- 22           holder that the apparent owner knows that the property exists.
- 23           3. An action by an agent or other legal representative of an apparent owner, other than
- 24           the holder acting as the apparent owner's agent, is presumed to be an action on
- 25           behalf of the apparent owner.
- 26           4. A communication with an apparent owner by a person other than the holder or the
- 27           holder's representative is not an indication of interest in the property by the apparent
- 28           owner unless a record of the communication evidences the apparent owner's
- 29           knowledge of a right to the property.
- 30           5. If the insured dies or the insured or beneficiary of an insurance policy otherwise
- 31           becomes entitled to the proceeds before depletion of the cash surrender value of the

1 policy by operation of an automatic-premium-loan provision or other nonforfeiture 2 provision contained in the policy, the operation does not prevent the policy from 3 maturing or terminating.

4 47-30.2-13. (211) Knowledge of death of insured or annuitant.

- 5 1. In this section, "death master file" means the United States social security 6 administration death master file or other database or service that is at least as 7 comprehensive as the United States social security administration death master file for 8 determining that an individual reportedly has died.
- 9 2. With respect to a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract for which an 10 amount is owed on proof of death, but which has not matured by proof of death of the 11 insured or annuitant, the company has knowledge of the death of an insured or 12 annuitant when:
- 13 a. The company receives a death certificate or court order determining that the 14 insured or annuitant has died;
- 15 b. Due diligence, performed as required under section 26.1-55-02 to maintain 16 contact with the insured or annuitant or determine whether the insured or 17 annuitant has died, validates the death of the insured or annuitant;
- 18 c. The company conducts a comparison for any purpose between a death master 19 file and the names of some or all of the company's insureds or annuitants, finds a 20 match that provides notice that the insured or annuitant has died, and validates 21 the death; or
- 22 d. The company:
- 23 (1) Receives notice of the death of the insured or annuitant from an 24 administrator, beneficiary, policy owner, relative of the insured, or trustee or 25 from a personal representative, or other legal representative of the insured's 26 or annuitant's estate; and
- 27 (2) Validates the death of the insured or annuitant.
- 28 3. The following apply under this section:
- 29 a. A death master file match under subdivision c of subsection 2 occurs if the 30 criteria for an exact or partial match are satisfied as provided by:
- 31 (1) Law of this state other than this chapter, including chapter 26.1-55; or

- 1           (2) A rule or policy adopted by the insurance commissioner:
2           b. The death master file match does not constitute proof of death for the purpose of 3           submission to an insurance company of a claim by a beneficiary, annuitant, or 4           owner of the policy or contract for an amount due under an insurance policy or 5           annuity contract.
6           c. The death master file match or validation of the insured's or annuitant's death
7           does not alter the requirements for a beneficiary, annuitant, or owner of the policy 8           or contract to make a claim to receive proceeds under the terms of the policy or 9           contract.
10          d. The company shall make a good-faith effort using available records and 11          information to document the death of the insured or annuitant in accordance with 12          the time frame specified in chapter 26.1-55-02.

- 13          4. This chapter does not affect the determination of the extent to which an insurance 14          company before the effective date of this chapter had knowledge of the death of an 15          insured or annuitant or was required to conduct a death master file comparison to 16          determine whether amounts owed by the company on a life or endowment insurance 17          policy or annuity contract were presumed abandoned or unclaimed.

18          47-30.2-14. (212) Deposit account for proceeds of insurance policy or annuity
19          contract.

20          If proceeds payable under a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract are 21          deposited into an account with check or draft writing privileges for the beneficiary of the policy
22          or contract and, under a supplementary contract not involving annuity benefits other than death
23          benefits, the proceeds are retained by the insurance company or the financial organization
24          where the account is held, the policy or contract includes the assets in the account.

25          47-30.2-15. (301) Address of apparent owner to establish priority.

26          In sections 47-30.2-15, 47-30.2-16, 47-30.2-17, 47-30.2-18, 47-30.2-19, and 47-30.2-20, 27          the following apply:

- 28          1. The last-known address of an apparent owner is any description, code, or other 29          indication of the location of the apparent owner which identifies the state, even if the 30          description, code, or indication of location is not sufficient to direct the delivery of first-31          class United States mail to the apparent owner.

1       2. If the United States postal zip code associated with the apparent owner is for a post
2       office located in this state, this state is deemed to be the state of the last-known
3       address of the apparent owner unless other records associated with the apparent
4       owner specifically identify the physical address of the apparent owner to be in another 5       state.

