AN ACT relating to victims of crime; requiring a law enforcement agency to furnish a free copy of all reports of the law enforcement agency concerning an act that constitutes domestic violence under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a law enforcement agency to furnish a free, complete and unaltered copy of all reports of the law enforcement agency concerning a sexual assault upon written request by the survivor of the sexual assault. Under existing law, a law enforcement agency: (1) must furnish any such report within 1 month after receiving a written request by a survivor; and (2) may, as appropriate, redact personal identifying information from any such report. (NRS 178A.280) This bill: (1) imposes a similar requirement on a law enforcement agency that receives a written request from a victim of domestic violence; and (2) authorizes the law enforcement agency to redact personal identifying information under similar circumstances.
