10 AN ACT

11 RELATING TO CRIMINAL PROCEDURE; PROVIDING A REPORTING MECHANISM
12 AND AN ASSIGNMENT OF A PROSECUTOR FOLLOWING THE USE OF DEADLY 13 FORCE BY A PEACE OFFICER RESULTING IN GREAT BODILY HARM OR 14 DEATH; PROVIDING FOR AN INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION.

15
16 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO:

17 SECTION 1. A new section of Chapter 31 NMSA 1978 is 18 enacted to read:

19 "[NEW MATERIAL] USE OF DEADLY FORCE BY A PEACE OFFICER
20 RESULTING IN GREAT BODILY HARM OR DEATH--REQUIRED
21 NOTIFICATION--EVALUATION BY A RELEVANT PROSECUTING AUTHORITY-- 22 REQUIRING A REPORT FOR DECLINATION TO PROSECUTE--PROVIDING 23 CONCURRENT JURISDICTION.--

24 A. The procedures provided in this section shall 25 apply when a peace officer uses deadly force against a person

1 in the course of the peace officer's duties that results in 2 great bodily harm or death and any other death that occurs
3 while a person is in custody that is not the result of natural 4 causes.

5 B. Within twenty-four hours of a person suffering
6 great bodily harm or death as a result of a peace officer's 7 actions, the sheriff or the chief of police of the jurisdiction
8 in which the great bodily harm or death occurred shall report
9 the great bodily harm or death in writing to the district
10 attorney of the judicial district in which the great bodily 11 harm or death occurred. The sheriff or chief of police shall 12 report all instances of suspected great bodily harm to the 13 appropriate district attorney, even if a more thorough
14 assessment of great bodily harm will be undertaken at a later 15 date.

16 C. Within twenty-four hours of receiving written 17 notice pursuant to Subsection B of this section, the district
18 attorney shall report the incident in writing to the governor 19 and the attorney general. The governor shall keep a log of 20 reported incidents, which shall be considered public records
21 pursuant to the Inspection of Public Records Act. The log 22 shall, at a minimum, include the date of occurrence, the date
23 of the report made to the district attorney, the location,
24 victim information, peace officer information and a description
25 of the incident.

1 D. The relevant prosecuting authority shall 2 represent the state at a probable cause hearing at which the 3 special prosecutor shall present evidence of the peace 4 officer's use of excessive or deadly force and evidence of 5 criminal offenses committed by the officer, including but not 6 limited to violations of:

- 7 (1) Section 30-2-1 NMSA 1978;
- 8 (2) Section 30-2-3 NMSA 1978;
- 9 (3) Section 30-3-2 NMSA 1978;
- 10 (4) Section 30-3-3 NMSA 1978; and
- 11 (5) Section 30-3-5 NMSA 1978.

12 Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to limit
13 prosecutorial discretion of the relevant prosecuting authority.

14 E. The department of public safety shall be the 15 default primary investigative agency charged with investigating 16 instances of peace officers using deadly force resulting in 17 great bodily harm or death and any other in-custody death.
18 This shall not preclude the department of public safety from 19 requesting assistance with the investigation from other 20 agencies as part of a task force agreement. If a task force is 21 utilized, the department of public safety shall remain the 22 primary agency, and the agency involved in the use of force may 23 assist but shall not have any type of lead role in the 24 investigation. When a use of deadly force resulting in great 25 bodily harm or death is committed by a member of the department

.219527.1

1 of public safety, the lead role in the investigation shall be 2 maintained by the department of public safety, but members of 3 an outside agency shall be required to assist. A minimum of 4 two agents from the attorney general's office or another 5 competent investigative agency shall work the investigation in 6 conjunction with the department of public safety. All law
7 enforcement agencies shall fully cooperate with and promptly
8 respond to requests for information from the relevant 9 prosecuting authority and the law enforcement agency or 10 independent investigator charged with authority over the 11 investigation.

12 F. The relevant prosecuting authority shall be 13 responsible for determining whether the facts and applicable
14 law allow for prosecution of the peace officer for criminal 15 liability resulting from the alleged use of deadly force 16 resulting in great bodily harm or death and any other in-17 custody death. The relevant prosecuting authority may also 18 assist a concurrent investigative grand jury to subpoena 19 witnesses, records and physical items related to the 20 investigation as otherwise permitted by law. The costs of the 21 investigation shall be paid out of the general fund of the 22 county in which the investigation is made, and the costs of any 23 prosecution arising out of the investigation shall be paid as 24 are the costs in cases prosecuted by district attorneys.

25 G. During an investigation, the relevant

1 prosecuting authority shall provide quarterly reports to the 2 attorney general, to the district attorney in whose judicial 3 district the offense is alleged to have occurred and to the 4 governor, providing any material updates that do not impair the 5 investigation. These quarterly reports shall be considered
6 public records pursuant to the Inspection of Public Records
7 Act. Any declination of prosecution by the relevant
8 prosecuting authority shall be documented in a detailed report 9 citing all relevant evidence to the attorney general, to the 10 district attorney in whose judicial district the offense is 11 alleged to have occurred and to the governor and shall be 12 considered a public record pursuant to the Inspection of Public
13 Records Act.

14 H. At all times during an investigation pursuant to 15 this section, the attorney general shall have concurrent
16 jurisdiction to prosecute unlawful uses of deadly force
17 resulting in great bodily harm or death and in-custody deaths
18 and to prosecute any unlawful use of deadly force involved in a 19 failure to comply with the requirements for electronic 20 recordings of custodial interrogations pursuant to Section 21 29-1-16 NMSA 1978 or a failure to record the incident by using 22 a body-worn camera approved by the department of public safety.

23 I. As used in this section:

24 (1) "deadly force" means a degree of force
25 that is reasonably likely to cause death or great bodily harm

.219527.1

1 and that is the direct cause of death or great bodily harm and 2 not merely a contributing factor in the death of a person with 3 a preexisting condition;

4 (2) "great bodily harm" means an injury to a
5 person from use of deadly force by a peace officer that creates 6 a high probability of death or results in permanent loss or 7 impairment of the function of any organ in the body;

8 (3) "in-custody death" means a death that 9 occurs while an individual is being detained under color of law
10 and is the result of specific action taken by a peace officer
11 or a breach of policy by a peace officer, but does not include 12 a death that is the result of natural causes;

13 (4) "peace officer" means any public official
14 or public officer vested by law with a duty to maintain public 15 order or to make arrests for crime, whether that duty extends 16 to all crimes or is limited to specific crimes; "peace officer"
17 also includes a correctional officer employed by a privately 18 operated correctional facility; and 19 (5) "primary investigative agency" means the 20 agency that is responsible for assigning a case agent to the 21 investigation, conducting a complete investigation and ensuring 22 the integrity and transparency of the investigation process."