6       3. If the address under subsection 2 is in another state, the other state is deemed to be 7       the state of the last-known address of the apparent owner.

8       4. The address of the apparent owner of a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity 9       contract or its proceeds is presumed to be the address of the insured or annuitant if a 10      person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the amount owed under the 11      policy or contract and the address of the other person is not known by the insurance 12      company and cannot be determined under section 47-30.2-16.

13      47-30.2-16. (302) Address of apparent owner in this state.

14      The administrator may take custody of property that is presumed abandoned, whether 15      located in this state, another state, or a foreign country if:

16      1. The last-known address of the apparent owner in the records of the holder is in this 17      state; or

18      2. The records of the holder do not reflect the identity or last-known address of the 19      apparent owner, but the administrator has determined that the last-known address of 20      the apparent owner is in this state.

21      47-30.2-17. (303) If records show multiple addresses of apparent owner.

22      1. Except as in subsection 2, if records of a holder reflect multiple addresses for an 23      apparent owner and this state is the state of the most recently recorded address, this 24      state may take custody of property presumed abandoned, whether located in this state 25      or another state.

26      2. If it appears from records of the holder that the most recently recorded address of the 27      apparent owner under subsection 1 is a temporary address and this state is the state
28      of the next most recently recorded address that is not a temporary address, this state 29      may take custody of the property presumed abandoned.

1       47-30.2-18. (304) Holder domiciled in this state.

- 2       1. Except as in subsection 2 or section 47-30.2-16 or 47-30.2-17, the administrator may 3       take custody of property presumed abandoned, whether located in this state, another
4       state, or a foreign country, if the holder is domiciled in this state or is this state or a 5       political subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this state; and 6       a. Another state or foreign country is not entitled to the property because there is no
7       last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property 8       in the records of the holder; or 9       b. The state or foreign country of the last-known address of the apparent owner or 10       other person entitled to the property does not provide for custodial taking of the 11       property.
12       2. Property is not subject to custody of the administrator under subsection 1 if the 13       property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under the law of this state or the 14       state or foreign country of the last-known address of the apparent owner.
15       3. If a holder's state of domicile has changed since the time property was presumed 16       abandoned, the holder's state of domicile in this section is deemed to be the state 17       where the holder was domiciled at the time the property was presumed abandoned.

18       47-30.2-19. (305) Custody if transaction took place in this state.

- 19       Except as in section 47-30.2-16, 47-30.2-17, or 47-30.2-18, the administrator may take 20       custody of property presumed abandoned whether located in this state or another state if:
21       1. The transaction out of which the property arose took place in this state;
22       2. The holder is domiciled in a state that does not provide for the custodial taking of the 23       property, except that if the property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under 24       the law of the state of the holder's domicile, the property is not subject to the custody 25       of the administrator; and
26       3. The last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property
27       is unknown or in a state that does not provide for the custodial taking of the property, 28       except that if the property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under the law of 29       the state of the last-known address, the property is not subject to the custody of the 30       administrator.

1        47-30.2-20. (306) Traveler's check, money order, or similar instrument.

2        The administrator may take custody of sums payable on a traveler's check, money order, or 9       that a mailing by first-class United States mail would not be received by the 10       apparent owner, and, in the case of a security held in an account for which the 11       apparent owner had consented to receiving electronic mail from the holder, send 12       notice by electronic mail if the electronic-mail address of the apparent owner is 13       known to the administrator instead of by first-class United States mail; or 14       b. Send the notice to the apparent owner's electronic-mail address if the

2       instructions for filing with the administrator a claim to property and a printable claim

8       unclaimed property held by the administrator.

9       47-30.2-29. (504) Cooperation among state officers and agencies to locate apparent 10     owner.

19     47-30.2-36, 47-30.2-37, and 47-30.2-38, payment or delivery of property is made in good faith if 20     a holder:

21       1. Had a reasonable basis for believing, based on the facts then known, that the property
22       was required or permitted to be paid or delivered to the administrator under this 23       chapter; or

24       2. Made payment or delivery:

25       a. In response to a demand by the administrator or administrator's agent; or 5                     otherwise cancel the charge.

7             property is deemed abandoned.

8       47-30.2-32. (603) Payment or delivery of property to administrator.

- 9       1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, on filing a report under section 10             47-30.2-21, the holder shall pay or deliver to the administrator the property described

- 12       2. If property in a report under section 47-30.2-21 is an automatically renewable deposit 13             and a penalty or forfeiture in the payment of interest would result from paying the 14             deposit to the administrator at the time of the report, the date for payment of the 15             property to the administrator is extended until a penalty or forfeiture no longer would 16             result from payment, if the holder informs the administrator of the extended date.

