AN ACT

To amend chapter 21, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to the amendment of bills in the general assembly.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapter 21, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto one new section, to be known as section 21.385, to read as follows:

21.385. No member of the general assembly shall offer and move for the adoption of any amendment wherein any portion of the amendment is identical to a bill that has been introduced in the same regular session of the general assembly but has not been heard by a committee of the body of the general assembly where the amendment is offered. Any such amendment may be subject to a point of order brought under rules adopted by the respective body of the general assembly by authority granted in section 18 of article III of the Missouri Constitution. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any amendment adopted by a body of the general assembly where a point of order is not raised or the presiding officer of the body does not find the point of order to be well taken.
