

SECOND REGULAR SESSION

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 39

97TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY SENATOR DIXON.

Pre-filed December 16, 2013, and ordered printed.

TERRY L. SPIELER, Secretary.

4865S.02I

JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri, an amendment repealing sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, and 13 of article III of the Constitution of Missouri, and adopting six new sections in lieu thereof relating to legislative redistricting.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on 2 Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2014, or at a special 3 election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted 4 to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following 5 amendment to article III of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, and 13 , article III, Constitution of 2 Missouri, is repealed and six new sections adopted in lieu thereof, to be known 3 as sections 2, 4, 5, 6, 10, and 13, to read as follows:

Section 2. The house of representatives shall consist of one hundred sixty-2 three members elected by the qualified voters of the respective districts
3 at each general election [and apportioned in the following manner:].

4 For the election of representatives, a commission shall determine 5 the representative districts by dividing the population of the state by 6 the number one hundred sixty-three and shall establish each district so 7 that the population of that district shall, as nearly as possible, equal 8 that figure. Each district shall be composed of contiguous territory as 9 compact as may be. Any commission created under this section shall 10 be considered a public governmental body for purposes of, and subject 11 to, any general law concerning public meetings and public records.

12 Within sixty days after the population of this state is reported to the EXPLANATION—Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in this bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

13 President for each decennial census of the United States, and[, in the event that 14 a reapportionment has been invalidated by a court of competent jurisdiction,] 15 within sixty days after notification by the governor that [such a ruling has been 16 made] a reapportionment has been invalidated by a court of competent 17 jurisdiction or a commission stands discharged, the congressional district 18 committee of each of the two parties casting the highest vote for governor at the 19 last preceding election shall meet and the members of the committee shall 20 nominate, by a majority vote of the members of the committee present, provided 21 that a majority of the elected members is present, two members of their party, 22 residents in that district, as nominees for reapportionment commissioners.
23 Neither party shall select more than one nominee from any one state legislative 24 district. The congressional committees shall each submit to the governor their 25 list of elected nominees, none of whom may be members of the general 26 assembly or their employees at the time or during the tenure of 27 appointment. Within thirty days the governor shall appoint a commission 28 consisting of one name from each list to reapportion the state into one hundred 29 and sixty-three representative districts and to establish the numbers and 30 boundaries of said districts.

31 If any of the congressional committees fails to submit a list within such 32 time the governor shall appoint a member of his own choice from that district and 33 from the political party of the committee failing to make the appointment. Any 34 vacancy on the commission shall be filled in the same manner as the 35 original appointment.

36 Members of the commission shall be disqualified from holding office as 37 members of the general assembly for [four] ten years following the date of [the 38 filing by the commission of its final statement of apportionment] their 39 appointment to the commission by the governor.

40 For the purposes of this article, the term congressional district committee 41 or congressional district refers to the congressional district committee or the 42 congressional district from which a congressman was last elected, or, in the event 43 members of congress from this state have been elected at large, the term 44 congressional district committee refers to those persons who last served as the 45 congressional district committee for those districts from which congressmen were 46 last elected, and the term congressional district refers to those districts from 47 which congressmen were last elected. Any action pursuant to this section by the 48 congressional district committee shall take place only at duly called meetings,

49 shall be recorded in their official minutes and only members present in person 50 shall be permitted to vote.

51 [The commissioners so selected shall on the fifteenth day] No later than 52 fifteen days after the appointment of all commissioners, excluding 53 Sundays and holidays, [after all members have been selected,] the 54 commissioners so selected shall meet in the capitol building and proceed to 55 organize by electing from their number a [chairman] chair, vice [chairman] 56 chair and secretary and shall adopt an agenda establishing at least three 57 hearing dates on which hearings open to the public shall be held. A copy of the 58 agenda shall be filed with the clerk of the house of representatives within twenty-59 four hours after its adoption. Executive meetings may be scheduled and held as 60 often as the commission deems advisable.

61 [The commission shall reapportion the representatives by dividing the 62 population of the state by the number one hundred sixty-three and shall establish 63 each district so that the population of that district shall, as nearly as possible, 64 equal that figure.

65 Each district shall be composed of contiguous territory as compact as may 66 be.]

67 Not later than five months after the appointment of the commission, the 68 commission shall file with the secretary of state a tentative plan of apportionment 69 and map of the proposed districts and during the ensuing fifteen days shall hold 70 [such] one or more public hearings [as may be necessary] to hear objections or 71 testimony of interested persons. Any vote to approve the tentative plan
72 shall be held not less than forty-eight hours preceding the filing 73 deadline.

74 Not later than six months after the appointment of the commission, the 75 commission shall file with the secretary of state a final statement of the numbers 76 and the boundaries of the districts, together with a map of the districts, and no 77 statement shall be valid unless approved by at least seven-tenths of the members.
78 Any vote to approve the final plan shall be held not less than forty- 79 eight hours preceding the filing deadline. If any district created in the 80 final statement does not consist of any portion of the prior district 81 assigned to that area, the reasons or grounds for the numbers and the 82 boundaries of the districts shall be reduced to writing and filed along 83 with the final statement submitted by the commission. If the statement 84 is not filed within six months of the time fixed for the appointment of 85 the commission, the commission shall stand discharged and a new 86 commission shall be appointed.

