34 Article 7B, 8, 10, or 15 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes upon a spouse 35 or former spouse, a person with whom the defendant lives or has lived as if 36 married, or a person with whom the defendant is or has been in a dating

1 relationship as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b)(6), with domestic criminal trespass, 2 or with violation of an order entered pursuant to Chapter 50B, Domestic 3 Violence, of the General Statutes.

5 proceeding involving a crime of domestic violence.

6 (4) Remote testimony. – A method by which a domestic violence victim witness 7 testifies in a criminal proceeding outside of the physical presence of the 14 subsection (d) of this section.

15 (c) Notice and Waiver. – In any criminal proceeding, the testimony of a domestic 16 violence victim witness shall be permitted by remote testimony if each of the following 17 circumstances occurs:

18 (1) The State notifies the attorney of record for the defendant, or the defendant if

20 which the remote testimony would be used of its intention to allow the 21 domestic violence victim witness to testify remotely.

22 (2) The defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no 23 attorney, fails to file a written objection with the court, with a copy to the 24 State, at least five business days before the proceeding at which the remote 26 victim witness testifying remotely.

27 If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to 10 section shall do each of the following:

- 11 (1) Allow the judge, jury, and defendant to observe the demeanor of the domestic 12 violence victim witness as the witness testifies in a similar manner as if the 13 witness were in the open forum.
- 14 (2) Allow the judge, jury, defendant, and domestic violence victim witness to see 15 and hear one another in real time.

16 The court shall ensure that the defense counsel, except a pro se defendant, is physically 17 present where the domestic violence victim witness testifies, has a full and fair opportunity for 18 cross-examination of the domestic violence victim witness, and has the ability to communicate 19 privately with the defendant during the remote testimony. If the defendant is an attorney pro se, 20 the court shall ensure that the defendant has a full and fair opportunity for cross-examination of 21 the domestic violence victim witness. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the 22 provisions of G.S. 15A-1225.

23 (h) Nonexclusive Procedure and Standard. – Nothing in this section shall:

- 24 (1) Prohibit the use or application of any other method or procedure authorized or
