D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal sections 290.500, 290.502, and 290.527, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to minimum wage.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 290.500, 290.502, and 290.527, RSMo, are repealed and three new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 290.500, 290.502, and 290.527, to read as follows:

290.500. As used in sections 290.500 to 290.530, the following words and phrases mean:

- (1) "Agriculture", farming and all its branches including, but not limited to, the cultivation and tillage of the soil, dairying, the production, cultivation, growing and harvesting of any agricultural commodities, the raising of livestock, fish and other marine life, bees, fur-bearing animals or poultry and any practices performed by a farmer or on a farm as an incident to or in conjunction with farming operations, including preparation for market, delivery to storage or to market or to carriers for transportation to market;
- 8 (2) "Director", the director of the department of labor and industrial relations or his authorized representative;
- 10 (3) "Employee", any individual employed by an employer, except that the term 11 "employee" shall not include:
- 12 (a) Any individual employed in a bona fide executive, administrative, or professional capacity;
- 14 (b) Any individual engaged in the activities of an educational, charitable, religious, or 15 nonprofit organization where the employer-employee relationship does not, in fact, exist or 16 where the services rendered to the organization are on a voluntary basis;

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

HB 314 2

(5) "Learner and apprentice", any individual under 20 years of age who has not completed the required training for a particular job. In no event shall the individual be deemed a learner or apprentice in the occupation after three months of training except where the director 56 finds, after investigation, that for the particular occupation a minimum of proficiency cannot be acquired in three months. In no case shall a person be declared to be a learner or apprentice after 58 six months of training for a particular employer or job. Employees of an amusement or recreation business that meets the criteria set out in 29 U.S.C. § 213(a)(3) may be deemed a learner or apprentice for ninety working days. No individual shall be deemed a learner or apprentice solely for the purpose of evading the provisions of sections 290.500 to 290.530;

- (6) "Occupation", any occupation, service, trade, business, industry, or branch or group of industries or employment or class of employment in which individuals are gainfully employed;
- (7) "Wage", compensation due to an employee by reason of his employment, payable in legal tender of the United States or checks on banks convertible into cash on demand at full face value:
- (8) "Person", any individual, partnership, association, corporation, business, business trust, legal representative, or any organized group of persons;
- 70 (9) "Man-day", any day during which an employee performs any agricultural labor for 71 not less than one hour.
- 290.502. 1. Except as may be otherwise provided pursuant to sections 290.500 to 290.530, effective January 1, [2007] 2016, every employer shall pay to each employee wages at the rate of [$6.50] $8.50 per hour, or wages at the same rate or rates set under the provisions of 3 federal law as the prevailing federal minimum wage applicable to those covered jobs in interstate commerce, whichever rate per hour is higher. Except as may be otherwise provided under 5 6 sections 290.500 to 290.530, effective January 1, 2017, every employer shall pay to each employee wages at the rate of $9.50 per hour, or wages at the same rate or rates set under the provisions of federal law as the prevailing federal minimum wage applicable to those 9 covered jobs in interstate commerce, whichever rate per hour is higher.
 - 2. The minimum wage shall be increased or decreased on January 1, [2008] 2018, and on January 1 of successive years, by the increase or decrease in the cost of living. On September 30, [2007] 2017, and on each September 30 of each successive year, the director shall measure the increase or decrease in the cost of living by the percentage increase or decrease as of the preceding July over the level as of July of the immediately preceding year of the Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers (CPI-W) or successor index as published by the U.S. Department of Labor or its successor agency, with the amount of the minimum wage increase or decrease rounded to the nearest five cents.

290.527. Any employer who pays any employee less wages than the wages to which the employee is entitled under or by virtue of sections 290.500 to 290.530 shall be liable to the employee affected for the full amount of the wage rate and an additional [equal] amount equal to twice the underpaid wages as liquidated damages, less any amount actually paid to the employee by the employer and for costs and such reasonable attorney fees as may be allowed by the court or jury. The employee may bring any legal action necessary to collect the claim. Any agreement between the employee and the employer to work for less than the wage rate shall be no defense to the action. All actions for the collection of any deficiency in wages shall be commenced within [two] three years of the accrual of the cause of action.
