

1 HOUSE BILL NO. 615

2 INTRODUCED BY C. GLIMM

4 A BILL FOR AN ACT ENTITLED: "AN ACT REVISING LAWS RELATED TO THE FREE EXERCISE OF
5 RELIGION; RECOGNIZING THE FREE EXERCISE OF RELIGION AS A FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT; RESTORING
6 THE USE OF THE COMPELLING GOVERNMENTAL INTEREST TEST TO DECISIONS IN LEGAL CASES
7 REGARDING THE FREE EXERCISE OF RELIGION; PROVIDING THAT THE PROPOSED ACT BE 8 SUBMITTED TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF MONTANA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND
9 AN APPLICABILITY DATE."

11 WHEREAS, in Employment Division v. Smith, 494 U.S. 872 (1990), the Supreme Court significantly
12 curtailed the requirement that laws and other state action burdening the free exercise of religion be justified by 13 a compelling interest; and

14 WHEREAS, Gonzales v. O Centro Espirita Beneficente Uniao do Vegetal, 546 U.S. 418 (2006), interprets
15 the Religious Freedom Restoration Act of 1993, which requires that federal laws and other actions by the federal
16 government burdening the free exercise of religion must be justified by a compelling governmental interest; and

17 WHEREAS, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act of 1993 was passed in response to the Employment
18 Division v. Smith decision and only applies to federal laws; and

19 WHEREAS, following the Gonzales decision favorably applying the Religious Freedom Restoration Act
20 of 1993, many states have responded by passing laws similar to this act.

21
22 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

23
24 NEW SECTION. Section 1. Short title. [This act] may be cited as the "Montana Religious Freedom
25 Restoration Act".

26
27 NEW SECTION. Section 2. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that:

28 (1) the framers of the United States constitution, recognizing free exercise of religion as an unalienable
29 right, secured its protection in the first amendment to the United States constitution;

30 (2) the framers of the Montana constitution, recognizing free exercise of religion as a fundamental right,

1 secured its protection in the Montana constitution;

2 (3) laws and other state action that are neutral toward religion may burden the exercise of religion as
3 surely as laws intended to interfere with religious exercise;

4 (4) state action should not burden exercise of religion without compelling justification;

5 (5) prior to 1990, laws and other state action burdening exercise of religion had to be justified by a
6 compelling interest; and

7 (6) the compelling interest test set forth in prior federal court rulings and [sections 1 through 5] is a
8 workable test and strikes a sensible balance between religious liberty and competing governmental interests.

9

10 NEW SECTION. Section 3. Purpose. The purpose of [sections 1 through 5] is:

11 (1) to restore the compelling interest test and to guarantee its application in all cases where the exercise
12 of religion is burdened by state action; and

13 (2) to provide a claim or defense to a person or persons whose exercise of religion is burdened by state
14 action.

16 NEW SECTION. Section 4. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 5], the following definitions
17 apply:

18 (1) "Burden" means any action that directly or indirectly constrains, inhibits, curtails, or denies the 19 exercise of religion by any person or compels any action contrary to a person's exercise of religion and includes
20 but is not limited to withholding of benefits, assessment of criminal, civil, or administrative penalties, or exclusion
21 from governmental programs or access to governmental facilities.

22 (2) "Compelling governmental interest" means a governmental interest of the highest order that cannot
23 otherwise be achieved without burdening the exercise of religion.

24 (3) "Exercise of religion" means the practice or observance of religion. The term includes but is not
25 limited to the ability to act or refuse to act in a manner substantially motivated by one's sincerely held religious
26 belief, whether or not the exercise is compulsory or central to a larger system of religious belief.

27 (4) "Person" means any individual, association, partnership, corporation, church, religious institution,
28 estate, trust, foundation, or other legal entity.

29 (5) "State action" means the implementation or application of any law, including but not limited to state
30 and local laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, and policies, whether statutory or otherwise, or other action by the

1 state or a political subdivision and a local government, municipality, instrumentality, or public official authorized
2 by law in the state of Montana.

3
4 NEW SECTION. Section 5. Free exercise of religion protected. (1) State action may not burden a
5 person's right to the exercise of religion, even if the burden results from a rule of general applicability, unless it
6 is demonstrated that applying the burden to that person's exercise of religion:

7 (a) is essential to further a compelling governmental interest; and

8 (b) is the least restrictive means of furthering that compelling governmental interest.

9 (2) A person whose exercise of religion has been burdened or is likely to be burdened in violation of
10 [sections 1 through 5] may assert the violation or impending violation as a claim or defense in a judicial or
11 administrative proceeding, regardless of whether the state of Montana or one of its political subdivisions is a party
12 to the proceeding. The person asserting such a claim or defense may obtain appropriate relief, including relief
13 against the state of Montana or its political subdivisions. Appropriate relief includes but is not limited to injunctive
14 relief, declaratory relief, compensatory damages, and costs and attorney fees.

15
16 NEW SECTION. Section 6. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 5] are intended to be codified
17 as an integral part of Title 27, and the provisions of Title 27 apply to [sections 1 through 5].

18
19 NEW SECTION. Section 7. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable
20 from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part
21 remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

22
23 NEW SECTION. Section 8. Effective date. If approved by the electorate, [this act] is effective January
24 1, 2017.

25
26 NEW SECTION. Section 9. Applicability. [This act] applies to cases filed on or after January 1, 2017.

27
28 NEW SECTION. Section 10. Submission to electorate. [This act] shall be submitted to the qualified
29 electors of Montana at the general election to be held in November 2016 by printing on the ballot the full title of 30 [this act] and the following:
