40 discrimination includes:

41           (1) A refusal to permit, at the expense of the person with the disability, 42 reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by such 43 person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full 44 enjoyment of the premises, except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, 45 where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the 46 renter's agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that 47 existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted;

48           (2) A refusal to make reasonable accommodations in rules, policies, 49 practices, or services, when such accommodations may be necessary to afford such 50 person equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling; or

52 dwellings for first occupancy after March 13, 1991, a failure to design and 53 construct those dwellings in such a manner that:

54           (a) The public use and common use portions of such dwellings are readily 55 accessible to and usable by persons with a disability;

56           (b) All the doors designed to allow passage into and within all premises 57 within such dwellings are sufficiently wide to allow passage by persons with a 58 disability in wheelchairs; and

59           (c) All premises within such dwellings contain the following features of 60 adaptive design:

61           a. An accessible route into and through the dwelling;

62           b. Light switches, electrical outlets, thermostats, and other environmental 63 controls in accessible locations;

64           c. Reinforcements in bathroom walls to allow later installation of grab 65 bars; and

66           d. Usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair 67 can maneuver about the space.

68           3. As used in subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, the term 69 "covered multifamily dwelling" means:

70           (1) Buildings consisting of four or more units if such buildings have one 71 or more elevators; and

72           (2) Ground floor units in other buildings consisting of four or more units.

73           4. Compliance with the appropriate requirements of the American 74 National Standard for Buildings and Facilities providing accessibility and

75 usability for people with physical disabilities, commonly cited as "ANSI A117.1", 76 suffices to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) of subdivision (3) of 77 subsection 2 of this section.

78         5. Where a unit of general local government has incorporated into its laws 79 the requirements set forth in subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, 80 compliance with such laws shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements of that 81 subdivision. Such compliance shall be subject to the following provisions:

82             (1) A unit of general local government may review and approve newly 83 constructed covered multifamily dwellings for the purpose of making 84 determinations as to whether the design and construction requirements of 85 subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section are met;

86             (2) The commission shall encourage, but may not require, the units of 87 local government to include in their existing procedures for the review and 88 approval of newly constructed covered multifamily dwellings, determinations as 89 to whether the design and construction of such dwellings are consistent with 90 subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, and shall provide technical 91 assistance to units of local government and other persons to implement the 92 requirements of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section;

93             (3) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require the commission 94 to review or approve the plans, designs or construction of all covered dwellings, 95 to determine whether the design and construction of such dwellings are consistent 96 with the requirements of subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section.

97         6. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to invalidate or limit any 98 law of the state or political subdivision of the state, or other jurisdiction in which 99 this chapter shall be effective, that requires dwellings to be designed and 100 constructed in a manner that affords persons with disabilities greater access than 101 is required by this chapter.

102         7. Nothing in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 requires that 103 a dwelling be made available to an individual whose tenancy would constitute a 104 direct threat to the health or safety of other individuals or whose tenancy would 105 result in substantial physical damage to the property of others.

106         8. Nothing in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 limits the 107 applicability of any reasonable local or state restriction regarding the maximum 108 number of occupants permitted to occupy a dwelling, nor does any provision in 109 this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050 regarding familial status apply 110 with respect to housing for older persons.

111 9. As used in this section and sections 213.045 and 213.050, "housing for 112 older persons" means housing:

113 (1) Provided under any state or federal program that the commission 114 determines is specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons, as 115 defined in the state or federal program;

116 (2) Intended for, and solely occupied by, persons sixty-two years of age or 117 older; or

118 (3) Intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person fifty-five 119 years of age or older per unit. In determining whether housing qualifies as 120 housing for older persons under this subsection, the commission shall develop 121 regulations which require at least the following factors:

122 (a) The existence of significant facilities and services specifically designed 123 to meet the physical or social needs of older persons, or if the provision of such 124 facilities and services is not practicable, that such housing is necessary to provide 125 important housing opportunities for older persons; and

126 (b) That at least eighty percent of the units are occupied by at least one 127 person fifty-five years of age or older per unit; and 128 (c) The publication of, and adherence to, policies and procedures which 129 demonstrate an intent by the owner or manager to provide housing for persons 130 fifty-five years of age or older.

131 10. Housing shall not fail to meet the requirements for housing for older 132 persons by reason of:

133 (1) Persons residing in such housing as of August 28, 1992, who do not 134 meet the age requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section, 135 provided that new occupants of such housing meet the age requirements of 136 subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 9 of this section; or

137 (2) Unoccupied units, provided that such units are reserved for occupancy 138 by persons who meet the age requirements of subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection 139 9 of this section.

140 11. Nothing in this section or section 213.045 or 213.050 shall prohibit 141 conduct against a person because such person has been convicted by any court of 142 competent jurisdiction of the illegal manufacture or distribution of a controlled 143 substance, as defined by section 195.010.

144 12. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a religious organization, 145 association, or society, or any nonprofit institution or organization operated, 146 supervised or controlled by or in conjunction with a religious organization,

147 association, or society, from limiting the sale, rental or occupancy of dwellings 148 which it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose to persons of the 149 same religion, or from giving preference to such persons, unless membership in 150 such religion is restricted on account of race, color, or national origin. Nor shall 151 anything in this chapter prohibit a private club not in fact open to the public, 152 which as an incident to its primary purpose or purposes provides lodging which 153 it owns or operates for other than a commercial purpose, from limiting the rental 154 or occupancy of such lodging to its members or from giving preference to its 155 members.

156 13. Nothing in this chapter, other than the prohibitions against 157 discriminatory advertising in subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section, shall 158 apply to:

159 (1) The sale or rental of any single family house by a private individual 160 owner, provided the following conditions are met:

161 (a) The private individual owner does not own or have any interest in 162 more than three single family houses at any one time; and

163 (b) The house is sold or rented without the use of a real estate broker, 164 agent or salesperson or the facilities of any person in the business of selling or 165 renting dwellings and without publication, posting or mailing of any 166 advertisement. If the owner selling the house does not reside in it at the time of 167 the sale or was not the most recent resident of the house prior to such sale, the 168 exemption in this section applies to only one such sale in any twenty-four-month 169 period; or

170 (2) Rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or 171 intended to be occupied by no more than four families living independently of 172 each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of such living 173 quarters as his or her residence.

213.045. It shall be unlawful for any bank, building and loan association, 2 insurance company or other corporation, association, firm or enterprise whose 3 business consists in whole or in part in the making of commercial real estate 4 loans, to deny a loan or other financial assistance because of race, color, religion, 5 national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability 6 or familial status to a person applying therefor for the purpose of purchasing, 7 construction, improving, repairing, or maintaining a dwelling, or to discriminate 8 against him in fixing of the amount, interest rate, duration or other terms or 9 conditions of such loan or other financial assistance, because of the race, color,

10 religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity,

64 individual or to any group because of the race, color, religion, national origin, sex, 65 sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability of such 67 the total number or percentage of persons of any race, color, religion, national 68 origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, age or disability 69 employed by any employer, referred or classified for employment by any

4 without discrimination or segregation because of race, color, religion, national 5 origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, or disability.

6 2. It is an unlawful discriminatory practice for any person, directly or 7 indirectly, to refuse, withhold from or deny any other person, or to attempt to 8 refuse, withhold from or deny any other person, any of the accommodations,

11 discriminate against any such person in the use thereof because of race, color, 12 religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, ancestry, 13 or disability.

14 3. The provisions of this section shall not apply to a private club, a place

10 this chapter;

11 (3) For the state or any political subdivision of this state to discriminate
