. The petition for the payment of said restitution shall be filed with the 7 sentencing court. For the purposes of this section, the term "actually innocent" shall mean:

8 (1) The individual was convicted of a felony for which a final order of release was 9 entered by the court;

10 (2) All appeals of the order of release have been exhausted;

11 (3) The individual was not serving any term of a sentence for any other crime 12 concurrently with the sentence for which he or she is determined to be actually innocent, 13 unless such individual was serving another concurrent sentence because his or her parole was 14 revoked by a court or the parole board in connection with the crime for which the person has 15 been exonerated. Regardless of whether any other basis may exist for the revocation of the 16 person's probation or parole at the time of conviction for the crime for which the person is 17 later determined to be actually innocent, when the court's or the parole board's sole stated 18 reason for the revocation in its order is the conviction for the crime for which the person is 19 later determined to be actually innocent, such order shall, for purposes of this section only, be 20 conclusive evidence that ~~their~~ the person's probation or parole was revoked in connection 21 with the crime for which the person has been exonerated; and 22 (4) Testing ordered under section 547.035, or testing by the order of any state or 23 federal court, if such person was exonerated on or before August 28, 2004, or testing ordered 24 under section 650.055, if such person was or is exonerated after August 28, 2004, 25 demonstrates a person's innocence of the crime for which the person is in custody.

26

27 Any individual who receives restitution under this section shall be prohibited from seeking 28 any civil redress from the state, its departments and agencies, or any employee thereof, or any 29 political subdivision or its employees. This section shall not be construed as a waiver of 30 sovereign immunity for any purposes other than the restitution provided for herein. The 31 department of corrections shall determine the aggregate amount of restitution owed during a 32 fiscal year. If insufficient moneys are appropriated each fiscal year to pay restitution to such 33 persons, the department shall pay each individual who has received an order awarding 34 restitution a pro rata share of the amount appropriated. Provided sufficient moneys are 35 appropriated to the department, the amounts owed to such individual shall be paid on June 36 thirtieth of each subsequent fiscal year, until such time as the restitution to the individual has 37 been paid in full. However, no individual awarded restitution under this subsection shall 38 receive more than thirty-six thousand five hundred dollars during each fiscal year. No interest 39 on unpaid restitution shall be awarded to the individual. No individual who has been 40 determined by the court to be actually innocent shall be responsible for the costs of care under 41 section 217.831.

42 2. If the results of the DNA testing confirm the person's guilt, then the person filing 43 for DNA testing under section 547.035, shall:

44 (1) Be liable for any reasonable costs incurred when conducting the DNA test, 45 including but not limited to the cost of the test. Such costs shall be determined by the court 46 and shall be included in the findings of fact and conclusions of law made by the court; and 47 (2) Be sanctioned under the provisions of section 217.262.

48 3. A petition for payment of restitution under this section may [~~only~~] be filed only by 49 the individual determined to be actually innocent or the individual's legal guardian. No claim 50 or petition for restitution under this section may be filed by the individual's heirs or assigns.
51 An individual's right to receive restitution under this section is not assignable or otherwise 52 transferrable. The state's obligation to pay restitution under this section shall cease upon the 53 individual's death. Any beneficiary designation that purports to bequeath, assign, or 54 otherwise convey the right to receive such restitution shall be void and unenforceable.

55 4. An individual who is determined to be actually innocent of a crime under this 56 chapter shall automatically be granted an order of expungement from the court in which he or 57 she pled guilty or was sentenced to expunge from all official records all recordations of his or 58 her arrest, plea, trial or conviction. Upon the court's granting of the order of expungement, 59 the records and files maintained in any administrative or court proceeding in an associate or 60 circuit division of the court shall be confidential and [~~only~~] available only to the parties or by 61 order of the court for good cause shown. The effect of such order shall be to restore such 62 person to the status he or she occupied prior to such arrest, plea or conviction and as if such 63 event had never taken place. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held 64 thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false 65 statement by reason of his or her failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest, plea, trial, 66 conviction or expungement in response to any inquiry made of him or her for any purpose 67 whatsoever, and no such inquiry shall be made for information relating to an expungement 68 under this section.
