3 79-10,137 The Legislature finds that, for Nebraska to compete
4 effectively in the world, it must have an educated and productive work 5 force. In order to have an educated and productive work force, it must

8 programs are integral parts of Nebraska's educational system. The 9 Legislature finds that summer meal programs are an integral part of 10 Nebraska's educational system.

11 Sec. 2. To ensure children in Nebraska have access to food during

13 into the provision of the federal Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2023
14 to permanently authorize the Summer Electronic Benefits Transfer program.

15 Sec. 3. Original section 79-10,137, Reissue Revised Statutes of
