

ONE HUNDRED THIRD LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION 307

Introduced by Lautenbaugh, 18.

PURPOSE: The purpose of this resolution is to study the committee and caucus structure of the Legislature. The study shall include, but not be limited to, an examination of the following issues:

- (1) The number of bills referenced to each committee;
- (2) The amount of time needed to adequately process all legislation being referred to each committee;
- (3) The extent to which each congressional district caucus should be ensured equal representation on each committee;
- (4) Whether currently existing standing committees can be merged into other standing committees;
- (5) Whether the current number of members assigned to each committee is adequate and appropriate;
- (6) Whether the number of days in which each committee is scheduled to meet per week should be increased, decreased, or remain the same;
- (7) Whether the days of the week in which each committee is scheduled to meet should be changed; and
- (8) Any other related topics the study committee deems necessary or appropriate.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MEMBERS OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA, FIRST SESSION:

1. That the Rules Committee of the Legislature shall be designated to conduct an interim study to carry out the purposes of this resolution.

2. That the committee shall upon the conclusion of its study make a report of its findings, together with its recommendations, to the Legislative Council or Legislature.