11          property under this section.

15           party. Confidential information received by the administrator or administrator's agent 16           from a third party under this section remains confidential while in the possession of the 17           administrator or administrator's agent. The administrator or the administrator's agent's 18           final and completed examination reports are records open to the public. The final 19           examination report may not contain confidential documentation or working papers

- 12          2. A putative holder may establish by a preponderance of the evidence that there is no 13          unpaid debt or undischarged obligation for a debt or obligation described in 14          subsection 1 or that the debt or obligation was not, or no longer is, a fixed and certain 15          obligation of the putative holder.
- 16          3. A putative holder may overcome prima facie evidence under subsection 1 by 17          establishing by a preponderance of the evidence that a check, draft, or similar 18          instrument was:
- 19               a. Issued as an unaccepted offer in settlement of an unliquidated amount;
20               b. Issued but later was replaced with another instrument because the earlier 21               instrument was lost or contained an error that was corrected;
22               c. Issued to a party affiliated with the issuer;
23               d. Paid, satisfied, or discharged;

3           and practice.

4       47-30.2-59. (1006) Failure of person examined to retain records.

5       If a person subject to examination under section 47-30.2-55 fails to retain the records
6 required by section 47-30.2-24, the administrator may determine the value of property due
7 using a reasonable method of estimation based on all information available to the administrator,
8 including extrapolation and use of statistical sampling when appropriate and necessary,
9 consistent with examination procedures and standards adopted under subsection 1 of section 10 47-30.2-56 and in accord with subsection 2 of section 47-30.2-56.

11       47-30.2-60. (1007) Report to person whose records were examined.

12       At the conclusion of an examination under section 47-30.2-55, the administrator or the 13 administrator's agent shall provide to the person whose records were examined a complete and 14 unredacted examination report that specifies:

- 15       1. The work performed;
- 16       2. The property types reviewed;
- 17       3. The methodology of any estimation technique, extrapolation, or statistical sampling 18       used in conducting the examination;

21       47-30.2-61. (1008) Informal conference during examination.

- 22       1. If a person subject to examination under section 47-30.2-55 believes the person 23       conducting the examination has made an unreasonable or unauthorized request or is 24       not proceeding expeditiously to complete the examination, the person subject to the 25       examination may ask the administrator to intervene and take appropriate remedial 26       action, including countermanding the request of the person conducting the 27       examination, imposing a time limit for completion of the examination, or reassigning 28       the examination to another person.
- 29       2. If a person subject to the examination requests a conference with the administrator to 30       present matters that are the basis of a request under subsection 1, the administrator 31       shall hold the conference not later than thirty days after receiving the request. The

1           administrator may hold the conference in person, by telephone, or by electronic 2           means.

3           3. If a conference is held under subsection 2, not later than thirty days after the 4           conference ends, the administrator shall provide a report in a record of the conference
5           to the person that requested the conference.

6           47-30.2-62. (1012) Determination of liability for unreported reportable property.

7           If the administrator determines from an examination conducted under section 47-30.2-55
8           that a putative holder failed or refused to pay or deliver to the administrator property which is 9           reportable under this chapter, the administrator shall issue a determination of the putative
10          holder's liability to pay or deliver and give notice of the determination in a record to the putative 11          holder.

12          47-30.2-63. (1202) Interstate and international agreement - Cooperation.

- 13          1. Subject to subsection 2, the administrator may:
- 14                a. Exchange information with another state or foreign country relating to property 15                presumed abandoned or relating to the possible existence of property presumed 16                abandoned; and
- 17                b. Authorize in a record another state or foreign country or a person acting on 18                behalf of the other state or country to examine its records of a putative holder as 19                provided in sections 47-30.2-54, 47-30.2-55, 47-30.2-56, 47-30.2-57, 47-30.2-58, 20                47-30.2-59, 47-30.2-60, 47-30.2-61, and 47-30.2-62.
- 21          2. An exchange or examination under subsection 1 may be done only if the state or 22          foreign country has confidentiality and security requirements substantially equivalent 23          to those in sections 47-30.2-71, 47-30.2-72, and 47-30.2-73 or agrees in a record to 24          be bound by this state's confidentiality and security requirements.

25          47-30.2-64. (1203) Action involving another state or foreign country.

