Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 452.377, RSMo, is repealed and one new section
2 enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 452.377, to read as follows:

452.377. 1. For purposes of this section and section 452.375, "relocate" or 2 "relocation" means a change in the principal residence of a child for a period of 3 ninety days or more, but does not include a temporary absence from the principal 4 residence.

5 2. Notice of a proposed relocation of the residence of the child, or any 6 party entitled to custody or visitation of the child, shall be given in writing by 7 certified mail, return receipt requested, to any party with custody or visitation
8 rights. Absent exigent circumstances as determined by a court with jurisdiction, 9 written notice shall be provided at least sixty days in advance of the proposed 10 relocation. The notice of the proposed relocation shall include the following 11 information:

12 (1) The intended new residence, including the specific address and mailing
13 address, if known, and if not known, the city;

14 (2) The home telephone number of the new residence, if known;

15 (3) The date of the intended move or proposed relocation;

16 (4) A brief statement of the specific reasons for the proposed relocation of 17 a child, if applicable; [and]

18 (5) A proposal for a revised schedule of custody or visitation with the 19 child, if applicable; and

20 (6) The other party's right, if that party is a parent, to file a

EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

21 motion, pursuant to this section, seeking an order to prevent the 22 relocation and an accompanying affidavit setting forth the specific 23 good faith factual basis for opposing the relocation within thirty days
24 of receipt of the notice.

25           3. If a party seeking to relocate a child is a participant in the address 26 confidentiality program under section 589.663, such party shall not be required 27 to provide the information in subdivision (1) of subsection 2 of this section, but 28 may be required to submit such information under seal to the court for in camera 29 review. Prior to disclosure of this information, a court shall comply with the 30 provisions of section 589.664.

31           4. A party required to give notice of a proposed relocation pursuant to 32 subsection 2 of this section has a continuing duty to provide a change in or 33 addition to the information required by this section as soon as such information 34 becomes known.

35           5. In exceptional circumstances where the court makes a finding that the 36 health or safety of any adult or child would be unreasonably placed at risk by the 37 disclosure of the required identifying information concerning a proposed 38 relocation of the child, the court may order that:

39           (1) The specific residence address and telephone number of the child, 40 parent or person, and other identifying information shall not be disclosed in the 41 pleadings, notice, other documents filed in the proceeding or the final order 42 except for an in camera disclosure;

43           (2) The notice requirements provided by this section shall be waived to the 44 extent necessary to protect the health or safety of a child or any adult; or

45           (3) Any other remedial action the court considers necessary to facilitate 46 the legitimate needs of the parties and the best interest of the child.

47           6. The court shall consider a failure to provide notice of a proposed 48 relocation of a child as:

49           (1) A factor in determining whether custody and visitation should be 50 modified;

51           (2) A basis for ordering the return of the child if the relocation occurs 52 without notice; and

53           (3) Sufficient cause to order the party seeking to relocate the child to pay 54 reasonable expenses and attorneys fees incurred by the party objecting to the 55 relocation.

56           7. If the parties agree to a revised schedule of custody and visitation for

57 the child, which includes a parenting plan, they may submit the terms of such 58 agreement to the court with a written affidavit signed by all parties with custody 59 or visitation assenting to the terms of the agreement, and the court may order the 60 revised parenting plan and applicable visitation schedule without a hearing.

61 8. The residence of the child may be relocated sixty days after providing 62 notice, as required by this section, unless a parent files a motion seeking an order 63 to prevent the relocation within thirty days after receipt of such notice. Such 64 motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the specific good faith
65 factual basis supporting a prohibition of the relocation. The person seeking 66 relocation shall file a response to the motion within fourteen days, unless 67 extended by the court for good cause, and include a counter-affidavit setting forth 68 the facts in support of the relocation as well as a proposed revised parenting plan 69 for the child.

70 9. If relocation of the child is proposed, a third party entitled by court 71 order to legal custody of or visitation with a child and who is not a parent may 72 file a cause of action to obtain a revised schedule of legal custody or visitation, 73 but shall not prevent a relocation.

74 10. The party seeking to relocate shall have the burden of proving that 75 the proposed relocation is made in good faith and is in the best interest of the 76 child.

77 11. If relocation is permitted:

78 (1) The court shall order contact with the nonrelocating party including 79 custody or visitation and telephone access sufficient to assure that the child has 80 frequent, continuing and meaningful contact with the nonrelocating party unless 81 the child's best interest warrants otherwise; and

82 (2) The court shall specify how the transportation costs will be allocated 83 between the parties and adjust the child support, as appropriate, considering the 84 costs of transportation.

85 12. After August 28, 1998, every court order establishing or modifying 86 custody or visitation shall include the following language:

87 "Absent exigent circumstances as determined by a court with jurisdiction, 88 you, as a party to this action, are ordered to notify, in writing by certified mail,
89 return receipt requested, and at least sixty days prior to the proposed relocation, 90 each party to this action of any proposed relocation of the principal residence of 91 the child, including the following information:

92 (1) The intended new residence, including the specific address and mailing

93 address, if known, and if not known, the city;

94 (2) The home telephone number of the new residence, if known;

95 (3) The date of the intended move or proposed relocation;

96 (4) A brief statement of the specific reasons for the proposed relocation of 97 the child; [and]

98 (5) A proposal for a revised schedule of custody or visitation with the 99 child; and

100 (6) The other party's right, if that party is a parent, to file a 101 motion, pursuant to Section 452.377, RSMo, seeking an order to prevent 102 the relocation and an accompanying affidavit setting forth the specific 103 good faith factual basis for opposing the relocation within thirty days
104 of receipt of the notice.

105 Your obligation to provide this information to each party continues as long 106 as you or any other party by virtue of this order is entitled to custody of a child 107 covered by this order. Your failure to obey the order of this court regarding the 108 proposed relocation may result in further litigation to enforce such order, 109 including contempt of court. In addition, your failure to notify a party of a 110 relocation of the child may be considered in a proceeding to modify custody or 111 visitation with the child. Reasonable costs and attorney fees may be assessed 112 against you if you fail to give the required notice."

113 13. A participant in the address confidentiality program under section 114 589.663 shall not be required to provide a requesting party with the specific 115 physical or mailing address of the child's proposed relocation destination, but in 116 the event of an objection by a requesting party, a participant may be required to 117 submit such information under seal to the court for in camera review. Prior to 118 disclosure of this information, a court shall comply with the provisions of section 119 589.664.

120 14. Violation of the provisions of this section or a court order under this 121 section may be deemed a change of circumstance under section 452.410, allowing 122 the court to modify the prior custody decree. In addition, the court may utilize 123 any and all powers relating to contempt conferred on it by law or rule of the 124 Missouri supreme court.

125 15. Any party who objects in good faith to the relocation of a child's 126 principal residence shall not be ordered to pay the costs and attorney's fees of the 127 party seeking to relocate.
