13 at the time of commission of the felony prescribed a different
14 penalty. The minimum term of imprisonment that may be imposed

18 omission charged in a state of insanity.

35 state prison:

7 appealing to, or gratifying the lust, passions or sexual desires of the 8 perpetrator or of the child.

9 Sec. 5. NRS 7.125 is hereby amended to read as follows:

10 7.125 1. Except as limited by subsections 2, 3 and 4, an 11 attorney, other than a public defender, who is appointed by a
12 magistrate or a district court to represent or defend a defendant at 13 any stage of the criminal proceedings from the defendant's initial 14 appearance before the magistrate or the district court through the 15 appeal, if any, is entitled to receive a fee for court appearances and 16 other time reasonably spent on the matter to which the appointment
17 is made of ~~[$125 per hour in cases in which the death penalty is~~ 18 ~~sought and]~~ $100 per hour . ~~[in all other cases.]~~ Except for cases in 19 which the most serious crime is a felony punishable ~~[by death or]~~ by 20 imprisonment for life with or without possibility of parole, this
21 subsection does not preclude a governmental entity from contracting
22 with a private attorney who agrees to provide such services for a
23 lesser rate of compensation.

24 2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the total fee
25 for each attorney in any matter regardless of the number of offenses
26 charged or ancillary matters pursued must not exceed:

27 (a) If the most serious crime is a felony punishable ~~[by death or]~~
28 by imprisonment for life with or without possibility of parole,
29 $20,000;

30 (b) If the most serious crime is a felony other than a felony
31 included in paragraph (a) or is a gross misdemeanor, $2,500;

32 (c) If the most serious crime is a misdemeanor, $750;

33 (d) For an appeal of one or more misdemeanor convictions,
34 $750; or

35 (e) For an appeal of one or more gross misdemeanor or felony
36 convictions, $2,500.

37 3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, an attorney
38 appointed by a district court to represent an indigent petitioner for a
39 writ of habeas corpus or other postconviction relief, if the petitioner
40 is imprisoned pursuant to a judgment of conviction of a gross
41 misdemeanor or felony, is entitled to be paid a fee not to exceed 42 $750.

43 4. If the appointing court because of:

44 (a) The complexity of a case or the number of its factual or legal 45 issues;

- (b) The severity of the offense;
- (c) The time necessary to provide an adequate defense; or
- (d) Other special circumstances,

↳ deems it appropriate to grant a fee in excess of the applicable maximum, the payment must be made, but only if the court in which the representation was rendered certifies that the amount of the excess payment is both reasonable and necessary and the payment is approved by the presiding judge of the judicial district in which the attorney was appointed, or if there is no such presiding judge or if he or she presided over the court in which the representation was rendered, then by the district judge who holds seniority in years of service in office.

5. The magistrate, the district court, the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court may, in the interests of justice, substitute one appointed attorney for another at any stage of the proceedings, but the total amount of fees granted to all appointed attorneys must not exceed those allowable if but one attorney represented or defended the defendant at all stages of the criminal proceeding.

Sec. 6. NRS 34.724 is hereby amended to read as follows:

34.724 1. Any person convicted of a crime and under sentence of ~~death or~~ imprisonment who claims that the conviction was obtained, or that the sentence was imposed, in violation of the Constitution of the United States or the Constitution or laws of this State, or who claims that the time the person has served pursuant to the judgment of conviction has been improperly computed, may, without paying a filing fee, file a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus to obtain relief from the conviction or sentence or to challenge the computation of time that the person has served.

2. Such a petition:

(a) Is not a substitute for and does not affect any remedies which are incident to the proceedings in the trial court or the remedy of direct review of the sentence or conviction.

(b) Comprehends and takes the place of all other common-law, statutory or other remedies which have been available for challenging the validity of the conviction or sentence, and must be used exclusively in place of them.

(c) Is the only remedy available to an incarcerated person to challenge the computation of time that the person has served pursuant to a judgment of conviction.