87 After the statement is filed, members of the house of representatives shall 88 be elected according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein 89 provided[, except that if the statement is not filed within six months of the time 90 fixed for the appointment of the commission, it shall stand discharged and the 91 house of representatives shall be apportioned by a commission of six members 92 appointed from among the judges of the appellate courts of the state of Missouri 93 by the state supreme court, a majority of whom shall sign and file its 94 apportionment plan and map with the secretary of state within ninety days of the 95 date of the discharge of the apportionment commission. Thereafter members of 96 the house of representatives shall be elected according to such districts until a 97 reapportionment is made as herein provided].

98 Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation fifteen 99 dollars a day for each day the commission is in session but not more than one 100 thousand dollars in sum, and, in addition, shall be reimbursed for his or her 101 actual and necessary expenses incurred while serving as a member of the 102 commission.

103 No reapportionment shall be subject to the referendum.

Section 4. Each representative shall be twenty-four years of age, and next 2 before the day of his or her election shall have been a qualified voter for two 3 years and a resident of the [county or] district which he or she is chosen to 4 represent for one year, if such [county or] district shall have been so long 5 established, and if not, then of the [county or] district from which the same shall 6 have been taken.

Section 5. The senate shall consist of thirty-four members elected by the 2 qualified voters of the respective districts for four years. [For the election of 3 senators, the state shall be divided into convenient districts of contiguous 4 territory, as compact and nearly equal in population as may be.]

5 For the election of senators, a commission shall determine the 6 senatorial districts by dividing the population of the state by the 7 number thirty-four and shall establish each district so that the 8 population of that district shall, as nearly as possible, equal that 9 figure. Each district shall be composed of contiguous territory as 10 compact as may be. No county lines shall be crossed except when 11 necessary to add sufficient population to the remainder of a

12 multidistrict county to complete only one district which lies partly 13 within such multidistrict county so as to be as nearly equal as 14 practicable in population. Any county or city not within a county with 15 a population in excess of the quotient obtained by dividing the 16 population of the state by the number thirty-four is hereby declared to 17 be a multidistrict county.

18 Any commission created under this section shall be considered
19 a public governmental body for purposes of, and subject to, any general 20 law concerning public meetings and public records.

21 Within sixty days after the population of this state is reported to 22 the President for each decennial census of the United States, and, 23 within sixty days after notification by the governor that a 24 reapportionment has been invalidated by a court of competent 25 jurisdiction or a commission stands discharged, the state committee of 26 each of the two political parties casting the highest vote for governor 27 at the last preceding election shall, at a committee meeting duly called, 28 select by a vote of the individual committee members, and thereafter 29 submit to the governor a list of ten persons, none of whom may be 30 members of the general assembly or their employees at the time or 31 during the tenure of appointment. In making such nominations, each 32 state committee shall give due consideration to the representation of 33 the various geographical areas of the state. Within thirty days
34 thereafter, the governor shall appoint a commission of ten members, 35 five from each list, to reapportion the thirty-four senatorial districts 36 and to establish the numbers and boundaries of said districts.

37 If either of the party committees fails to submit a list within such 38 time the governor shall appoint five members of his own choice from 39 the party of the committee so failing to act. Any vacancy on the 40 commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original 41 appointment.

42 Members of the commission shall be disqualified from holding 43 office as members of the general assembly for ten years following the 44 date of their appointment to the commission by the governor.

45 No later than fifteen days after the appointment of all 46 commissioners, excluding Sundays and holidays, the commissioners so 47 selected shall meet in the capitol building and proceed to organize by 48 electing from their number a chair, vice chair, and secretary, and shall 49 adopt an agenda establishing at least three hearing dates on which 50 hearings open to the public shall be held. A copy of the agenda shall 51 be filed with the secretary of the senate within twenty-four hours after 52 its adoption. Executive meetings may be scheduled and held as often 53 as the commission deems advisable.

54 Not later than five months after the appointment of the 55 commission, the commission shall file with the secretary of state a 56 tentative plan of apportionment and map of the proposed districts and 57 during the ensuing fifteen days shall hold one or more public hearings 58 to hear objections or testimony of interested persons. Any vote to 59 approve the tentative plan shall be held not less than forty-eight hours 60 preceding the filing deadline.

61 Not later than six months after the appointment of the 62 commission, the commission shall file with the secretary of state a final 63 statement of the numbers and the boundaries of the districts, together 64 with a map of the districts, and no statement shall be valid unless 65 approved by at least seven members. Any vote to approve the final plan
66 shall be held not less than forty-eight hours preceding the filing 67 deadline. If any district created in the final statement does not consist 68 of any portion of the prior district assigned to that area, the reasons or 69 grounds for the numbers and the boundaries of the districts shall be 70 reduced to writing and filed along with the final statement submitted 71 by the commission. If the statement is not filed within six months of 72 the time fixed for the appointment of the commission, the commission 73 shall stand discharged and a new commission shall be appointed.

