WHEREAS, Thomas Hill and Kathleen "Katie" Potter were at the forefront of responders; and

WHEREAS, after encountering the shooter, custodian Thomas

1 WHEREAS, substitute teacher Kathleen "Katie" Potter
2 reacted quickly to the lockdown warning, gathering her
3 seventeen students in a small office next to the computer lab,
4 pushing a sofa against the door as a barricade and directing 5 her students to get down on the floor; and

6 WHEREAS, the shooter entered the computer lab and began 7 firing into the walls, but thanks to Katie Potter taking the 8 school's active-shooter drills seriously, no one was hit; and

9 WHEREAS, both Thomas Hill and Katie Potter say they are 10 not heroes, but their actions prove otherwise; and

11 WHEREAS, Aztec high school students and staff members also 12 welcomed first responders back to the school on January 12, 13 2018 to pay tribute to their bravery; and

14 WHEREAS, student body leaders recognized police officers, 15 law enforcement agents, firefighters, emergency medical 16 technicians, 911 dispatchers, red cross volunteers and school 17 and district staff; and

18 WHEREAS, Craig Daugherty, San Juan county's fire chief, 19 presented Thomas Hill, who has been a volunteer firefighter for 20 twenty years, with a medal of valor for prompting a lockdown
21 after the shooting began;

22 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 23 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO that the bravery and