3. For the purposes of this section, a motion to withdraw a plea of guilty, guilty but mentally ill or nolo contendere pursuant to NRS 176.165 that is made after sentence is imposed or imposition of sentence is suspended is a remedy which is incident to the proceedings in the trial court if:

1 (a) The person has not filed a prior motion to withdraw the plea
2 and has not filed a prior postconviction petition for a writ of habeas
3 corpus;

4 (b) The motion is filed within 1 year after the date on which the
5 person was convicted, unless the person pleads specific facts
6 demonstrating that some impediment external to the defense
7 precluded bringing the motion earlier;

8 (c) At the time the person files the motion to withdraw the plea,
9 the person is not incarcerated for the charge for which the person
10 entered the plea; and

11 (d) The motion is not barred by the doctrine of laches. A motion
12 filed more than 5 years after the date on which the person was 13 convicted creates a rebuttable presumption of prejudice to the State
14 on the basis of laches.

15 4. The court shall not appoint counsel to represent a person for 16 the purpose of subsection 3.

17 Sec. 7. NRS 34.735 is hereby amended to read as follows:

18 34.735 A petition must be in substantially the following form,
19 with appropriate modifications if the petition is filed in the Court of 20 Appeals or the Supreme Court:

38 INSTRUCTIONS:

39 (1) This petition must be legibly handwritten or
40 typewritten, signed by the petitioner and verified.

41 (2) Additional pages are not permitted except where noted
42 or with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support
43 your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be 44 furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should 45 be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.

(3) If you want an attorney appointed, you must complete the Affidavit in Support of Request to Proceed in Forma Pauperis. You must have an authorized officer at the prison complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.

(4) You must name as respondent the person by whom you are confined or restrained. If you are in a specific institution of the Department of Corrections, name the warden or head of the institution. If you are not in a specific institution of the Department but within its custody, name the Director of the Department of Corrections.

(5) You must include all grounds or claims for relief which you may have regarding your conviction or sentence. Failure to raise all grounds in this petition may preclude you from filing future petitions challenging your conviction and sentence.

(6) You must allege specific facts supporting the claims in the petition you file seeking relief from any conviction or sentence. Failure to allege specific facts rather than just conclusions may cause your petition to be dismissed. If your petition contains a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel, that claim will operate to waive the attorney-client privilege for the proceeding in which you claim your counsel was ineffective.

(7) When the petition is fully completed, the original and one copy must be filed with the clerk of the state district court for the county in which you were convicted. One copy must be mailed to the respondent, one copy to the Attorney General's Office, and one copy to the district attorney of the county in which you were convicted or to the original prosecutor if you are challenging your original conviction or sentence. 24 magistrate shall employ a certified court reporter to take down all
25 the testimony and the proceedings on the hearing or examination
26 and, within such time as the court may designate, have such

30 ~~penalty is sought,]~~ may employ a certified court reporter to take

19 trial.

20 4. If a petition is filed pursuant to this section, the court may:

14 life.

15 ~~[(e)] (b)~~ Who was convicted of a sexual offense involving the 18 ~~[(e)] (d)~~ Who is a repeat offender.

19 ~~[(f)] (e)~~ Who was convicted of any other type of offense.

20 ~~→~~ The standards must be based upon objective criteria for

22 2. In establishing the standards, the Board shall consider the 23 information on decisions regarding parole that is compiled and 24 maintained pursuant to NRS 213.10887 and all other factors which
25 are relevant in determining the probability that a convicted person
26 will live and remain at liberty without violating the law if parole is 27 granted or continued. The other factors the Board considers must 28 include, but are not limited to:

29 (a) The severity of the crime committed;

44 violent crime considered the most serious, than for a convicted

1 person who does not have a history of repetitive crimes and did not
2 commit a serious crime.

3 5. The Board shall make available to the public a sample of the 4 form the Board uses in determining the probability that a convicted

7 6. On or before January 1 of each odd-numbered year, the 8 Board shall review comprehensively the standards adopted by 9 the Board. The review must include a determination of whether the 10 standards are effective in predicting the probability that a convicted 11 person will live and remain at liberty without violating the law if 12 parole is granted or continued. If a standard is found to be
13 ineffective, the Board shall not use that standard in its decisions
14 regarding parole and shall adopt revised standards as soon as 15 practicable after the review.

35 society;

36 (c) The seriousness of the offense and the history of criminal