74 After the statement is filed, senators shall be elected according 75 to such districts until a reapportionment is made as herein provided.

76 Each member of the commission shall receive as compensation
77 fifteen dollars a day for each day the commission is in session, but no 78 more than one thousand dollars in sum, and, in addition, shall be 79 reimbursed for his or her actual and necessary expenses incurred while 80 serving as a member of the commission.

81 No reapportionment shall be subject to the referendum.

Section 6. Each senator shall be thirty years of age, and next before the 2 day of his or her election shall have been a qualified voter of the state for three 3 years and a resident of the district which he or she is chosen to represent for one 4 year, if such district shall have been so long established, and if not, then of the 5 district or districts from which the same shall have been taken.

2 [Section 7. Within sixty days after the population of this 3 state is reported to the President for each decennial census of the 4 United States, and within sixty days after notification by the 5 governor that a reapportionment has been invalidated by a court 6 of competent jurisdiction, the state committee of each of the two 7 political parties casting the highest vote for governor at the last 8 preceding election shall, at a committee meeting duly called, select 9 by a vote of the individual committee members, and thereafter
10 submit to the governor a list of ten persons, and within thirty days
11 thereafter the governor shall appoint a commission of ten members, 12 five from each list, to reapportion the thirty-four senatorial 13 districts and to establish the numbers and boundaries of said 14 districts.

15 If either of the party committees fails to submit a list within 16 such time the governor shall appoint five members of his own 17 choice from the party of the committee so failing to act.

18 Members of the commission shall be disqualified from 19 holding office as members of the general assembly for four years 20 following the date of the filing by the commission of its final 21 statement of apportionment.

22 The commissioners so selected shall on the fifteenth day, 23 excluding Sundays and holidays, after all members have been 24 selected, the shall meet in the capitol building and proceed to 25 organize by electing from their number a chairman, vice chairman 26 and secretary and shall adopt an agenda establishing at least three 27 hearing dates on which hearings open to the public shall be held.
28 A copy of the agenda shall be filed with the secretary of the senate
29 within twenty-four hours after its adoption. Executive meetings 30 may be scheduled and held as often as the commission deems 31 advisable.

32 The commission shall reapportion the senatorial districts by 33 dividing the population of the state by the number thirty-four and 34 shall establish each district so that the population of that district 35 shall, as nearly as possible, equal that figure; no county lines shall be crossed except when necessary to add sufficient population to a

36 multi-district county or city to complete only one district which lies 37 partly within such multi-district county or city so as to be as nearly 38 equal as practicable in population. Any county with a population 39 in excess of the quotient obtained by dividing the population of the 40 state by the number thirty-four is hereby declared to be a multi-41 district county.

42 Not later than five months after the appointment of the 43 commission, the commission shall file with the secretary of state a 44 tentative plan of apportionment and map of the proposed districts 45 and during the ensuing fifteen days shall hold such public hearings 46 as may be necessary hearing to hear objections or testimony of 47 interested persons.

48 Not later than six months after the appointment of the 49 commission, the commission shall file with the secretary of state a 50 final statement of the numbers and the boundaries of the districts 51 together with a map of the districts, and no statement shall be 52 valid unless approved by at least seven members.

53 After the statement is filed senators shall be elected 54 according to such districts until a reapportionment is made as 55 herein provided, except that if the statement is not filed within six 56 months of the time fixed for the appointment of the commission, it 57 shall stand discharged and the senate shall be apportioned by a 58 commission of six members appointed from among the judges of the 59 appellate courts of the state of Missouri by the state supreme court, 60 a majority of whom shall sign and file its apportionment plan and 61 map with the secretary of state within ninety days of the date of 62 the discharge of the apportionment commission. Thereafter
63 senators shall be elected according to such districts until a
64 reapportionment is made as herein provided.

65 Each member of the commission shall receive as 66 compensation fifteen dollars a day for each day the commission is 67 in session, but not more than one thousand dollars, and, in 68 addition, shall be reimbursed for his actual and necessary expenses 69 incurred while serving as a member of the commission.

70 No reapportionment shall be subject to the 71 referendum.]

Section 10. The last decennial census of the United States shall be used 2 in [apportioning representatives and] determining the population of senatorial 3 and representative districts. Such districts [may] shall be altered from time to 4 time as [public convenience may require] required by this article.

Section 13. If any senator or representative remove his or her residence 2 from the district [or county] for which he or she was elected, his or her office 3 shall thereby be vacated. The renumbering or the realignment of districts 4 shall not be construed as removal of residence from the district as set 5 forth in this section.

Section B. Pursuant to chapter 116, RSMo, and other applicable
2 constitutional provisions and laws of this state allowing the general assembly to 3 adopt ballot language for the submission of referendum measures to the voters
4 of this state, the official ballot title of the act proposed in section A of this act 5 shall be as follows:

6 "Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to:

7 - Require any commission involved with redistricting state Senate or 8 House of Representatives districts to comply with open meetings laws; and 9 - Change constitutional procedures for the redistricting of state Senate or 10 House of Representative districts?".
