2 thousand seven hundred volunteers in New Mexico; and

3 WHEREAS, boy scouts provide considerable public service to 4 their communities, including more than twenty-seven thousand 5 hours in 2017 through eagle scout projects alone; and

6 WHEREAS, the most recent study by Tufts university found 7 that men who were scouts for five or more years as boys were 8 more likely than men with no scouting experience to graduate
9 from high school and college, earn higher household incomes, 10 have lifelong friendships and believe helping others should 11 come before one's own self-interests; and

12 WHEREAS, in New Mexico, two hundred thirty-three young men 13 obtained the rank of eagle scout in 2017; and

14 WHEREAS, the great southwest council, the conquistador
15 council and the yucca council operate camping and other outdoor 16 activities for youth at the Campbell scout ranch in the Sandia
17 mountains, the Gorham scout ranch near Chimayo and the 18 Wehinahpay mountain camp in the Sacramento mountains; and

19 WHEREAS, the national division of the boy scouts of 20 America operates the Philmont scout ranch in Cimarron, which 21 hosts more thirty thousand visitors from all over the world
22 every year; and

23 WHEREAS, the national scouting museum is relocating to New 24 Mexico from Irving, Texas; and

25 WHEREAS, scouting serves young people throughout New