- 26          1. The administrator may join another state or foreign country to examine and seek 27          enforcement of this chapter against a putative holder.
- 28          2. The board may pursue an action on behalf of this state to recover property subject to 29          this chapter but delivered to the custody of another state if the administrator believes 30          the property is subject to the custody of the administrator.

1       3. The board may retain an attorney in this state, another state, or a foreign country to 2       commence an action to recover property on behalf of the board and may agree to pay 3       attorney's fees based in whole or in part on a fixed fee, hourly fee, or a percentage of 4       the amount or value of property recovered in the action.

5       4. Expenses incurred by this state in an action under this section must be paid in 6       accordance with section 47-30.2-46.

7       47-30.2-65. (1204) Interest and penalty for failure to act in timely manner.

8       1. An administrator may collect interest from a holder that fails to report, pay, or deliver 9       property within the time prescribed by this chapter. Interest must be calculated at an 10      annual rate of one percent of the sum for each thirty day period of delinquency or 11      fraction of delinquency period on the property or value of the property from the date 12      the property should have been reported, paid, or delivered to the administrator until 13      the date reported, paid, or delivered.

14      2. Except as otherwise provided in section 47-30.2-66 or 47-30.2-67, the administrator
15      may require a holder that fails to report, pay, or deliver property within the time
16      prescribed by this chapter to pay to the administrator, in addition to interest included 17      under subsection 1, a civil penalty of two hundred dollars for each day the duty is not 18      performed, up to a cumulative maximum amount of five thousand dollars.

19      47-30.2-66. (1205) Other civil penalties.

20      1. If a holder enters into a contract or other arrangement for the purpose of evading an 21      obligation under this chapter or otherwise willfully fails to perform a duty imposed on 22      the holder under this chapter, the commissioner may require the holder to pay the 23      administrator, in addition to interest as provided in subsection 1 of section 47-30.2-65,
24      a civil penalty of one thousand dollars for each day the obligation is evaded or the duty
25      is not performed, up to a cumulative maximum amount of twenty-five thousand dollars, 26      plus twenty-five percent of the amount or value of property that should have been but 27      was not reported, paid, or delivered as a result of the evasion or failure to perform.

28      2. If a holder makes a fraudulent report under this chapter, the commissioner may require 29      the holder to pay to the administrator, in addition to interest under subsection 1 of 30      section 47-30.2-65, a civil penalty of one thousand dollars for each day from the date
31      the report was made until corrected, up to a cumulative maximum of twenty-five

1            thousand dollars, plus twenty-five percent of the amount or value of any property that 2            should have been reported but was not included in the report or was underreported.

3            47-30.2-67. Waiver of interest and penalty.

4            1. A holder shall pay the penalty and interest or request a waiver or reduction within thirty 5            days from the date of the receipt of a notice of a penalty and interest assessment.

6            2. A request for a waiver or reduction of the penalty or interest must be in writing and 7            provide the grounds for the request.

8            3. The following factors may be considered if deciding to waive or reduce the penalty or 9            interest:

10           a. The reason for the holder's noncompliance;

11           b. The degree of control the holder had over the lack of compliance;

12           c. Any unusual or mitigating circumstances involved; and 13           d. Any other relevant factors.

14           4. The commissioner may waive up to twenty-five thousand dollars of the penalty or 15           reduce interest. A request for a waiver or reduction of penalty in excess of twenty-five 16           thousand dollars must be presented to the board, with the commissioner's 17           recommendation, for review and decision.

18           5. A waiver or reduction of penalty and interest does not constitute a waiver of the right to 19           seek the full amount of both penalty and interest if the initial holder obligation is not 20           paid. If a claim for penalties and interest is settled and payment received, the amount 21           of penalties and interest not collected is waived.

22           47-30.2-68. (1301) When agreement to locate property enforceable.

23           An agreement by an apparent owner and another person, the primary purpose of which is 24           to locate, deliver, recover, or assist in the location, delivery, or recovery of property held by the 25           administrator, is enforceable only if:

26           1. The person who entered into the agreement with the apparent owner is in compliance 27           with chapter 43-30; and

28           2. The agreement:

29           a. Is in writing;

30           b. Clearly states the nature of the property and the services to be provided;

- 1           c. States the amount of the fee or other compensation to be paid, which may not be 2           in excess of ten percent of the amount recovered;
3           d. Discloses that, absent the agreement, the property would be delivered to a state-
4           administered unclaimed property program for safekeeping on the owner's behalf
5           and upon delivery, the owner may be able to recover the property from the state-6           administered program without charge; and 7           e. Is signed by or on behalf of the apparent owner.

