2 Sec. 20. Section 29-2261, Revised Statutes Cumulative Supplement,
3 2014, as amended by Laws 2015, LB504, section 1, is amended to read:

4 29-2261 (1) Unless it is impractical to do so, when an offender has

26 education, occupation, and personal habits, and any other matters that 27 the probation officer deems relevant or the court directs to be included.

18 necessary for that purpose. The offender may be remanded for this purpose 19 to any available clinic or mental hospital, or the court may appoint a 20 qualified psychiatrist to make the examination. The report of the 21 examination shall be submitted to the court.

18 examinations. Upon application by the prosecuting attorney or defense 19 counsel, the court may order that addresses, telephone numbers, and other 20 contact information for victims or witnesses named in the report,
21 evaluation, or examination be redacted upon a showing by a preponderance 22 of the evidence that such redaction is warranted in the interests of 23 public safety. The court may permit inspection of the presentence report, 24 substance abuse evaluation, or psychiatric examination or examination of 25 parts of the report, evaluation, or examination by any other person 26 having a proper interest therein whenever the court finds it is in the 27 best interest of a particular offender. The court may allow fair 28 opportunity for an offender to provide additional information for the 29 court's consideration.

30 (8) If an offender is sentenced to imprisonment, a copy of the 31 report of any presentence investigation, substance abuse evaluation, or

1 psychiatric examination shall be transmitted immediately to the 7 83-1,110.02 (1) A committed offender who is otherwise eligible for 8 parole, who is not under sentence of ~~death or of~~ life imprisonment, and 9 who because of an existing medical or physical condition is determined by 10 the department to be terminally ill or permanently incapacitated may be 11 considered for medical parole by the board. A committed offender may be 12 eligible for medical parole in addition to any other parole. The 13 department shall identify committed offenders who may be eligible for 14 medical parole based upon their medical records.

15 (2) The board shall decide to grant medical parole only after a

1 Sec. 33. Section 83-4,143, Reissue Revised Statutes of Nebraska, is 2 amended to read:

3 83-4,143 (1) It is the intent of the Legislature that the court
4 target the felony offender (a) who is eligible and by virtue of his or 5 her criminogenic needs is suitable to be sentenced to intensive 6 supervision probation with placement at the incarceration work camp, (b) 7 for whom the court finds that other conditions of a sentence of intensive 8 supervision probation, in and of themselves, are not suitable, and (c) 9 who, without the existence of an incarceration work camp, would, in all 10 likelihood, be sentenced to prison.

11 (2) When the court is of the opinion that imprisonment is 12 appropriate, but that a brief and intensive period of regimented, 13 structured, and disciplined programming within a secure facility may 14 better serve the interests of society, the court may place an offender in 15 an incarceration work camp for a period not to exceed one hundred eighty 16 days as a condition of a sentence of intensive supervision probation. The 17 court may consider such placement if the offender (a) is a male or female 18 offender convicted of a felony offense in a district court, (b) is 19 medically and mentally fit to participate, with allowances given for 20 reasonable accommodation as determined by medical and mental health
21 professionals, and (c) has not previously been incarcerated for a violent 22 felony crime. Offenders convicted of a crime under section 28-303 or 23 sections 28-319 to 28-322.04 ~~or of any capital crime~~ are not eligible to 24 be placed in an incarceration work camp.

25 (3) It is also the intent of the Legislature that the Board of 26 Parole may recommend placement of felony offenders at the incarceration
27 work camp. The offenders recommended by the board shall be offenders
28 currently housed at other Department of Correctional Services adult
29 correctional facilities and shall complete the incarceration work camp 30 programming prior to release on parole.

31 (4) When the Board of Parole is of the opinion that a felony

1 offender currently incarcerated in a Department of Correctional Services
2 adult correctional facility may benefit from a brief and intensive period
3 of regimented, structured, and disciplined programming immediately prior 4 to release on parole, the board may direct placement of such an offender
5 in an incarceration work camp for a period not to exceed one hundred 6 eighty days as a condition of release on parole. The board may consider 7 such placement if the felony offender (a) is medically and mentally fit 8 to participate, with allowances given for reasonable accommodation as 9 determined by medical and mental health professionals, and (b) has not 10 previously been incarcerated for a violent felony crime. Offenders
11 convicted of a crime under section 28-303 or sections 28-319 to 28-322.04
12 ~~or of any capital crime~~ are not eligible to be placed in an incarceration 13 work camp.

14 (5) The Director of Correctional Services may assign a felony