8           47-30.2-69. (1302) When agreement to locate property void.

- 9           1. An agreement to locate property is void if:
10           a. Subject to subdivision b, the agreement is entered into during the period 11           beginning on the date the property was presumed abandoned and ending twenty-12           four months after the payment or delivery; or 13           b. A provision in an agreement described in subdivision a applies to property that 14           has not yet been abandoned and reported to the administrator, including mineral 15           proceeds.
16           2. This section does not apply to an apparent owner's agreement with an attorney to 17           pursue a claim for recovery of specifically identified property held by the administrator 18           or to contest the administrator's denial of a claim for recovery of the property.

19           47-30.2-70. (1303) Right of agent of apparent owner to recover property held by 20 administrator.

- 21           1. An apparent owner that contracts with another person to locate, deliver, recover, or 22           assist in the location, delivery, or recovery of property of the apparent owner which is 23           held by the administrator may designate the person as the agent of the apparent
24           owner. The designation must be in a record signed by the apparent owner.
25           2. The administrator shall give the agent of the apparent owner all information 26           concerning the property which the apparent owner is entitled to receive, including 27           information that otherwise is confidential information.

28           47-30.2-71. (1405) No confidential information in notice.

29           Except as otherwise provided in sections 47-30.2-26 and 47-30.2-27, a holder is not 30 required under this chapter to include confidential information in a notice the holder is required
31 to provide to an apparent owner under this chapter.

1       47-30.2-72. (1406) Security of information.

- 2       1. If a holder is required to include confidential information in a report to the 3       administrator, the information must be provided by a secure means.
- 4       2. If confidential information in a record is provided to and maintained by the 5       administrator or administrator's agent as required by this chapter, the administrator or 6       administrator's agent shall:
- 7       a. Implement administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect the 8       security, confidentiality, and integrity of the information required by state and 9       federal privacy and data security law whether or not the administrator or the 10      administrator's agent is subject to the law;
- 11      b. Protect against reasonably anticipated threats or hazards to the security, 12      confidentiality, or integrity of the information; and
- 13      c. Protect against unauthorized access to or use of the information which could 14      result in substantial harm or inconvenience to a holder or the holder's customers, 15      including insureds, annuitants, and policy or contract owners and their 16      beneficiaries.

17      47-30.2-73. (1407) Security breach.

- 18      1. Except to the extent prohibited by law other than this chapter, the administrator or 19      administrator's agent shall notify a holder as soon as practicable of:
- 20      a. A suspected loss, misuse or unauthorized access, disclosure, modification, or 21      destruction of confidential information obtained from the holder in the possession 22      of the administrator or an administrator's agent; and
- 23      b. Any interference with operations in any system hosting or housing confidential 24      information which:
- 25          (1) Compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of the information; or 26          (2) Creates a substantial risk of identity fraud or theft.
- 27      2. Except as necessary to inform an insurer, attorney, investigator, or others as required

30      person whose confidential information was supplied by the holder.

- 1       3. If an event described in subsection 1 occurs, the administrator and the administrator's 2       agent shall:
- 3       a. Take action necessary for the holder to understand and minimize the effect of the 4       event and determine its scope; and
- 5       b. Cooperate with the holder with respect to:
- 6           (1) Any notification required by law concerning a data or other security breach;

9       47-30.2-74. (1503) Transitional provision - Effect of new provisions - Clarification of 10 application.

- 11       1. This chapter does not relieve a holder of a duty that arose before July 1, 2021, to 12       report, pay, or deliver property. A holder that fails to comply with the law in effect
13       before July 1, 2021, is subject to the applicable enforcement and penalty provisions
14       that existed before July 1, 2021, and the applicable provisions are continued in effect 15       for the purpose of this subsection.
- 16       2. The initial report filed under this chapter for property that was not required to be 17       reported before July 1, 2021, but which is subject to this chapter must include all items
18       of property that would have been presumed abandoned during the ten-year period
19       preceding July 1, 2021, as if this chapter had been in effect during that period.

20       47-30.2-75. Enforcement - Appeals.

23 money or a civil penalty is entitled to a hearing before the board. A demand for a hearing must 24 be made within thirty days of the request by the administrator. The request by the administrator 25 must contain notice of the right to a hearing. The board's decision is the final order of the 26 agency and is appealable to the district court. Any amount of money requested by the 27 administrator which may increase over time is tolled at the time of filing an appeal, retroactive to 28 the date of the request.
